Johnson Formally Asks Congress for More War Funds

Message Requests Additional $12.761 Billion for Viet Nam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson formally asked Congress today for an extra $12 761 billion to finance the war in Viet Nam, declaring "We hope the aggression will end, we must be prepared if it does not"

Again Johnson was unable to say whether his current effort "to open a road to a peaceful settlement' will be successful or not

"We will continue to press on every door," he said

"But until there is a response —and until the aggression ends —we must do all that is necessary," the President said, "to support our allies and our fighting forces in Viet Nam That is the purpose of the present request"

The request was in the form of a letter to Speaker of the House John W McCormack It urged Congress to act promptly

The second supplemental defense money request this fiscal year will provide, among other things, for adding 113 000 men to the armed forces and for buying their equipment Civilian personnel will be increased by 94,000

Most of the new troops will be allotted to the Army and Marine Corps the services fighting the ground war in Southeast Asia A few thousand men will be given each to the Air Force and Navy

If Congress approves as expected the U S armed forces will go to 3 093.000 men — highest since a year after the Korean war

Provide Details

Johnson s formal request to Congress was expected to provide details on the proposal for $12 346 billion in military money and $415 million for the economic side of the U S effort in Viet Nam

The in-depth specifics may not emerge until Secretary of Defense Robert S McNamara testifies in support of the money request Thursday

From the skimpy information let out ahead of the presidential communication to Congress, it is known that $4 6 billion of the new supplemental will be spent by June 30 the end of the current fiscal year

This together with a $1 7 billion add-on to the defense budget for Viet Nam last summer, will jack up total military spending to $54 2 billion this year This is about $6 billion higher than expected when the regular defense budget went to Capitol Hill nearly a year ago

Following closely behind the $12 761-billion request for this year will come the regular defense budget proposal for next fiscal year — a request swollen to an expected $58 3 billion by the Viet Nam war

And already there is talk in the Pentagon of preparing for still another money request, perhaps in the spring

4.25 Per Cent Expected to be Bond Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government soon will nike interest rates on U S savings bonds to the maximum allowable 4¼ per cent but will not ask congressional approval to go beyond that, sources indicated today

The government now pays 3¾ per cent interest on the $49 billion outstanding in series 'E" and "H" bonds

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H Fowler announced Tuesday that President Johnson had ordered the interest boost at "the earliest possible date" Fowler said the higher rates will help maintain the bond sales

Under law, the government cannot raise the interest rate beyond 4¼ per cent without congressional approval.

Expect Early Decision on '65 Voting Act

Arguments Before Supreme Court Are Concluded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fate of the 1965 Voting Rights Act is now in the hands of the Supreme Court for a decision Chief Justice Earl Warren says 'has profound implications in the life of our nation"

An early ruling may be in the offing Warren concluded two days of argument on the law's constitutionality Tuesday with praise for both sides of having 'done what they can to accelerate an early judgment"

Twenty states joined the U S government in defending the law as an appropriate and constitutional means of assuring Southern Negroes of the right to vote Six Southern states united to attack the measure as "arbitrary in nature" and unconstitutional punishment for the states

The last word went to South Carolina Atty. Gen Daniel R McLeod who questioned the "tender solicitude" of states that sided with the Justice Department

New York Test

"California, Massachus et t s and New York come before this court and say illiterates in South Carolina should be permitted to vote," McLeod said, and yet they bar illiterates in their own states with literacy tests

In a New York literacy test he went on, questions such as these were posed

'In what state was Jane Addams born? How old will the U S flag be in 1977? Who was president of the Constitutional Convention? What kind of suit was he wearing?"'

Laughter swept the courtroom dispelling the solemnity that had marked the hearing, and Justice Byron R White asked rhetorically with a smile 'how many people passed that test?'

"Possibly tests of this sort may have weeded out a few well-educated persons in my state" McLeod replied

The suspension of literacy tests where less than 50 per cent of the voting age population registered or voted in the 1964 presidential election is a key provision of the voting rights law and a prime target of the southern states' attack.

Mrs. Indira Gandhi Is Escorted by India's acting Prime Minister Gulzari Lal Nanda arriving at Central Hall in New Delhi today where Parliament elected her prime minister Mrs. Gandhi, 48, is the daughter of the late Prime Minister Nehru and the first woman to lead a major nation.

First Woman Leader

Mrs. Indira Gandhi Wins Indian Prime Minister Job

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — nounced the results of the secret ballot interval It also passed the nation's leadership to the second generation of Indian politicians

Mrs Indira Gandhi, daughter of the late Jawaharlal Nehru, was elected today to be India's next prime minister, the first woman in modern times to head the government of a major nation

As the Nehru family once again took command in India, Mrs Gandhi moved quickly to heal any damage done to party unity by the hectic political maneuvering that followed Shastri's death

Until today, India has been governed by the early freedom fighters who waged Mohandas K Gandhi s "peaceful resistance' campaign to win independence from Britain

India's ruling Congress party automatically elevated Mrs Gandhi to prime minister by electing her leader of its majority faction in Parliament

"I want your blessing," she told Desai as balloting began

The stern, 69-year-old Desai replied "Who am I to give you blessing? We need everybody's blessing"

Victory for Mrs Gandhi who learned politics at her father s side not only resumed the Nehru era after Shastri s 19-month

Thus on the shoulders of this 48-year-old widow fell the immense problems of India with which her father had wrestled for 17 years until his death in 1964 and which his successor, Lal Bahadur Shastri, had attacked vigorously until a heart attack killed him Jan 11

Mrs Gandhi went to her victory wearing a red rosebud pinned to her shawl, just as her father wore a red rose daily throughout the tumultuous years after independence in 1947

Polls 355 Votes

Mrs Gandhi polled 355 votes to 169 for her only challenger, right-wing leader Morarji Desai

Cheering erupted in Parliament s central hall when a party official, G S Pathak announced the results of the secret ballot

As the Nehru family once again took command in India, Mrs Gandhi moved quickly to heal any damage done to party unity by the hectic political maneuvering that followed Shastri's death

"I want your blessing," she told Desai as balloting began

The stern, 69-year-old Desai replied "Who am I to give you blessing? We need everybody's blessing"

Victory for Mrs Gandhi who learned politics at her father s side not only resumed the Nehru era after Shastri s 19-month

Minor Roll

Mrs Gandhi was part of that movement but played only a minor role However, the survivors of her father's generation, notably Congress party President Kumaraswami Kamaraj, crushed most opposition to Mrs Gandhi and thus will continue to have a say — perhaps a strong say — in national affairs

Mrs Gandhi is the 20th century s second woman prime minister The other was Mrs Sirimavo Bandaranaike of Ceylon, the tiny island nation of 10 million people off the southern tip of India Elected in 1960 she was defeated in elections early last year

A new prime minister could hardly face more serious problems than Mrs Gandhi does

There is widespread hunger in India and a near famine is expected in the coming months

The dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir, which has set the two countries at war twice in 17 years still festers India's 480

Oshkosh, Green Bay Win Federal Status as Ports With 'Regional' Duties

In a sudden and unexpected action, the United States 7th District Court of Appeals in Chicago Tuesday upheld a Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) decision which declares Oshkosh and Green Bay regional airports for North Central Airlines flights.

The court s unanimous decision delivered about 4 30 p m Tuesday, means, in effect, that the cities of Appleton and Clintonville will be deprived of North Central service

As a result, Oshkosh will be designated a regional airport to serve 'Oshkosh Appleton' and Green Bay will be the regional port to serve 'Green Bay Clintonville"

The court's decision took officials of North Central and the communities involved by complete surprise

Consulting Attorneys

Bernard Sweet, a top officer of North Central, had just heard of the decision when he was contacted late this morning Sweet said he had no idea how long the airline would continue to fly into the Outagamie County and Clintonville airports "We are consulting with our attorneys in Washington," he said, "in order to find out just how we should proceed" Some sources feel it will be at least a month before the last North Central Convair sets down at the two airports

Outagamie County Corporation Counsel A W Ponath was stunned by the decision of the three - judge panel "I m disappointed," he said, "and I don't think their findings as to flights and business are correct The findings are based on a premise not justified by the actual facts of the case"

Study Appeal

Ponath said he would confer with County Board Supv Mark Catlin, an Appleton attorney who is chairman of the airport committee, and Gerald O Grady, the county's Washington, D C, legal counsel in the appeal, on whether the county will make an appeal to a higher court (which presumably would be the U S Supreme Court). 'We ll make a decision shortly," he said

However, most Appleton and Clintonville observers, who have followed the case closely, doubt that the court's decision will be appealed

One Appleton spokesman who looked on the court action with mixed emotions was attorney Karl P Baldwin, president of Air Wisconsin, the new commuter airline which operates between the Outagamie County Airport and Chicago s O'Hare Field

On Jan 7 Baldwin received a letter from Frank Buttomer, North Central's vice president in charge of traffic and sales, in response to an inquiry on North

Find Bodies Of Nigerians

50 Army Officers Reportedly Killed After Coup Attempt

LAGOS Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria's political parties are rallying to the new military government but up to 50 officers have been reported executed in a power struggle within the army

Reliable sources who reported the executions said among the dead was a lieutenant colonel who had tried to assassinate the country's new leader, Maj Gen. Aguiyi Ironsi

There were other reports that some officers were shot on the Lagos golf course A British resident reported stumbling over an officer's body in long grass at the side of atree

The country's feuding political parties promised to support Ironsi's military regime Among them was the Northern People's Congress party which with 12 Cabinet ministers dominated the government of Prime Minister Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa

Balewa Kidnaped

Tafawa Balewa was kidnaped by military rebels who tried to stage a coup Saturday. The body of Finance Minister Festus Okotie Eboh, who was kidnaped with him, was found with five others in a shallow grave 30 miles outside Lagos, a government source reported. There still was no word on the fate of Tafawa Balewa

The Northern People's Congress leader, Zanna Bukar Dipcharima, called on all Nigerians to rally round the new military regime

Rusk, Harriman End 2-Day Rests

HONOLULU (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and roving U S Ambassador W. Averell Harriman end today a brief Hawaiian respite after visits to four Asian capitals where they discussed Viet Nam

They leave for Washington where they are to report to President Johnson

Harriman, 74 appeared tired when they arrived Monday night But he went for a swim and Rusk took a long walk along Waikiki beach Tuesday

Follows Bloody Attack

Communists Start Truce in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The clock brought the Viet Cong tonight into their self-proclaimed four-day truce for the lunar new year after they had staged a series of attacks the bloodiest at a camp for 2,000 Vietnamese refugees.

American armed forces remained on full alert It was still unclear whether the Communist truce offer—advertised as effective at 11 p m (10 a m EST)—covered U S and other Allied troops

Thirty-three persons were killed and 54 wounded as the guerrillas swept down before dawn on the sleeping camp on the outskirts of Tam Ky a provincial capital 350 miles northeast of Saigon Many of the victims were women and children

Burn Huts

U S advisers said the raiders set fire to thatched huts executed whole families on the spot mangled the bodies and kidnaped nine men They left behind leaflets denouncing U S operations as a dirty war of aggression against the people of Viet Nam'

As to the Viet Cong cease fire one intelligence source said hard information had been received that American GIs would not be included

As in the case of the Christmas truce the Saigon government and its American and other allies have ordered a cease fire of their own But it is to run for only 78 hours instead of the 96 hours set by the Viet Cong

The Allied cease fire is to go into effect at 12 noon Thursday and end at 6 p m Sunday

A U S spokesman said American military operations already under way will continue until noon Thursday

The U S 1st Infantry Division tangled for more than an hour

Firecrackers Exploded in Negro Church

NEW ORLEANS La (AP) — Sheriff Alwayn Cronvich of adjoining Jefferson Parish said today the explosion in a Gretna Negro church Tuesday night was due to a couple of potent firecrackers—not a bomb

The Jefferson Parish bomb squad which investigated identified the explosive as a pair of loud but relatively harmless silver stars — a firecracker roughly similar to the juvenile favorite known as the 'cherry bomb

Officers said apparently the firecrackers were pitched into the church vestibule through the front entrance The loud 'bang' startled the choir members practicing at the rear of the church — the Mount Zion Baptist church The Rev Henry Allen, pastor said the choir members left the building through the rear door

The Rev Mr Allen says his church has been subjected to repeated acts of vandalism for the past 18 months

Students Rally In Indonesia

Thousands of students paraded through the capital shouting slogans and denouncing members of President Sukarno s Cabinet

At a huge rally Monday at the University of Indones a student leaders called for the removal of Cabinet ministers responsible for the deteriorating economic situation

They also asked for the dissolution of the Indonesian Communist party — PKI Sukarno earlier told a group of students who came to his palace to 'wait and see' what he would do about the PKI.

U. S. Planners Say War Must be Stepped Up

SAIGON South Viet Nam (AP) — High-level U S planners in Viet Nam say the United States and South Viet Nam must step up the war not de-escalate if the Communists are to be brought to the conference table and a favorable peace worked out high s reliable sources reported today

Top civil thinking is that in the unlikely event Hanoi and the Viet Cong ask for an armistice allied pressure should be stepped up rather than eased The bombings against North Viet Nam should be resumed and intensified it is argued Fighting should not end before the conclusion of peace talks

The views which appear at variance with President Johnson s current peace offensive have been transmitted to Washington What response has been made if any is not known

Peace Easily Lost

The messages to Washington stressed that any peace could easily be lost unless the peace agreement contains ironclad guarantees that can and would be enforced Otherwise the American planners say, a Communist take over is clearly possible

Other warnings to Washington include a suggestion that no peace treaty be sought that would force North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh to admit defeat even by implication

This top planners feel could result in Hos overthrow by a more aggressive more Peking oriented faction which would renew the war

Recognize Power

The feeling here is that unless Peking Hanoi and the Viet Cong realize that the United States and its allies not only have the power to win but are willing to use that power come what may, peace will be long delayed

The U S mission also is believed to have warned Washington that peace negotiations now would require the recognition of several unpleasant realities the extent of Communist control in the countryside the lack of any pro-government or even anti-Communist political party to match the Viet Cong s smoothly functioning National Liberation Front and the difficulty of the allies in countering the Communists mobile warfare tactics which so far has given them most of the initiative on the battlefields.

Court Upholds CAB Decision on Airport

Central's future service plans to Appleton

Baldwin said today that, in the letter Buttomer stated "In the event the court sustains the CAB s decision then of course we will move our entire operation to the Winnebago County Airport and will abandon the Appleton operation "

Baldwin said " Now less than two weeks later, the court has sustained the CAB and North Central, probably within 30 days can carry out its expressed intention of moving

Unfortunately," he said "this gives Air Wisconsin very little time to plan increases in service However we plan to increase our service at the Outagamie County Airport and increase it we will All we ask," he said, " is that the traveling public bear with us during this transitional period "

Air Wisconsin presently operates four southbound and return flights daily with its three, nine-passenger DeHavilland " Dove" aircraft However, the Appleton airline recently ordered two turbo-prop DeHavilland " Twin Otters with 17-passenger capacities The planes could arrive as early as July or August

The court s decision was virtually a word-for-word repetition of the original order which was written by the federal government s CAB

The three-judge panel, made up of Elmer Schnackenberg, Latham Castle and Roger Kiley, upheld all the CAB's recommendations, including the portion of the order which would take North Central flights away from Ashland (Wis ) and award the northern Wisconsin city s flights to Ironwood (Mich )

Decision Highlights

Here are some of the highlights of the decision, which was written by Judge Kiley

"With respect to Appleton-Oshkosh, the (CAB) examiner thought the ideal solution was a new airport in the vicinity of Neenah but since Oshkosh and Appleton were unable to agree on this and since the FAA (Federal Aviation Agency) had given clearance to the (then) proposed new Outagamie County Airport the examiner decided that Oshkosh should continue to receive North Central service at its Winnebago County Airport and that Appleton should continue to receive service at its present (the old) airport and at the new airport when it is constructed

"The board found that 80 per cent of the Oshkosh-Appleton passengers enplaned at Oshkosh and 85 per cent of the area cargo and 90 per cent of its air mail use the Oshkosh airport that North Central's 'break-even need' would be improved by $34,155 with consolidation at Oshkosh that only a $170,000 expenditure would enable Winnebago County to bring its airport up to FAA-designed standards and that the cost of completing the new Outagamie County Airport may be eliminated in a substantial measure

Financial Advantage

"The inconvenience to Appleton traffic " Judge Kiley wrote "would not be significant and would in any event, be offset by better service and financial advantages in that there would be no backhaul for Appleton passengers traveling to the Winnebago County Airport, about 26 miles and 35 minutes away, that about 71 per cent of Appleton Neenah and Menasha passengers now travel to the Winnebago airport rather than to the Appleton airport that if the Outagamie airport were selected as the area airport North Central probably would lose a substantial number of passengers now boarding at Oshkosh who would instead drive to Milwaukee or Chicago and that North Central s subsidy need would be increased by an estimated $68,000

Clintonville Decision

With regard to Green Bay and Clintonville the court s decision read (in part)

As to the Green Bay Clintonville pair, the board stated that the examiner s determination rested essentially on the preponderent weight given to the factors of air cargo generated at Clintonville, the adequacy of surface transportation, the effect of loss of air service on Clintonville's industrial growth and North Central s financial history from its Clintonville operation

The board agreed that Clintonville s record as a generator of air cargo was properly accorded considerable weight but stated the other factors did not weigh as heavily in its judgment as they did in the examiner's The board found that Clintonville failed to generate an average of five passengers daily for a decade and that the trend has remained relatively static

"That despite air service at Clintonville, about 41 per cent of its air travellers used the Green Bay airport

" Undoubtedly " the decision reads, "because of frequency of flights and the superiority of equipment there and that facts discount the weight to be given to claims of inaccessibility to the Green Bay airport, that consolidation of service at Green Bay would reduce North Central s subsidy needed by more than $30,000 a year and obliviate the expenditure of over $300,000 to improve the Clintonville airport and that the consolidation would not have a dampening effect of Clintonville s economy predicted by the examiner "

Emergency meetings were being held this afternoon by local aviation officials both in Clintonville and Appleton

The aviation committee of the Appleton Area Chamber of Commerce was meeting at noon today to discuss ramifications of the board s decision and to decide on what action the Chamber might take

Johnson Wants Tax Proposals Through Congress by March 15

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told Congress today he wants it to pass by March 15 his proposals to increase government revenues $4 8 billion through tax changes in the coming year

Johnson made his wish known in a letter to chairman Wilbur D Mills, D-Ark of the House Ways and Means Committee as that group started hearings on the proposals he made in his State of the Union message

Play-Writing Teacher Will Keep Credentials

SACRAMENTO Calif (AP) — A teacher, who wrote a play which became so controversial in her community that she says her life was threatened, will keep her state teaching credentials

The California Credentials Committee agreed unanimously Tuesday that it had no legal grounds to fire Geri Turner Davis, 31 of San Diego, author of the prize-winning one-act drama, 'A Cat Called Jesus "

But Dr Everett Calvert, committee chairman, said the play's language is ' cheap and vulgar We do not condone the play "

The blonde English teacher at Mission Day High School was cleared of charges of unprofessional conduct after a two-hour hearing in which the play, she had once packed away and forgotten, was read aloud page by page

The hearing was called after some San Diego residents complained that the title was blasphemous and the play too racy with a battalion of Viet Cong, about 500 guerrillas, in the afternoon in jungles 22 miles northwest of Saigon The Communists broke off the action after American air support was called in

By nudafternoon the U S planes had flown 49 sorties against the Communists The infantrymen were engaged during a sweep dubbed Operation Buckskin Their casualties were described as light Communist losses were not immediately estimated

Refugee Settlement

As the Viet Cong descended on the refugee settlement at Tam Ky from surrounding rice fields, they simultaneously launched a mortar and recoilless rifle attack on the Quang Tin Province headquarters, 300 yards north of the refugee camp Parts of the camp may have been caught in the crossfire, but a government spokesman denied any fire was directed at the camp

A mortar fell through the roof of a billet housing men of the U S Central Intelligence Agency, but none of the Americans was injured and there was only negligible damage to the rest of the complex Two Vietnamese guards were wounded

U S advisers who entered the Tu Hiep refugee camp after the 40-minute siege said it had been turned into a chamber of horrors Women wept over the bodies of their children A three-room school that had been built only three months ago was blown to bits

At the same hour, two companies of Viet Cong moved onto the Thang Binh district headquarters about a mile to the northwest after hammering the post with recoilless rifle and mortar fire They were reported to have inflicted moderate casualties on the defenders, a civic action team, before breaking off the attack before sunrise Three guerrillas were known dead, a spokesman said

The two-pronged Communist attack came in the 62-mile coastal strip separating the big U S Marine encampments at Da Nang and Chu Lai, where 3,000 Leatherneck reinforcements arrived from Okinawa Tuesday U S military observers saw it as both a challenge to the Marines and a lesson to any Vietnamese sympathetic to the Americans

American Casualties

A U S spokesman said American casualties for the week ending Jan 15 were 52 killed, 237 wounded and three missing or captured, compared with 43 killed, 202 wounded and two missing or captured the previous week

The South Vietnamese reported 198 killed and 78 missing compared with 118 dead and 73 missing the previous seven days Vietnamese wounded are not announced

The Allies listed 696 Communists killed and 221 captured compared with a total 714 Viet Cong captured or killed the previous week

Two Injured

They exploded a bomb attached to a bicycle near a U S billet at Can Tho, 90 miles southwest of Saigon, injuring two U S servicemen and two Vietnamese

For the second consecutive day, the Communists attacked the Thu Duc officer candidate school 10 miles north of Saigon Tuesday night The Viet Cong were beaten off by government artillery after they inflicted light casualties with four rounds of mortars

A company of government troops suffered heavy casualties in a battle with a Viet Cong force 35 miles southwest of Saigon, a Vietnamese spokesman said

In the salty swamps 25 miles southeast of the capital, the Viet Cong hit an outpost before dawn but there was no report of casualties on either side

Prewar Luster

Saigon regained some of its prewar luster as the capital spruced up for Tet, the Vietnamese name for the New Year celebration The Street of Flowers in downtown Saigon was transformed into a carpet of blooms

Unlike the Western Ne wear, Tet is a holiday of many moods. It has deep religious significance as well as the aspects of carnival. It is a time of boundless joy and family visits and a symbolic birthday for every Buddhist in the country

Anyone Can Afford It

It's a Rare Snob Who Admits, Likes Snobbery

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you a snob?

The world is full of snobs, but few of them realize it or admit it. Most snobs are hypocrites They don't want to be recognized as snobs. It is the rare snob indeed who faces up to the fact of his snobbery — and enjoys it.

Snobs come in both sexes and all sizes, shapes, ages, occupations and degrees of wealth Snobbery sometimes is thought to be a prerogative of the rich, but no man is so poverty-stricken he can't afford to be a snob

Actually there are more snobs among the poor than among the rich, simply because there are more poor people.

Snobbery is a very human attribute, but just how much of a snob are you?

Well, you are probably just about 100 per cent snobbish if most of the following things are true about you

Romance Waitress

You'd try to romance a waitress or hatcheck girl but never think of marrying one

You'd date the boss's daughter but never marry her either, for fear someone would think you were a social climber

When talking about your ancestors, you always mention the one who came over on the Mayflower — and never mention the one who was hanged as a horse thief.

You never read a book that makes the best seller list.

When you are alone in an elevator and hear footsteps approaching, you quickly push the up button so you won't have to ride with a stranger.

You fawn on those you think are your superiors and frown on those you think are your inferiors.

Corned Beef and Cabbage

You never order corned beef and cabbage for lunch because it is supposed to be a vulgar dish

When a friend confides to you that his son has just been thrown out of a public school, you brag that your son has just been thrown out of a private one.

You are proud of having won a Phi Beta Kappa key in college but you never wear it in public because you are afraid it will make you look ostentatious.

At a cocktail party you talk knowingly about international affairs when what you'd rather talk about is blondes, brunettes and baseball.

When your rival for promotion at the office comes down with an ulcer, you develop two ulcers, hepatitis and migraine

You'd never think of making a trip to Niagara Falls or the Grand Canyon — too many common people have had fun there.

Know Your Place

Should a friend buy a more expensive house than you believe he can afford, you mutter sourly, "Some people don't know their place in life. Thank heavens, I do."

You believe anybody younger than yourself is still wet behind the ears and couldn't possibly know as much about life as you do

When you move to the suburbs you immediately switch to another political party and join a different church.

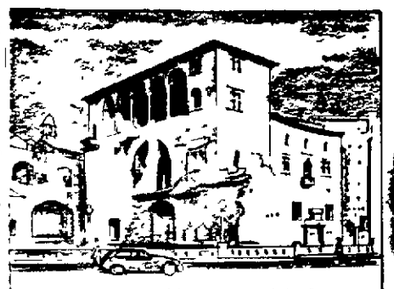

You sometimes say to yourself: "Well, at least I know one thing: Whatever else I may be, at least I'm not a snob."

Consolidated's Waste Treatment Plant Wins State Agency's Okay

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Construction of a new waste treatment plant, part of a $20 million development project of Consolidated Papers, Inc., in Wisconsin Rapids, was approved Tuesday by the State Committee on Water Pollution.

The plant, which must be completed by August 1, 1967 under the committee's authorization, will reduce the amount of pollutants entering the Wisconsin River from the paper-making plant by 77 per cent, according to company spokesmen.

Million Gallons

Three new sewage systems will be installed in the plant under the plan presented for state approval. One will carry normal plant wastes, a second, caustic wastes from the processing procedure of plant operations, and a third, wastes from the chlorinization processes.

Total capacity of the new disposal lines will be over seven million gallons a day, according to the specifications in the committee order.

Tuesday's approval was informal; the formal order will be issued by the committee on Feb. 10.

In other actions the committee considered a continuation of an earlier project investigating the affects of water pollutants on the taste of fresh water fish.

As presented, the plans call for a continuation of the study in an attempt to identify those elements in polluted water which cause a change in the fish taste.

The earlier stage of the study determined that there is a definite change in fish taste caused by polluted water, as commercial fishermen and fish processors have long claimed.

Federal Funds

The new study, if approved, will be conducted with federal funds allocated to the committee for water pollution investigations and data collection.

The committee decided to delay making a final decision on the project, however, until it can be determined if other state agencies might be willing to share the costs of such a study.

The first phase of the project cost only about $5,000 a year, the committee was told, but the State Conservation Department paid the costs of catching and transporting the fish to be studied, and so bore a part of the project costs.

The committee also was informed that a previous action, raising the salary of the committee director, T. F. Wisniewski, had been held illegal. Such actions cannot be taken in anticipation of the passage of a salary pay raise bill by the Legislature, the committee was informed.

Seek Volunteer Fireman Staff At Kaukauna

20 Men to Bolster Regulars Would Cut Insurance Rates

KAUKAUNA — The fire and police commission is attempting to recruit 20 men who will serve as volunteer firemen to supplement existing fire personnel, according to Clayton Kiffe, commission chairman.

The recommendation for a volunteer unit will require approval of the council. Addition of the volunteers to the 13 full-time firemen would place Kaukauna in a lower fire insurance bracket, thus giving business and industrial people lower insurance rates, according to Kiffe.

Applications Needed

Insurance classifications of cities are established by the Fire Insurance Rating Bureau, an independent organization in Milwaukee. Kaukauna presently is rated in fire insurance class six with 2,567 points. Addition of volunteer fire fighters is expected to drop the city under the 2,500 point mark which would place them in class five. Currently Little Chute is in class six and Appleton in class four.

Men applying for the positions can contact J. W. Weyenberg, commission secretary. Applicants must be between 21 and 40 years of age and in good health. A monthly salary will be set up by the commission for volunteers and men selected will be required to attend two training sessions per month.

Tentative plans call for some type of alarm system to be located in the home of volunteers. The fire call would be received at headquarters and it would be up to the men on duty to determine whether volunteers would be summoned or if the fire can be handled by members of the full-time crew.

Kidnap Leads To Shakeup of Secret Service

PARIS (AP) — The French government decided today to shake up its secret service and police organizations as a result of the kidnaping of Moroccan opposition leader Mehdi Ben Barka.

A communique issued after President Charles de Gaulle's weekly Cabinet meeting called the unsolved kidnaping of Ben Barka a "criminal undertaking organized from outside the country." But the communique admitted that the plot was aided by certain agents of the French secret service and French police.

Ben Barka was pickd up near a Left Bank restaurant Oct. 29 by two French policemen and taken to a suburban villa. He has not been seen since and information filtered from the judicial investigation of the case has indicated that he probably was killed there.

The Cabinet decided to transfer the counterespionage service, which has been responsible to Premier Georges Prompidou, to the Ministry of Defense.

Bishop Alton New President of State Church Council

Former Appleton Pastor Named At Annual Parley at Green Bay

GREEN BAY — The new president of the Wisconsin Council of Churches is Bishop Ralph Taylor Alton, who administers the work of about 500 Methodist churches with 135,000 members in the State of Wisconsin. He and eight other officers were elected during the afternoon session of the council during its annual meeting in Green Bay Tuesday.

Bishop Alton served as pastor of Appleton First Methodist Church from 1950 to 1960, before being named bishop.

Bishop Alton and the eight officers were installed and consecrated in their offices at an ecumenical service Tuesday evening. Also installed were nine denominational executives, seven division chairmen and 18 department chairmen who, with six laymen at large, make up the council's board of directors.

The new council president has served the Wisconsin Council of Churches as chairman of its division of research for the past two years and has served on the board of directors since being named as bishop of the Wisconsin area in 1960. A native of Ohio, he served pastorates in that state before coming to Wisconsin

Other officers are Floyd A Brynelson, Madison, immediate past president: Lorenz W Heise, Wauwatosa, first vice president, personnel: Edward Gruber, Prairie Du Sac, second vice president, finance: Mrs. Jesse B. Estes, Milwaukee, third vice president, church women Arthur Miller Fond du Lac, fourth vice president, church men: the Rev. C. H. Fylling, Madison, secretary, treasurer, and Wilbert L. Witte, Madison, associate treasurer.

Bishop Alton

Among the division and department chairmen elected and installed were the Rev. Jack Van Liew, Allenville Community Baptist Church, adult education, and the Rev. L. Clarence Kelley, Green Bay, formerly at First Methodist Church, Neenah, faith and order.

The Rev. Mr. Kelley discussed "New Strategy and Planning" at the parley.

Kaukauna Jaycees Choose Outstanding Young Man

George E. Greenwood Honored; Entered in State Competition

KAUKAUNA — George E. Greenwood, 35, 306 W. 11th St., was named outstanding young man for 1965 by the Jaycees at a dinner at Oakwood Hills Country Club Tuesday night.

Greenwood now is entered in state competition. The state winner advances to national competition. Greenwood was honored primarily for his work as chairman of the higher education committee of the Chamber of Commerce and as Kaukauna's representative on the Northeastern Wisconsin Education Committee.

Other finalists were Henry Drechsler, for his work in the field of education; Gerald Klarer, for his work with boys in city athletic programs, and Keith Siebers for his Boy Scout work and advancement in industry.

His Background

Greenwood is married and the father of seven children. He attended St. Norbert High School and graduated from St. Norbert College with a bachelor of science degree in biology in 1952. After serving two years as a lieutenant in the army infantry, he attended and graduated as valedictorian at Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science. He currently is manager of Greenwood Funeral Home

The young man began his education committee work for the Chamber of Commerce in May, 1964, and worked industriously to have a four-year university located in this area. He appeared many times before the state legislature, spoke before local clubs and organizations to promote the plan, attending many public hearings on the issue and assisted in preparing a brochure pointing out the advantages of Kaukauna as a site for the university.

During 1965 he served as chairman of the Easter Seal campaign in the city, is past grand knight of the Knights of Columbus, and a member of the Kiwanis Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and Holy Name Society of St. Mary Church. He also holds memberships in the National, Wisconsin and Fox Valley Funeral Director's Associations.

The award was presented by Neal Steinberg, program chairman for the Jaycees. Guest speaker for the banquet was Robert Thom, dean of boys at Neenah High School.

Mayor Files Papers for March Election

Fifth Term Sought By Clarence Mitchell; Assessor Also Files

Earlier, John A. Pierre, city assessor for 10 terms, became the first to file for that position.

There was also a sprinkling of other pre-election activity with filing and taking out nomination papers for aldermanic posts.

Mitchell, 49, of 312 W. Lindbergh St., is seeking his fifth term, having served as mayor for the past eight years. He filed papers with an estimated 800 signatures with the city clerk's office early this afternoon.

Three others are circulating papers for the office which will pay $14,000 a year as of May 1, 1966. Two others who took out papers announced recently they would not run.

Pierre, who resides at 717 E Frances St., said he was running on his record

Two other residents are circulating papers for the assessor's position.

In other developments:

—Robert Parnell, 32, 220 W. Parkway, took out nomination papers for alderman in the 16th Ward. Parnell is employed in the production department at Tuttle Press. He is the son of Circuit Judge Andrew Parnell

—Nathan M. Dahlman, 36, 738 S. Mason St., an employe of the Kimberly-Clark Corp. at its Lakeview mill, filed for 6th Ward alderman.

—Daniel L. Baer, 608 E. North St., an engineer, filed papers and became a candidate for alderman in the 2nd Ward.

—Harold H. Douglas, 1030 E. Byrd St., a record clerk in the department of public works, filed for 14th Ward alderman.

Race Develops For Kaukauna Justice Post

KAUKAUNA — A second race for a city office developed Tuesday when Mrs Herbert (Katy) Schmitz, 410 Dixon St., took out nomination papers for the office of municipal justice.

Mrs. Schmitz, a school bus driver, will be opposing Oscar T. Jahns who is seeking his third term.

A 3-way race developed for school commissioner when Richard Berkers, 302 W. Wisconsin Ave., Kaukauna, began circulating nomination papers Berkers is single and a partner in an insurance agency. He will be running against Olin Dryer and Victor Haen, incumbents Two offices are to be filled

Legality of Information Questioned

Attorney Says City Clerk Gave Wrong Instructions With Papers

A claim was made today by an Appleton attorney that City Clerk Elden Broehm erred in instructions he gave prospective officeseekers when they took out nomination papers for the spring election.

The question of the legality of the information given out by the city clerk was raised in a letter to Mayor Clarence Mitchell and the city council by David G. Geenen, a partner in a law practice at 110 S. Oneida St.

Geenen, 30, is an announced candidate for the city attorney's position which becomes full-time May 1

Possible Disqualification

In his letter to city officials, Geenen said he was furnishing the information which he researched "only for the use of candidates for the spring election, lest anyone be disqualified for not complying with the statute."

Geenen indicated the positions of clerk, treasurer and city attorney were involved as related to the number of signatures needed on nomination papers based on Broehm's instructions.

Geenen said when he took out nomination papers for the office of city attorney for the spring election, he received instructions from the city clerk's office that the minimum number of signatures he would need as a candidate would be 100.

Checks Statutes

"In checking the statutes involved," Geenen wrote, "I discovered that this was not the correct minimum."

Geenen said Wisconsin statutes, section 5.23, "requires that the signatures needed for city offices" shall be not less than 1 per cent nor more than 10 per cent of the number of electors who voted for the candidate who received the highest number of votes for such office in the last preceding election, but in no case less than 100 signatures."

"Therefore, I believe that the minimum number of signatures for nominating candidates for the offices of city clerk, treasurer and attorney are 128, 129 and 128, respectively," Geenen wrote.

His letter will be received by the council tonight and then referred to committee

Geenen is one of two local attorneys circulating papers for city attorney. The other is John H Ensley, 738 E Eldorado St

Three persons, including Broehm, are circulating papers for city clerk The others are former alderman Dorothy Sullings and City Sealer Roger LaBerge

6th Firm Files For Cable TV In Appleton

Following on the heels of an informational meeting at the city hall earlier this week, a sixth firm has filed a request for a community antenna television (CATV) franchise in Appleton.

The latest to bid for exclusive rights to cable TV here is Universal Telephone, Inc. of Milwaukee, a firm which recently announced plans for a CATV network in Wisconsin.

Ray H. Dittmore, Universal president, said his firm wanted an opportunity to meet with the council and present a proposal.

7 Original Companies

Originally, seven companies from this area and other parts of the state applied for the CATV franchise here but one withdrew its application. The council also received letters from representatives of the three television stations at Green Bay urging city officials to deliberate with caution before arriving at any decision on CATV.

The TV station spokesmen indicated the Federal Communications Commission will be assuming jurisdiction over CATV which would tend to change the existing complexion.

City officials predicted Tuesday it would be "several months" before a decision is arrived at on CATV here.

Mrs. Blanche Hottenstine, 2820 W Prospect St., reported her car stolen from behind a downtown restaurant Tuesday night. An area alert has been placed for the black 1958 Chevrolet four door.

Proposed Parking Ramp Gets Boost From Appleton Board

Action Urged For Facility at Soldiers' Square

Construction of a municipal parking structure on the south side of College Avenue — to be known as Soldiers Square Ramp — got another nudge from the Appleton Board of Public Works Tuesday.

After considerable discussion over whether the city should interview various architects and engineering firms interested in designing and planning a 400 to 600 car facility, the board recommended

— Retaining W. C. Collings and Associates, Milwaukee, the firm which designed, planned and supervised the construction of the East and West Ramps.

— Contracting Soil Testing Laboratory, Green Bay, to take soil borings in the proposed construction area

Recommend Appraisals

— The Appleton Board of Realtors be asked to make appraisals of the property to be acquired by the city.

It has been estimated the city now owns about 60 per cent of the property required for constructing the proposed four-level structure which would be the first on the southside of the central business district. The East and West Ramps are north of College Avenue.

Before the board made its final recommendations, it read a letter from Ald Paul Klemmer (11th) who said the city should look around for other architects or engineers rather than give it to the same firm which designed the other ramps.

Klemmer also took issue with the proposed site for the parking structure.

Mayor Urges Action

At one point the committee was deadlocked on the question of whether to "shop for an architect." However, Mayor Clarence Mitchell then urged positive action in getting the program moving, citing off-street parking would be a critical need once College Avenue is torn up next year.

Mitchell warned that any delays in getting the new ramp constructed would result in problems for motorists, the city and downtown merchants.

The procedure recommended by the board of public works was originally suggested by the city parking commission, which was unanimous in its action to push for construction of a new public parking structure.

Revenue from parking meters has already paid for the West Ramp and by 1969 the East Ramp will be paid up, according to Walter Rasmussen, planner-traffic engineer.

Rasmussen also favors expediting constuction of the new ramp in keeping with the central business district plan.

Two Additional CATV Requests For Menasha

NEENAH - MENASHA — Menasha has received two additional requests for community antenna television (CATV franchises), the city clerk told the common council Tuesday.

The requests were from Universal Cablevision, Inc., Milwaukee, a subsidiary of Universal Telephone Co., and Midland Community Antenna Systems, Inc., Milwaukee.

Neenah has also received a request for a franchise from Universal Cabletelevision The totals are now five in Neenah and five in Menasha, many of the firms being the same ones that have applied in other Fox Cities.

The councils in both cities tabled the requests and referred them to committee, pending the gathering of more information

Appleton Wins Third in Fire Prevention Test

Appleton's work in fire prevention and training has earned the city a third place state ranking in the National Fire Protection Association's municipal division, it was announced today. It was the first year the city entered.

Wausau was one of two Wisconsin cities that won national honors in the contest, placing 12th in the municipal division and third among cities of 20,000-49,999 population.

West Milwaukee was third in the population class of 5,000 - 19,999 and placed 17th in the overall national municipal division. Campbell, Calif., was United States grand winner.

Wausau, First

In the state, Wausau ranked first and West Milwaukee second, followed by Appleton. Antigo won honorable mention.

Considerable work went into entering the contest, Chief Ronald Kuehnl reported. Written reports were submitted of all fire training and fire safety activities during the year. The reports were categorized: Organization for fire prevention; year-round fire prevention; Fire Prevention Week activities and other special campaigns.

Newspaper clippings and other articles accompanied the reports and all were included in a booklet. Much of the work in preparing the program was done by personnel in the fire inspection department.

Information in the booklet included not only fire department training, safety and inspection activities, but also activities carried on in conjunction with and by public institutions, business places and civic organizations.

Goal of Christian Man Changed By Understanding of Time, Death

The contemporary understanding of time and death have so changed that the goal of Christian man is no longer "some celestial city, but that new world order of which man himself is the ambassador and the agent" Dr Nathan A Scott Jr. told this to a Lawrence University convocation audience Tuesday in Memorial Chapel His talk was part of a three-day Religion in Life conference at the university

Dr Scott, professor of theology and literature at the University of Chicago, spoke on "A View of Death in Recent Literature"

Brooding Preoccupation

Modern literature, he said tends to relocate death Literature's imagination has learned to dwell on the many deaths that we die in the midst of life," and upon this tenet is based modern literature's approach to human mortality, he said

Dr Scott described "the brooding preoccupation with the meaning of death" which is prevalent among students on our campuses The young, he said, are more acutely and vividly aware of death because of the global insecurity and hazard of our age"

The 20th Century is an age characterized by the sheer crowdedness of time which may be instantly recorded in a technological sense, and where this "irreguiarity of cinematic time forms a large part of human experience," he said

The result is that man lives, like Camus protagonist in "The Stranger" "in a desacrilized universe," where there is no threshold of time, but only an immediately experienced moment, Dr. Scott commented.

Even the borderline between time and eternity is gone, he suggested, and herein lies the challenge to modern man

In all its negativism, modern literature may yet help man to rescue death from the dimension of the end to the dimension of the here and now" he said

For the world is in fact, a place for a new preparation of the body for the Christian life, where the gaze of the Christian man is not at death, nor even beyond death at something in the skies, he added Rather, it is the concern of Christian man "to join Christ" in serving the broken and the despairing and needy, Scott said

Indeed, for all its nihilism, much of the literature of our time may prove to be in a profound sense the real preparation for the fulfillment of the Christian gospel, he commented.

About 65 Doctors Attended the traditional doctors' appreciation dinner Tuesday, sponsored by the sisters of St. Elizabeth Hospital. Sister M. Kathleen, administrator, stopped to chat with Dr. B. J. Haza, left, secretary to the executive board Dr R V Landis, standing, chief of the disaster committee and guest speaker, and Dr F M. Hauch, chief of staff at the hospital. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Former K-C Head Urges More Business in Government

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The head of a citizen committee established to seek efficiency in state government called Tuesday for "more grass roots support to keep up the momentum"

The plea came from William Kellett, retired head of Kimberly-Clark Corp. of Neenah and head of the Citizen Committee on Improved Expenditure Management Speaking to a meeting of the Metropolitan association of commerce, he noted that 62 recommendations of the committee have been put into effect to reduce costs by $1 million.

Kellett said the committee concentrated on the 13 agencies which spend 90 per cent of the state's budget adding

We now have established techniques developed by the business community which can be easily adapted to government Our next concern should be other levels of government and it requires the help of every Wisconsin citizen"

George C Kaiser, commissioner of the State Department of Administration said the attitude in state government toward application of modern management techniques and expansion of task force ideas was "healthy."

Failure of Religion Cited By Educator at Church Parley

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — The failure of religion to deal with sudden change is exhibited in the average lay church goer, "who sits like a deaf mute in the last row of the sanctuary," Dr Harold C Case told the Wisconsin council of churches Tuesday night

"He wants to maintain the citadel of love, but he does not understand what is going on about him," the president of Boston University told the assembly at a service at Grace Lutheran Church here

"He s a man back home from a crusade that didn't quite come off," he explained noting that we have witnessed the disaster of an age - the failure of the character of man

'People are incurably religious and cannot long tolerate meaninglessness," he said in defending the church, "but the system of values must go along with their view of reality"

He said most city and country churches lack the magnetic hypnotic leaders of effective religion which have included Jesus, St. Paul, Luther, St Francis of Assissi, John Wesley and in our time, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Albert Schweitzer and Bishop Bergrav

But he noted three forces which have shaken Protestantism to its roots and have offered churches the opportunity to reinterpret the adventure of religion in modern terms

"They are the Civil Rights movement, the death-of-God theory, and the meeting of the Vatican Council in Rome"

'How is it that the American Negro, after 100 years of freedom, must persuade the followers of Jesus that there is no Jew or Gentile, but only one child of God?' he asked

He said the Vatican Council has jarred the lethargy of Protestantism and "served notice that there is life in religion and religion in life"

Radio Station Leases Part of Zuelke Building

WAPL to Occupy 1,900 Square Feet In Expansion Move

Radio Station WAPL has leased a major portion of the top floor of the Zuelke Building in downtown Appleton for new studios and office facilities

John Dixon president of the broadcasting firm which operates AM and FM stations here said WAPL AM and WAPL-FM would move into 12th floor facilities possibly by April 1

Negotiations, of a lease arrangement was confirmed today by the management of the Zuelke Building which is at the southwest corner of College Avenue and Oneida Street

Radio Station WAPL now has studios and office facilities on the second floor of the Spector Building at the southwest corner of Appleton Street and College Avenue

To Occupy 1,900 Square Feet

Dixon said the radio station would occupy the north and east sides of the building on the top floor, an estimated 1,900 square feet of floor space

Extensive renovation work will get underway soon when WAPL constructs three new studios, one for the AM operation, another for FM programming and a third for general programming purposes

Also included in the major remodeling will be a business office and reception area

WAPL-AM is on the air daily from sunrise to sunset operating on 1570 kilocycles as a 1,000-watt clear channel station It has been in operation in Appleton since 1952

50,000 Watt Range

The FM station, which went on the air Dec 24, 1965, is at 105 7 megocycles with a range of 50,000 watts

The station's transmitter is near the corner of Oneida and Manitowoc Streets

'We are growing in size and service to our listening area,' Dixon said He noted that since he purchased the station five years ago it has expanded considerably doubling employment WAPL has a staff of 17

In addition, the FM station requires more equipment Dixon said the need for relocating and having more space was predicated on overall expansion of WAPL

Junk Dealer Charged With Running Business Without Town License

Louis Chapnitsky, 70, 1610 N Richmond St proprietor of Badger Wrecking Co, 1101 S Grider St, pleaded innocent in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Tuesday of doing business as a junk dealer without a town license

The complaint was signed by John Arft, Town of Grand Chute constable

County Judge Gustave J Keller continued the case to Jan 28 and set bond at $50

City to Study CATV Under Utility Control

Kaukauna Commission May Run Program Instead of Private Concerns if Feasible

KAUKAUNA — The utility commission is undertaking a study of CATV for the city to determine whether it would best operate the system instead of permitting outside interests to provide the service

The economic feasibility of the program and public demand will be of major importance in considering establishment of this utility service, Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon told the council A full report would also be required from the Federal Communications Commission and state agencies which might be involved before action will be taken

Bayorgeon spoke of protecting citizens from long-term contracts, such as are proposed by those desiring francises from the city He felt CATV could be providing the basis for paid TV and felt if the city could provide this service to citizens at a more reasonable rate, every effort should be made to benefit the public

Work With Council

He promised aldermen, the utility manager and commission would work closely with the legislative committee and the council, would provide information on all findings and would not take action without council approval A full and comprehensive, and possible lengthy study, will be made, indicated the mayor

A letter from V I Minahan presdeitn of Post Corp owners of WLUK-TV, suggesting the council postpone action on CATV until many questions were answered was filed

Aldermen approved a contract with members of the City Employees Union granting pay increases of nine cents per hour across the board and extending accumulated sick leave from 60 to 90 days Terms of the contract are retroactive to Jan 1 of this year

Four applications were received for police appointments The chief was authorized to select two for consideration

Gerald Lopas was appointed sergeant on the police force with pay to be retroactive to Jan 1 Lopas joined the department as a patrolman in March 1953 The department now has four sergeants

Police Duties

Ald William Rogers (5th), questioned whether this meant a sergeant would be on desk duty at all times as recommended by the public protection and safety committee He was informed it was being left to the discretion of the chief of police on how men would be utilized

Aldermen agreed the chief should report to the public protection and safety committee on how the fourth sergeant and other men were being worked into the schedule

A motion to have the finance committee study the possibility of increasing the pay of two fire captains to equal that of police sergeants met with considerable debate

Fire Captain's Pay

Ald Russell Dix 4th felt the public protection and safety committee should study the matter and have all members of the fire department on hand when the question was discussed rather than merely the chief and the two fire captains involved

Ald Rogers felt the committee should decide whether the increase was justified and then make recommendations to the finance committee Ald George Simon 3rd argued any recommendations by the public protection and safety committee were bound to be questioned by the finance committee thus to avoid duplication the matter should be left to the finance committee

After several motions, deletions and amended motions with amendments it was decided to hold a joint meeting of the finance committee, public protection and safety committee police and fire commission and members of the fire department in an effort to ascertain whether pay increases for fire captains were justified

FWD Corp. Lists $38 Million Sales

Highest Total in Peace Time, President L. A. DePolis Reports

CLINTONVILLE — The 1965 consolidated sales of $38,761,946 reported by the FWD Corp. were the highest in any peacetime year, L. A. DePolis, president, said at the annual stockholders meeting Tuesday in the Veterans Memorial Building.

Fiscal 1965 profit before income taxes was $1,588,329 and the net profit was $890,329.

DePolis said that while the net profit of $890,329 was a record for FWD, it was not a good profit on $38 million worth of sales as it represents 4.1 per cent of the sales dollar before taxes, and after taxes, 2.3 per cent — "only half-way to our goal."

He said that the national average of profit is 10 per cent on the sales dollar before taxes, and roughly, 5 per cent after taxes "so this is our goal."

For 1964, sales were $30,368,758 and the fiscal 1964 profit before taxes was $1,318,678.

Net earnings in 1965 equal $2.62 per share of common stock compared with $1.97 for fiscal 1964.

Richard N. Stone, Stamford, Conn., vice chairman of the board, spoke briefly to the 35 persons present for the meeting. He announced no new policies or changes in management personnel.

Walter A. Olen, who will be 91 years old on Jan. 31 and who was the founder of the FWD Corp. (formerly The Four Wheel Drive Auto Co.), was asked by DePolis to speak to the stockholders. Olen was FWD president from July 14, 1910 to July 10, 1952, then chairman of the board from July 10, 1952 to Aug. 10, 1954. He continued as a director through 1957 and retired in 1958. He has continued as president of The Four Wheel Drive Foundation and curator of the Foundation's historic museum.

Olen said that in the last nine years since he left the company, there have been four different boards of directors. He paid high tribute to DePolis, and said that at the end of 1965, the company reached its greatest year and greatest profit.

FWD Corp. Directors All Are Re-Elected

L. A. Depolis Again Named President, Chief Executive

CLINTONVILLE—All directors of the FWD Corp. were unanimously re-elected to one-year terms at the annual stockholders meeting Tuesday morning at the Veterans Memorial building.

They are L. A. DePolis, Clintonville; Eldred L. Field, Newell L. Foster and Bertrand A. McKittrick, of Lowell, Mass.; Howard H. Gasaway, Columbus, Ohio; Robert A. McKittrick, Chelmsford, Mass.; Richard N. Stone, Stamford, Conn., and Philip Whitehead, Melrose, Mass.

At the board meeting Tuesday afternoon, all officers were re-elected. They are Bertrand A. McKittrick, chairman; Stone, vice chairman; De Polis, president and chief executive officer; P. A. Larnino, vice president and general manager-Clintonville; R. W. Stieg, vice president-engineering; R. W. Stoner, vice president; Stone, vice president; H. P. Sell, secretary-treasurer, and Field, assistant secretary. The executive committee consists of DePolis, chairman, Bertrand A. McKittrick and Stone.

Prior to the election of directors, Sell reported that a total of 297,896 shares of the 339,620 total were represented at the meeting with 286,088 shares represented by proxy and 11,808 shares represented in person.

Sell also reported that up to Nov. 29, 1965 there was an authorized board of seven directors with either three or two being elected each year for terms of three years. At the Nov. 29 meeting the board was increased to eight directors, all of whom will be elected annually.

27,000 Added To Wisconsin Church Council

GREEN BAY — More than 27,000 baptised church members were added to the constituency of the Wisconsin Council of Churches, when the group accepted the application of the Diocese of Milwaukee of the Episcopal Church during the annual meeting held here Tuesday.

Episcopal Diocese will be the 11th denomination to be presented in the ecumenical body.

The diocese, headed by Bishop Donald H. V. Hallock, had voted in its diocesan council in October, 1965, to apply for membership. At that time Bishop Hallock urged his council that "the time for ecclesiastical and denominational isolationism has long past. The note today must be cooperation."

The Bishop also spoke at the ecumenical dinner Tuesday night at Grace Lutheran Church. He pointed out that the meeting was being held on the first day of the week of prayer for unity of Christians, which has been held for several years, but that "now for the first time, I am hearing from my clergy of many efforts in local communities to bring together all the different denominations for prayer, fellowship, and, I am sure, a brand new understanding of one another."

Continue Sponsorship Of Mental Program

CHILTON — Members of the Calumet County board passed a resolution this morning extending county sponsorship of a program of special classes for the mentally handicapped children.

This action followed an afternoon of discussion and debate Tuesday, when A. W. Gordon, Chilton Superintendent of schools, and Gaylord Unbehaun, Brillion school superintendent, appeared before the board to request this action on behalf of the school administrators of the county.

Program Unity

Today's action rescinds the board's resolution of last April which ended county sponsorship of the program as of July, 1965. At that time the board agreed, however, to carry on until June 1966.

The consensus was then that to turn the program over to the school districts would be the best alternative.

However, Gordon told supervisors that the county's school administrators feel that county sponsorship was vital to the unity of the program.

The county would again contract with the Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) to administer the program. Miss Hilda Cavanough, Manitowoc, has been hired by the CESA to supervise the classes and carry out a county screening program to determine if more children might be helped by special classes.

Tax apportionment for the program will be based on the equalized valuation for the entire county excluding municipalities which have their own approved program. This includes Kiel, Appleton and perhaps parts of the Town of Harrison in the Apleton, Kaukauna and Kimberly school districts.

Neenah Youth Charged With Theft of 2 Cars

OSHKOSH — A 20-year-old Neenah youth was bound over on a $2,000 bond until Jan. 27 when he will appear to answer two charges of operating an automobile without the owners' consent and driving without a drivers' license.

Richard W. Bragg, 320 Center St., appeared before Winnebago County Judge James E. Sitter after being arrested by Neenah police following two car thefts, one Saturday and the other Sunday, in the City of Neenah.

Bragg allegedly took a car Saturday afternoon which was parked on Bond Street and another Sunday from the east parking lot on E. North Water Street. The first car was found about 9 p.m. by Outagamie County Police on County Trunk A, three miles north of Appleton, and the second was discovered about 2 p.m. Sunday at 510 W. Seymour St., Appleton.

The case was adjourned to allow Bragg to consult an attorney. The court will appoint an attorney following an indigency hearing on Jan. 24.

Council of Churches Parley

Official Declares Food Is Key to World Peace

GREEN BAY — "Food is the key to world peace. Feed them, then preach to them. Communism, Christianity and food go hand and hand," said Donald N. Mc Dowell, director, State Department of Agriculture, Madison, here Tuesday.

The program was just one of the activities scheduled during the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Council of Churches.

Mc Dowell told his audience that much of the world is hungry, literally, figuratively and spiritually, and it is time the complacent American Christians got together and accepted the challenge to do something about the condition.

He cited several experiences of members of his family to show how blase Americans have become about spreading Christianity through the world.

Sees Need

He summed up his talk by saying "I believe in less need for charity, but more of it when needed. Christ will triumph over Communism; but we must feed the world and the Wisconsin Council of Churches must do its part."

The Wisconsin Council of Churches, organized in 1935, is affiliated with the National Council of Churches. Member denominations include the east and west conferences of the Methodist Church, the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan Synod of the Lutheran Church in America; the Wisconsin State Baptist convention, the Synod of Wisconsin of the United Church of Christ, the Seventh Day Baptist Church, the Wisconsin Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Wisconsin District of the Moravian Church in America and the Church of the Brethren.

Applicants must be between 21 and 37 years of age, married, be at least five feet, six inches tall, and have a high school education or its equivalent. Starting salary is $427 per month which is increased to $486 per month after one year.

Also provided are a clothing allowance, accident and health insurance, sick leave, vacation and a retirement plan. Application forms are available from the clerk. Applicants will be tested prior to appointment by the village board.

Woman Gets Probation For Misrepresentation

Hazel Lamb, 34, 621½ W. Third St., this morning was placed on probation for one year after she changed her plea to no contest on a charge of securing public assistance by false representation.

Mrs. Lamb pleaded innocent when she was arraigned Tuesday afternoon in Outagamie County Court Branch 2.

Mrs. Lamb committed the offense Jan. 6, according to the complaint. She received assistance of less than $100, the court was told.

Sparks From Chimney Ignite Roof Shingles

Sparks from a chimney were blamed for a fire that ignited shingles on a roof at Fred Hoeppner and Sons carpenter shop, 604 E. Wisconsin Ave. about 9:45 a.m. today.

Appleton firemen extinguished the small fire in the wood shingles and reported damage was minor.

At 8:46 a.m., firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Frank Drier, 1012 W. Lawrence St., to extinguish a chimney fire.

Court Grants Divorce To Appleton Woman

Nancy A. Stark, 302½ N. Water St., received a divorce from James A. Stark, 27, a prison inmate, in Outagamie County Court Branch 1 Tuesday afternoon. She charged cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple was married Dec. 31, 1956 and had two children.

A property settlement was approved and Stark is to pay $20 a week support after his release from prison.

Graduates Get Degrees at U.W.

MADISON — About 2,000 midyear graduates of the University of Wisconsin will be getting degrees at the University's second full-dress midyear commencement ceremonies this week-end.

Commencements will be held in the Wisconsin Fieldhouse on the Madison campus at 3:45 p.m. Saturday and in the Union Ballroom on the Milwaukee campus at 2:15 p.m. Sunday. After the ceremony receptions in honor of the graduating students, and their parents, relatives, and friends will be held on both campuses.

The Madison campus commencement is open to the public and tickets are not required. At Milwaukee each graduate receives two commencement tickets for use of relatives or friends.

Area Chairman Named For Carley Dinner

Lester Balliet, 115 State St., has been named Outagamie County director of the Carley for Governor Dinner committee.

Time of Adult Series Shifted at Kaukauna

KAUKAUNA — Second in the adult education series, "An Evolving Society," will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday at the Kaukauna High School lecture room. The meeting has been shifted from this evening because of a conflict in appointments of Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wisconsin). The senator will give a telephone lecture "The U.S. as a Military Power," with the audience questioning his views following the talk.

Mobilization Is Key to Mental Aid Program

NEENAH - MENASHA — Mobilizing community resources is the key to the growing services in Winnebago County for the mentally ill and the mentally retarded members of the Community Council of Neenah-Menasha were told Tuesday.

Since 1946 assistance has been coming from federal and state sources through legislation to structure and support assistance, George Verhoyen, director of social service at Winnebago State Hospital and co-chairman of the Winnebago County Comprehensive Mental Health Committee explained.

Our primary objective was to look at the broad mental health and retardation issues in the Winnebago County community. We spent two years searching out the needs and determining what agencies could be enlisted to handle them. The Winnebago County Guidance Clinic is a result of a longe range program. There is still a great deal to be done and the continuing effort must be exacted from the planning group to accomplish it," Verhagen said.

Day Care

The day care service for the mentally and emotionally handicapped was outlined by Mrs. Marion Wauda president of the Winnebago County Day Care Service Board. It is the board's job to establish complementary program for those who by virtue of the severity of their handicap do not come under any other program in the community," Mrs. Wauda said.

Forty per cent of the cost of day care is reimbursed to the community from the state, she said. The community sponsored program provides care, treatment and training for the mentally handicapped for a specific number of hours in each day. Neenah and Menasha have had a day care school since 1957. Now there are four such Day Care classes. Since 1963 there has been a program for the mentally retarded. The sheltered workshop service offered by Work Adjustment Services, Inc., Menasha is a day care project for rehabilitating the mentally ill.

Cites Need

Winnebago County still needs a day care center for the emotionally disturbed child and an activity center for the severely retarded adult.

Diane Kelso, director of Work Adjustment Services, told the group that as a part of the overall picture his agency had evaluated 100 persons this past year. Since 1962 50 persons had been trained and placed in industry. About half of the placements have worked out successfully and some have required two or three years before they become competitively employable.

Arthur Malin, director of the Neenah - Menasha Community Chest commented that the full impact of not making the chest goal for 1966 will be reflected in the work being done in these fields.

Count the Snowflakes and Try to Win the Grand Prize

BY CAPPY DICK

How many snowflakes are in the picture?

If you count them correctly and send in a contest entry that is neat and original in appearance, you may win a set of four realistic, operating model vehicles and machines used in the construction of buildings and highways. It is the Tonka Toys set, packed in a big, colorful carton. The outfit includes a model cement mixer that has a rotating drum, a sand loader that has an operating crank and an endless belt and hopper that work, a trencher that has an operating scoop and back hoe and a dump truck equipped with a movable tail gate.

How many are there?

Five of these Tonka sets will be given away as the big national prizes in today's contest. One will go to each boy or girl whose contest entry is one of the five most original received from all the cities where this column for boys and girls is published.

Local Prize

To qualify for a chance in the national judging, a contestant's entry must first win a local preliminary prize which includes a fascinating game called Roll a-Word. 5 Roll a Word games will be awarded, one for each of the 5 neatest, most original correct contest entries from boys and girls of the Fox Valley area. This game is small enough to carry in your pocket; it consists simply of six colorful wood cubes on the sides of which are letters of the alphabet. Players take turns spilling the little blocks out upon the table to see how many words they can form with the letters that appear on top. The game may be played by one player alone, or by several in pairs of teams. The action is very fast. Contest entries winning Roll-a-Word games will be entered automatically in the national judging for the big grand prizes.

After counting the snowflakes, clip out the picture, paste it on paper or a postal card, print the number of flakes beneath it, together with your name, age, address and name of your school, and decorate your entry in any neat, original way with paints, crayons, cutouts or other means. Address it to Cappy Dick's Midweek Contest at the Post-Crescent and mail it before midnight of day after tomorrow.

Names of the winners will be published here and their prizes will be sent to their homes by mail. Judges' decisions will be final. All entries become Cappy Dick's property, none can be returned.

Sir Laurence Olivier In Movie of 'Othello'

Shakespearean Tragedy Filmed on Stage At National Theatre of Great Britain

Sir Laurence Olivier stars in William Shakespeare's "Othello," one of the greatest plays in the history of English literature and the stage, to be presented in movie form Feb 9 and 10 at the Viking Theater for a total of four performances.

The Warner Bros. production will be shown at one matinee and one evening show each day. Tickets, to be sold in advance, are available beginning Wednesday at the theater box office.

Seats will not be reserved, according to Viking Manager Wayne Berkley, but the number of tickets sold for each performance will not exceed the capacity of the theater in order to thus guarantee a seat to each ticket holder

National Theatre Cast

"Othello" is a motion picture version of the brilliant, internationally acclaimed stage presentation of the National Theatre of Great Britain Three Technicolor - Panavision cameras were used to capture the Shakespearean tragedy on film, with the identical cast of the London production

Olivier stars as the Moor of Venice. Frank Finlay is the evil Iago, Maggie Smith is Desdemona, Joyce Redman Emilia Also in the cast are Derek Jacobi as Cassio, Robert Lang as Roderigo, Kenneth Mackintosh as Lodovico, Anthony Nicholls as Brabantio, and Sheila Reid as Bianca.

Stuart Burge directed "Othello," which was produced by Anthony Havelock-Allan and John Brabourne for B H E Productions Geoffrey Unsworth was director of photography for the Warner Bros release William Kellner designed the sets, based on the original National Theatre designs by Jocelyn Herbert

Faithful Production

Film director Burge remained faithful to stage director John Dexter's National Theatre production while translating "Othello" to the screen in terms of motion picture techniques and demands Not one speech in the play has been eliminated No structural changes were made in what is considered to be Shakespeare's finest tragedy and most perfect play

"Othello" is the tragic drama of a military hero who, driven to delusions of suspicion by a man he believes to be his best friend, murders his new bride, thus destroying himself through his own failings.

Customers Back Drug Store Ban on Indecent Books

CHICAGO (AP) — Walgreen Drug Stores, the nation's largest drug chain said Tuesday public response indicates customers endorse its policy of keeping what it considers indecent literature off its newsstands.

"As members of the communities we serve, we feel responsible for the kind of literature we offer," said C.W Mulaney, Walgreen vice president. "Well over one million shoppers come into our stores every day, and a large number of them are children "

Walgreen, which has stores in more than 200 cities, is one of the 10 largest retailers of books and magazines in the nation. The company supplies distributors with a list of books and magazines it will not sell. If one of the proscribed titles slips through, it is the responsibility of the local store manager to see that it is not sold

8:30-9 - Channels 2-7-12 — The Dick Van Dyke Show's "I Do Not Choose to Run," first of a two-parter, has some amusing moments as Rob gets very civic-minded and then realizes his community has taken him all too seriously They want to elect him as a councilman, and he even has dreams of going to the White House.

9-10 - Channels 11-6-9 — The Long, Hot Summer moves to a new day with a very unmoving tale, "A Day of Thunder." The series, supposedly inspired by the works of William Faulkner, appears in this episode to have drawn its inspiration from Marlon Brando's "The Wild Ones "

9-10 - Channels 2-7-12 — The Danny Kaye Show offers the gravel-baritone voice of Tammy Grimes and the high-pitched ribbing of Bob Crane The two guest stars shine best when they join Danny in an often wildly funny sketch concerning a movie star who walks out on a $78 million production (Color)

U. S. Surveys Other Countries Working In Peace Offensive

Johnson Wants to Assess Effect Of Worldwide Diplomatic Effort

By JOHN M HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is surveying foreign governments which have joined in the Vietnamese peace offensive to see what if anything, they have heard from North Viet Nam and whether they expect a response

The survey is being made this week in preparation for an assessment by President Johnson and his top advisers of the resultant prospects of the worldwide diplomatic campaign which the President launched three weeks ago

A key issue in the policy review will be whether and when the United States should resume bombing North Viet Nam

Opinion Divided

On this question it is understood that opinion among the President's advisers is divided with military leaders advocating an early return to air strikes against targets in the north and some civilian authorities favoring indefinite continuation of the pause in the bombing.

Emissaries Due

The policy review presumably will be held next week, barring some radical change in the situation By that time the results of the survey should all be in The truce in fighting which is scheduled for the Vietnamese lunar New Year holiday — Thursday through Sunday, Saigon time — will also be over. It should then be quickly known whether the Communists are prepared to respond to President Johnson's recent call for a reduction in hostilities or whether they will follow the holiday lull with widespread offensive operations in South Viet Nam

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman one of Johnson's chief emissaries to foreign governments during the peace offensive are due here tonight or Thursday from the Far East Rusk and Vice President Hubert H Humphrey who returned to Washington earlier, conferred with Soviet Premier Alexei N Kosygin when they were in India last week for the funeral of Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri

The Soviet Union holds a key position in U S. hopes for an eventual settlement in Viet Nam

Despite Moscow attacks on American policy, administration officials believe that the Soviet government would like to see the war ended before it gets bigger and more dangerous, they also believe Soviet influence is increasing in Hanoi as Soviet military and economic aid increase

Bombing Pause

This is a major reason advanced by some U S authorities for continuing the bombing pause and the peace offensive They contend that the Soviet Union needs time to make its influence felt whereas an early resumption of bombing could lead to a much deeper Soviet involvement in North Viet Nam

The main argument advanced by military leaders for early renewal of bombing North Viet Nam targets is that it is necessary to limit Hanoi's ability to send troops and arms into South Viet Nam to fight American and South Vietnamese forces

There is also a combined military-diplomatic argument that bombing severely strains North Viet Nam's ability and will to carry on the war — that it has, in other words, a vital importance to the long-range prospects for peace

A Vietnamese Villager leads a horse-drawn cart carrying his family through a company of the U. S. Army 1st Infantry Division that clears the dusty road to let them through. The company was clearing the road from Trung Lap for passage of a convoy during last week's "Operation Crimp."

New System to be Made Nationwide

Mechanized Post Office, Tested In Rhode Island, Proves Workable

PROVIDENCE, R I (AP) — Postal workers say they have gotten the bugs out of the $20-million mechanized post office in Providence, and now Postmaster General Lawrence F O'Brien says similar equipment will be installed in post offices across the nation

"I think mechanization has proven to be good," says Postmaster Harry Kizirian of Providence "We've learned a lot from it Mechanization is the answer to speedier mail service."

$65 Million Program

O'Brien announced Tuesday in Washington that mechanization equipment will be installed in 109 city post offices that handle 60 per cent of the nation's annual 74 billion-piece flow of mail

He said the program would cost $65 million by June 30 and is aimed at next-day delivery of mail across the nation

The new equipment includes closed circuit television and optical machines that electronically read zip codes

At first some of the automated equipment installed in Providence back in 1960 began chewing up assorted letters and packages and spewing them out at odd places Mail was frequently delivered in damaged form

Kizirian says the mechanical flaws in the modern building built in the shape of a vast Quonset hut have been ironed out

The Providence post office has been expanded to include general mail distribution to 65 satellite offices in Rhode Island and 42 offices in southeastern Massachusetts Kizirian said, the post office could handle even more mail

More Mail Handled

With the new equipment, he said, his office processes an average of 1,800,000 pieces of mail a day, compared to one million before automation

Recorded background music and an end to much of the drudgery of hand mail sorting has brought about a marked change in employe working conditions

Kizirian said there has been no cutback in personnel at the satellite offices and there has been an increase of about 250 permanent employes at the central office

He said mail volume had increased and some additional chores have been added, such as mail unloading at railroad yards

Yule Melee Much Ado Over Nothing

DENVER Colo (AP) — Norma Riedel fought the U S Army and won a Christmas at home for her draftee son

Now the Army reports that the youth, Robert Schnabel 19 has been rejected for military service

Schnabel had been ordered to report for induction last Dec 23 Mrs Riedel sent telegrams to President Johnson and 5th Army headquarters in Chicago demanding to know if "our war position was so crucial that we have to draft our sons during Holy Week"

Mrs Riedel won Schnabel and all others in his situation were granted reprieve until Dec 28

"This is the answer to a mother's prayer," Mrs Riedel had said She said that she wanted her son to serve "It's his duty But I don't want him on the road with a bunch of strangers on Christmas Eve"

Reported Dec. 28

On Dec 28 Schnabel reported for his expected induction But during preliminary processing some doubt developed about the vision in his right eye Further tests would be necessary, Schnabel was told

Mrs Riedel said her son wears contact lenses to correct defective vision but has passed physicals

Schnabel later was told he could not wear contact lenses during basic training but that perhaps he could be fitted with eyeglasses

On Jan 10 the Army decided that Schnabel was "unacceptable at this time" The wording of the notice did not make it clear whether the rejection is permanent, Mrs Riedel said

Viet Nam Diaper Campaign Ended

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla AP — Climaxing a month-long campaign, a truck has left here loaded with 57,000 diapers for Saigon babies The truck headed Tuesday for Mobile Ala where the donations will be placed aboard a ship for South Viet Nam

Task Force Suggestions Save Funds

MADISON (AP) — A second progress report on implementation of task force recommendations for improving state government operations noted Tuesday that 62 proposals have been carried out to save $1 million annually

The report, announced by Gov Warren P Knowles, said that 182 recommendations are in the process of being implemented and added these will will reduce costs by $13 7 million

The report was prepared by the Department of Administration The task force, titled the Wisconsin Committee on Improved Expenditure Management, is headed by William R Kellett, Neenah business executive

George C Kaiser, Administration Department commissioner, announced the appointment of a seven-member printing advisory committee to assist the department in administering the state's printing program

Murder Not Possible Years After Shooting

BAKERSFIELD, Calif (AP) — A man imprisoned for shooting a woman who died 4½ years later can't be charged with murder says Assistant Dist Atty Warren Shafer

After a year and a day homicide is out of the question," he said

Attorney Denies He Tried to Have Lawyer Killed

SANTA MONICA, Calif (AP) — When his wife filed suit for divorce, Charles W Hinman said he was broke, but his wife contended he was worth $1 5 million

"I had a little property once before my wife left me," Hinman said "but when she left me I disposed of it promptly"

Later he was sent to jail for 15 days for failure to pay child support, and there police said he plotted the murder of his ex-wife and the lawyer who represented her in the divorce case

That lawyer was Murray Chotiner, a former campaign manager for former Vice President Richard M Nixon

Hinman 59 attorney goes into court today for arraignment proceedings on a charge of solicitation to commit murder Hinman denied the allegations, but admitted that he dislikes Chotiner

Common Market Fears Crisis Lacking French Concession

Delegates Say Couve de Murville Proposals Sound Like Ultimatums

LUXEMBOURG (AP) — France's five Common Market partners fear many more months of serious crisis lie ahead for the European Economic Community unless President Charles de Gaulle's government is willing to make some concessions

Delegates privately expressed concern over the future of European unity after a two-day meeting that ended in disagreement on a French proposal that most of them viewed as more of an ultimatum

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville made an offer of limited cooperation with the other five members, provided they agree

—That each member retain a veto on major questions

Fears Supergovernment

—That steps be taken to trim the powers of the market's Executive Commission which De Gaulle fears may turn into a supergovernment

The ministers agreed to meet again Jan 28-29 for another try but it was felt success or failure depends largely on how much latitude De Gaulle will allow Couve de Murville

Premier Pierre Werner of Luxembourg will report Thursday to the European Parliament in Strasbourg on the ministers' failure to solve the six-month-old crisis resulting from France's boycott of the community's meetings

The report is certain to bring unfavorable reaction in the Strasbourg assembly, most of whose members have always pushed for an integrated Europe

French Boycott

Permanent representatives of the other five Common Market members — West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg — worked today on the report Werner will present in Strasbourg French representative Jean-Marc Boegner was recalled to Paris last July when France began its boycott

A number of delegates from other countries complained that De Gaulle wants to set up a timetable for action on things he wants without taking into consideration the wishes of the other partners Couve de Murville proposed a list of deadlines for settling the Common Market farm policy and agreement on the makeup of a new Executive Commission to be enlarged from 9 to 14 members

France has made clear it wants to replace the members of the present Executive Commission with others who have no political influence The chief French target is the chairman of the present commission, Walter Hallstein of West Germany.

Jailed Youth Tells of Killing Parents

Pennsylvania Boy Stopped in State After Road Mishap

WHITEHALL, Wis (AP) — A 15-year-old boy, jailed after a minor traffic accident Tuesday night, blurted out to authorities he had killed his parents

Slender, dark - haired Jerry Lee Sanderson of Slippery Rock, Pa, gave no motive, Sheriff Eugene Bijold said

The body of his father, Henry Sanderson, 54, was found Tuesday outside the family's burned farmhouse Another body, believed to be that of the boy's mother, Dorothy, 44, was found in the rubble

Bijold said the youth admitted shooting his parents to officers while he was being questioned after his car had skidded into a snow-bank along a western Wisconsin highway

Bijold said the Sanderson youth was being held for Butler County, Pa, authorities, who planned to fly here today with a warrant containing formal charges

The teen-ager was the only prisoner in the small brick jail in this rural community 850 miles from Slippery Rock

Shot 4 Times

The body of the elder Sanderson, a dairy farmer was found in a shallow, snow-filled ditch a few yards from the family's home on the outskirts of Slippery Rock about 50 miles north of Pittsburgh He had been shot four times, twice in the head Butler County Coroner Clinton Atwell said

Bijold quoted the boy as saying he had killed his parents with a single-shot 22-caliber rifle A rifle of that type was found in the trunk of the car the youth was driving, the sheriff said

The boy was one of two children of the Sandersons His sister, Sandra Joyce, is a student nurse at a hospital in New Castle, Pa

Speech in Hanoi Called Disservice

NEW HAVEN Conn (AP) — Staughton Lynd's speech in Hanoi was "a disservice to the cause of freedom of dissent, freedom of travel and conscientious pacifism," Yale President Kingman Brewster Jr said today

"I think Mr Lynd's disparagement of his country's leadership and policies, while in Hanoi, damaged the causes he purports to serve," Brewster said

Lynd 36 an assistant professor of history, spent 10 days in North Viet Nam with two other Americans Thomas Hayden, a founder of the Students for a Democratic Society and Herbert Aptheker a Communist party theoretician

We'll Soon be Thinking In Terms of Trillion $

BY SYLVIA PORTER

The sizzling statistics now streaking out of Washington herald the emergence of the U S as the first nation in the history of mankind to measure its economic achievements in terms of trillions of dollars

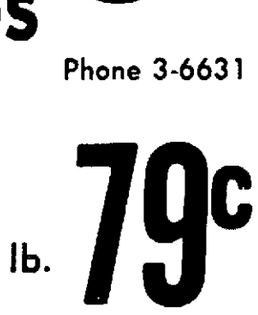

This year our total output of goods and services will roar toward the three-quarter trillion dollar range, just about double our Gross National Product as recently as 1954.

Our personal incomes already are well over the half-trillion dollar level will be climbing by tens of billions more in 1966 Our total personal savings are at almost $1 5 trillion, our debt-free assets are at nearly $1 2 trillion The total of our private and public debts has crossed the $1 trillion mark So has the total of life insurance in force.

How Much Is It?

How much is $1 trillion? How can I (I ask myself) grasp the meaning of a string of 12 zeroes (000,000, 000, 000) and pass this meaning on to you? Perhaps this way.

—If you laid 1 trillion $1 bills end to end, the string would stretch 97 million miles — the distance of more than 200 round trips to the moon or of more than one one-way trip to the sun

Porter

—If you stacked 1 trillion $1 bills on top of each other, the pile would be 67,866 miles high — or more than a third of the way to the moon (238,857 miles)

—If you laid $1 trillion in $1,000 bills end to end, they would reach about 97,000 miles — nearly four times around the earth

—If you patched $1 trillion in $1 bills together on a single sheet, this sheet of money would cover the states of Rhode Island and Delaware and you'd have a few billions left over.

—If you had $1 trillion in silver dollars, your hoard would weigh more than 29 million tons — the equivalent of 350 Queen Elizabeth steamships.

—If you set out to count $1 trillion at the rate of $10,000 a minute, eight hours a day, six days a week, it would take you 667 years to finish counting.

If a $1 trillion company had been founded in the year 1 A D and it had done so badly that it lost $1 million a day, it still would have enough to continue losing $1 million a day for the next 775 years.

In Terms of Homes

—If you had $1 trillion, you could buy every American family a $20,000 home or every American adult a $9,000 luxury limousine Or you could use the $1 trillion to pay for a four-year college education (at $2,500 a year) for 100 million students — which would work out to a college education for nearly every American who today is under 35 years of age.

—If you had this $1 trillion, you could buy a round-the-world trip for every American man, woman and child

Enough You can take it on from here and make your own computations, for the point is abundantly clear a nation which can measure its economic attainments in terms of trillions — and, most significantly, in terms of a currency which ranks among the most stable on the globe — is breaking far more barriers than those of outer space distances and microscopic particles

Moreover, this report may give you a more comforting perspective on the financial burdens the President is now disclosing Our administrative budget, for instance, has forever crossed the symbolic $100 billion mark — but that's a soaring '60s, get set to "think "smaller" proportionate budget trillions " against a GNP zooming into the $700 billion range than were the budgets of the late 1940s and mid-1950s against the annual Gross National Product totals of those years.

We have reached the point where a rise of $1 million is a mere "pittance" in our economy and where a rise of $1 billion actually is becoming "modest "

Mackinac Bridge Won't be Made Interstate Road

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Michigan state senators were told Monday there is no present possibility of including the Straits of Mackinac Bridge in the Interstate highway system.

The five conferred with Rex M Whitton, head of the Bureau of Public Roads

The bridge, built at a cost of $100 million in the late 1950s, links the Upper and Lower Peninsulas in Michigan. Its construction was financed by a state bond issue. The state has paid interest charges on the bonds but has been unable to reduce any of the principal.

State Sen Garland Lane, D-Flint, said Whitton told the group there was no way he could "even talk to us about picking up the tab" at this time

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP) — Britain's newest chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has been opened in this Scottish east coast fishing town

The church is the 56th to be opened in Britain in the last five years.

Cuban City-Dwellers Move to Cane Fields

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana radio says that the exodus from Cuban cities to cane fields is gaining momentum, with 26,000 persons at work in the harvest

The broadcast, monitored in Miami, said that 48 mills already are grinding the cane.

POST-CRESCENT FOOD EDITOR
By Lillian Mackesy

If she were a television grandma on one of the daytime serials, the little old lady would peer over her bifocals, throw her hands aloft in mock surprise while she said the familiar stage lines, "Land sakes alive! Whatever is this old world a-coming to?"

Seriously, onstage or off, any oldtime bread baker will be a little surprised when she compares the new streamlined methods of preparing yeast breads to the long and arduous labors in her days as a young homemaker. Pick up any cookbook in the vintage of the early 1900s and read the recipes for breadmaking. A popular recipe, circa 1912, for white bread goes like this in its ending:

"The whole process takes from five and one-half to six hours, and, if followed closely, will produce excellent results."

With the introduction of active dry yeast in the 1940s, bread making became considerably more convenient. Now a "spanking" new, revolutionary process has come along, created, researched and tested thoroughly in the laboratories and test kitchens of both International Milling Co. and Standard Brands, Inc.

It's called the "CoolRise" method and makes possible the preparation of home-baked breads and rolls in just 45 minutes — and with results that will put grandma's finest to shame!

The secret of the new technique is controlled rising in the refrigerator instead of the usual, multiple rising periods in that "warm, draft-free place," the familiar message in all former yeast bread recipes.

This new method makes it possible to complete the entire preparation cycle . . . mixing, kneading and shaping of the dough . . . in a single swoop, requiring less than one hour. The panned dough then is stowed away in the refrigerator for at least two hours and may be kept there up to 24 hours. When freshly baked bread is desired, a loaf is taken from the refrigerator and popped into the oven that's preheated and waiting.

The method has a versatility that's wonderful, too. Whole wheat, rye flours, cornmeal and oatmeal may be used in place of some of the white flour to enable the cook to try her hand at a variety of breads. Cheese, nuts, herbs may be added to the dough for additional taste variety.

Two of today's recipes follow the CoolRise preparation . . . Orange Raisin Bread and the flavorful Onion Buns that are sized just right for sandwiches. The bread really is a variation of basic white bread. By omitting the raisins and orange peel, the recipe stands alone as plain white bread.

The third recipe uses another shortcut streamlining that our older generation of cooks never knew about. This is the blending of the ingredients in yeast rolls all at once in a single bowl. The usual kneading process is skipped in this shortcut recipe, but the rising "until doubled in bulk in a nice cozy warm place" is the same as usual. However, the recipe is worth it and the lack of kneading saves preparation time.

After the ingredients are blended together, they are left to rise. Then, after a stir-down, raisins are added and the dough is placed in muffin cups. Here, a sparkling sugar-orange-rind - almond topping is spooned onto the dough. After a second rising, the rolls are baked to a delectable, golden brown to delight the fancy of the whole family.

Try both types of yeast bread preparation . . . the newest CoolRise technique and the easy-batter method. Bread baking has come into its own, out of the era of wood stoves, base burners, gas lights and hand

East-West Blend in Omelet Suggestion For Celebrating Chinese New Year 4664

The omelet is a Western innovation. Sweet and sour pork is Eastern. East and West blend perfectly in this recipe for Sweet Sour Pork Stuffed Omelets - an excellent new brunch or supper dish just in time for the Chinese New Year celebrations that begin Friday.

For many American-Chinese in this country, this is 4664, the Year of the Horse. New Year festivities will last for 15 days. The first 10 days are devoted to religious ceremonies, followed by community festivals and the traditional Dragon Parade. The festivities begin at 4 or 5 o'clock the morning of the first day with a "presentation of rice to heaven and earth."

According to custom, all debts are paid before the old year ends; business is suspended; — The Chinese world is given over to fun and gaiety.

Several days before the New Year arrives each family prepares a farewell feast for the Prince of the Oven, or God of the Kitchen, before he leaves for Heaven to report on the behavior of the family during the past year. Children busy themselves making beautifully decorated paper chariots in which the Kitchen God may ride on his journey.

Homes are festooned with paper gods on front doors. Strips of red paper with characters symbolizing happiness, wealth, good fortunes and long life, are placed on door posts. Tables are spread with offerings of rice, vegetables, tea, wine, incense, candles and sprays of cedar or flowers. When the arrangements are completed, firecrackers are set off in front of the house.

Community Observance

Community celebrations include the traditional Procession of the Cow. A bamboo frame covered with five different colored papers represents the cow. Inside the cow is a small calf.

Headed by the God of Agriculture, the procession goes out into the fields and, on returning to the city, the cow is destroyed, leaving the calf to represent the New Year.

On the fourth day a ceremony called "receiving the gods" is held and this event centers on three gods — particularly the Kitchen God, the God of Wealth and the God of Happiness. According to legend they come down from Heaven to begin their duties on earth for the coming year.

Six days are given over to the Feast of Lanterns. On the 10th day of the New Year Festival, the people begin to display paper lanterns.

By the 15th day, lanterns of all shapes, sizes, patterns and colors are strung from every possible vantage point.

The festival ends with the Parade of the Dragon. A huge shape of this mythical creature is formed of bamboo and covered with silk or paper. Often more than a hundred feet long, it may require as many as 120 men to carry it over their heads, leaving only their feet visible as they wind their way through the throngs in the street.

The suggested recipe makes two individual omelets, but it's easy to double to make four servings. The filling of Sweet and Sour Pork comes ready prepared in the frozen food section of your market. All the carefully blended flavor is locked in, ready for thawing.

SWEET-SOUR PORK STUFFED OMELÉTS

- 1 pkg. (12 oz.) Frozen Sweet and Sour Pork
- 4 eggs
- 4 teaspoons water
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- 2 tablespoons salad oil

Prepare Sweet and Sour Pork according to directions on the package; keep warm.

Break eggs into small bowl; add water, salt and pepper, beat with a fork, rotary beater or wire whisk just until well mixed.

Heat an omelet pan. Add one tablespoon salad oil and heat well. Add half the egg mixture and tilt pan to distribute mixture evenly over bottom. As omelet sets, lift with spatula around the edges to let uncooked mixture run to bottom of the pan; shake to loosen when egg mixture is cooked (do not let the omelet brown on the bottom). Fill with half the Sweet and Sour Pork mixture and turn out onto a serving dish. Keep warm.

Repeat with second half of egg mixture to make a second omelet, filling it the same way. Serve immediately.

Sweet and sour pork rolled in an omelet is a delightful new brunch or supper treat that comes in time for celebrating the Chinese New Year of the Horse as it arrives on Friday. This sweet and sour pork now comes already prepared as one of the new frozen food products on the market to make the recipe an easy one.

Mardi Gras Scheduled by Parish Groups

KAUKAUNA — "Mardi Gras" has been selected as the theme for the Holy Cross parish social to be held in the school cafeteria from 8 p.m. to midnight Feb. 20, sponsored jointly by all societies of the parish.

Decorations will be in keeping with the theme, music will be provided by an area orchestra and card playing will be available. Tickets will be available after Sunday masses until the day of the social and at meetings of church organizations. Outsiders may purchase tickets from committee members.

Committee chairmen named include Louis Faust, tickets; decorating, Mrs. Eugene Vanden Heuvel and members of the Home-School Association; lunch, Mrs. Harold Feller and members of the Altar Society with Mrs. Joseph Schuh and Mrs. Donald Geenen as assistant chairman; refreshments, Robert Coonen and Leon Ashauer of the Holy Name Society; card playing, Joseph Bongers and Mrs. Lyle Cherney, and publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muthig.

New Gravy Idea

Next time you make gravy or a sauce that calls for thickening, try using bread crumbs instead of flour. The crumbs, rolled fine, add a more delicate flavor.

pumps on the sink Grandma, if she's still around, probably will be the first to cheer.

ORANGE RAISIN BREAD

- 5½ to 6½ cups flour (regular or instant blending)
- ½ cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
- 2 packages yeast, cakes, active dry or compressed
- 1¾ cups warm milk (105-115 degrees)
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 tablespoons margarine or butter
- 2 cups raisins
- 1 tablespoon grated Orange Peel
- Cooking oil

Spoon or pour flour into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto wax paper. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved Add warm milk, sugar, salt and margarine Stir in two cups flour Beat with rotary beater until smooth (about 1 minute) Add one cup flour Beat vigorously with a wooden spoon until smooth (about 150 strokes). Stir in raisins and grated orange peel Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 5 to 10 minutes. Cover with plastic wrap, then a towel; let rest on board for 20 minutes.

Punch down, divide dough in half. With a rolling pin, roll each portion into an 8 x 12-inch rectangle Beginning with upper 8-inch edge, roll dough towards you. Seal with thumbs or heel of hand after each complete turn Seal final seam and edges well.

Place in greased loaf pans. Brush with cooking oil. Cover pans loosely with oiled wax paper, then plastic wrap. Refrigerate 2 to 24 hours.

When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Carefully uncover dough, let stand for 10 minutes at room temperature Using a greased toothpick or metal skewer puncture any surface bubbles which may have formed on the dough Bake at 400 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes, or until done. If desired, brush with melted margarine. Recipe makes two loaves.

(Note: if self-rising flour is used omit salt from the recipie.)

ONION SANDWICH BUNS

- 5½ to 6½ cups flour (regular or instant)
- ½ cup warm water (105-115 degrees)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast
- 1¾ cups warm milk (105-115 degrees)
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 tablespoons margarine or butter
- 1 cup chopped onion, sauteed
- Cooking oil
- 1 egg white, beaten
- Onion salt

Spoon flour into measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto waxed paper. Measure warm water into large bowl, then sprinkle yeast into water, stirring mixture until yeast dissolves. Add warm milk, sugar, salt and margarine. Stir in two cups flour; beat about 1 minute, until smooth; add a cup of flour; beat vigorously with wooden spoon until smooth, about 150 strokes. Stir in sauteed onion. Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, between 5 and 10 minutes.

Cover with plastic wrap, then towel, let rest on board for 20 minutes. Punch dough down Divide dough into 24 equal portions. Shape into balls; flatten dough balls with palm of the hand.

Place on greased baking sheet about a half-inch apart. Two greased baking tins also may be used. Brush surface of dough with cooking oil. Cover pans or cookie sheet loosely with plastic wrap, refrigerate 2 to 24 hours.

When ready to bake, remove number of buns needed. Carefully uncover dough; allow to stand at room temperature for 10 minutes. Preheat oven to 425 degree. Just before baking, brush buns with egg white and sprinkle with onion salt. Bake from 20 to 25 minutes, or until done. Recipe makes about 2 dozen buns.

ALMOND-ORANGE YEAST PUFFS

- 1 package yeast, compressed or dry
- ¼ cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
- ½ cup milk
- ⅓ cup shortening or oil
- ⅓ cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup orange juice
- 3¼ cups sifted enriched flour (about)
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoons grated orange rind
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup raisins
- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ cup blanched almond slices
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Dissolve yeast in water. Heat milk until almost simmering. Measure shortening or oil, one-third cup sugar and salt into large mixing bowl. Stir in milk until shortening melts and sugar dissolves. Stir in orange juice. Cool to lukewarm.

Stir in 1½ cups flour and beat until smooth, about 1 minute by electric mixer or 150 strokes by hand. Beat in yeast, eggs, 2 teaspoons orange rind and vinilla. Stir in enough more flour to make a stiff batter. Beat until batter is smooth and elastic, about 1 minute by electric mixer or 150 strokes by hand.

Cover and let rise in warm place(80 to 85 degrees) until light and bubbly, about 1 hour. Stir in raisins. Combine quarter cup sugar, almonds and teaspoon grated orange rind.

Fill greased medium-sized muffin pans half full. Sprinkle tops with orange-sugar mixture. Let rise in warm place until doubled, about 30 minutes. Bake in preheated, 375 degree oven 15 to 20 minutes, or until golden brown Serve warm or cool.

To Slice Hot Bread

Fresh bread, hot out of the oven (yours or the baker's) is indeed a treat. It isn't necessary, either, to let the bread stand for awhile so it will be easy to cut. Even the freshest bread cuts easily if you use a hot knife.

August Rite Planned by Engaged Pair

Miss Karen Ruth Rehmer, 933 E. Eldorado St., and Jay Tilkens, 1400½ E. Wisconsin Ave., are engaged. The announcement has been made by her parents, Mrs. Harold Brunner, 114½ Canal St., Little Chute, and Kenneth Rehmer, 215 E. Elm St., Kimberly.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Olive Tilkens, 520 N. Morrison St., and Eben Tilkens, Green Bay. He attended Wisconsin State University - La Crosse and is a student at Outagamie County Teachers College, Kaukauna Miss Rehmer is employed at Sammy's Pizza Palace.

A wedding in August is planned.

Modeling Stint 'Hard Work'

"It was wonderful," Miss Karen Johnson says of her modeling weekend in St. Louis. Home and back to the business of being a junior at Appleton High School, the daughter of Dr and Mrs. Robert Johnson, 827 E. College Ave., smiles with excitement as she tells about her first 'modeling' stint.

Karen won the right to appear in 'Seventeen' magazine through a contest sponsored by Thermo-Jac at Wohlford's Fashion Center at Valley Fair. Three other girls in the country shared the honor and the trip began Friday morning. Two of them joined the flight in Springfield, Ill. One was from Springfield, the other from Auburn, Ill. The fourth girl, from Cambridge, Ohio, arrived in St. Louis a few hours ahead of the others.

Called From Car

At St. Louis the girls were met by a chauffeur and, as promised they could, telephoned their parents from the car as they traveled to their hotel. They arrived at about 5 p.m. and the four, settled in a three-room hotel suite, had steak dinners served in their room. It was the kind of treat high school girls revel in.

The evening was spent talking —Karen was the only junior, the others are seniors. Conversation quite naturally centered around modeling, career plans, college. All plan to complete their educations, and all expect to go on to school.

Saturday was modeling day, and it was all day. The girls were taken at 9 a.m. to the riverboat 'The Golden Era', and took turns posing for photographers. Karen's outfit was navy blue jamaica shorts and a double breasted wide stripe sleeveless T shirt.

Not Easy

Karen says she learned modeling is hard work. It takes time as the photographer plans his shots, and there's no sitting down to rest for fear of wrinkling clothes. She's not a bit disillusioned, however. Karen hopes to be able to model as a sideline during her college years. As for a fulltime career, she's still considering several, including nursing, lab technology, psychiatry and sociology.

The girls had a noon break, with hamburgers brought to the boat. By 4 p.m., the photos were all taken and the girls went to Nantucket Cove for dinner, with live lobster cooked especially for them and brought to the table for personal cracking. They also had wine with dinner.

Gaslight Square

Later, there was a stop at St. Louis' Gaslight Square, about three square blocks of shops with quaint names and decor, all lighted by gaslight.

Sunday was pack and go home day.

By 6 p.m. Karen was telling her family about the weekend. The evening was a combined welcome home and birthday party, with several girls invited in for birthday cake and to share the excitement.

Karen says there is a possibility she'll be called on to participate in promotions similar to the one that started her on her weekend jaunt.

Cost Per Serving Only Accurate Way to Judge

A meat cut becomes an economical buy if the cost per serving, not cost per pound, is less than other cuts, says Charlotte Dunn, foods specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

The number of servings per pound is a fair evaluation of a meat buy because it is based on the proportion of meat to bone and fat. Boneless meats such as ground beef, flank steak or rolled roasts yield four average servings per pound.

Meat with some bone such as round steak, rib roast, ham slices, yields three servings per pound. Bony meat such as most steaks, shoulder cuts, short ribs, may yield one or two servings per pound.

Another way to trim the meat budget is to buy less expensive, less tender beef from the chuck, round, brisket, short plate or flank sections. These meats have just as much food value in terms of high quality protein, iron and the B-vitamins as tender steaks and chops.

The less expensive meats are tender and flavorful if cooked carefully by a moist heat method—braising or cooking in water or other liquids.

To braise steaks or roasts, first brown the meat slowly on all sides in a heavy utensil. Season and add a small amount of water. Cover closely and cook at a simmering temperature until tender.

Large cuts and stews are prepared by cooking in liquid. The difference in this method and braising is that the meat is completely covered by the liquid.

Flooring Makes a Difference

"Vinyl has taken over in the hard-surface floor field," Karl Kobussen pointed out at the second of a four-part series on "Modern Kitchens" Tuesday evening He instructed the audience to use care in selecting the proper kind of kitchen floor covering making certain of good quality, and considering the type of wear the floor will receive

Mr Kobussen said that linoleum still makes a fine floor, but it hardly compares to vinyl Water affects linoleum, when it dries the floor becomes hard and brittle with a tendency to crack

The first vinyl on the market was of a smooth surface variety, easily scuffed and blemished "Within the last six months, every new piece of vinyl has a textured surface," the floor covering contractor pointed out

Besides being very attractive, textured surfaces resist heel marks and are easier to maintain

There are two types of vinyl — composition and pure

Vinyl composition has paper, felt or a patented composition backing Pure vinyl is more costly and is usually used in tile for bathrooms or other areas when water is likely to get on the floor

When choosing the type of floor consider the room, amount of traffic the room will carry and the care this floor will get

"The biggest problem in maintaining a floor is that most people just don't know how to," Mr Kobussen said "This is the fault of the dealer" There are pamphlets available and the dealer should be able to instruct the buyer in necessary care

Vinyl dressing is the best for these floors Rather than just coating a floor with wax, the dress will "knit" to the floor

Mr. Kobussen recommended carnauba wax for linoleum floors

In choosing the floor, the speaker stressed the importance of coordinating the color to the rest of the kitchen — counter tops and wall coverings The floor can tie the package together, Mr Kobussen said

The new trend in flooring is a cushion type, which is very soft to walk on Companies are striving to make better goods which require less maintenance and last longer, look better

"Although vinyl counter tops are an improvement over linoleum, nothing takes the place of the high-pressure laminate," the speaker commented. It is heat and scorch resistant.

It is best to treat a laminate top with a silicone polish. This should be used two to three times a week This preparation should also be used in the grout around bathroom tile

Mrs Marion Longbotham, University of Wisconsin Home Management Specialist, discussed the importance of properly planned mix, sink, range and serve centers

The meeting was conducted by the Outagamie County Extension Service and the University of Wisconsin Extension Service

The third meeting of the series will take place at 8 p m Tuesday at the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co Kitchen equipment and kitchen planning aids will be discussed.

Give Enemy Rope, Leave Rest to Him

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Bridge tournaments never fail to startle the rubber bridge player A perfectly sane expert will jeopardize an unbeatable slam just for the chance of scoring a 30-point extra trick

When this hand was played during the national tournament in Chicago last August, West led the three of spades to dummy's queen Declarer drew three rounds of trumps and then led the jack of clubs from dummy

If West took the ace of clubs, South would discard two diamonds on the ace and king of spades, easily winning the rest of the tricks

Marshall Miles, the Sage of San Bernardino, held the West hand and could read South's entire hand from his bidding and the club play. He therefore managed to play a low club very casually, allowing dummy's jack to win the trick.

South suppressed his smile of triumph He had stolen a club trick, and this gave him a chance to score an overtrick What a jolly laugh he would have with the opponents when the hand was over!

Declarer cashed dummy's top spades, discarding the king and queen of clubs. Now all he needed was a little luck in diamonds for a score of 1460 instead of merely 1430 points

Declarer cashed dummy's king of diamonds and returned another diamond from dummy East discarded a club, and South forgot all about his smile

"What a pity," Miles murmured sympathetically We sages are always sympathetic

New kind of chow mein quick-cooked in dragon fire!

At last . . . canned chow mein you can serve at home . . . crisp and good as the "take-out" kind

Now, for the first time, an exclusive La Choy fast-cooking process puts "take-out" goodness into cans! As fresh and crisp as if just cooked-to-order. Everything together in one can!

How is it done?

Delbert does it! La Choy's devoted Delbert . . . the only domesticated dragon in the world cooks La Choy in one-fifth the usual time—in dragon fire!

Of course, some people visiting the La Choy kitchens say it's done with steam.

But then not everyone believes in dragons.

Study Before You Buy, Says Home Furnishings Expert

BY SYLVIA SIMMONS
Vice President
Young & Rubicam Inc

Third of a Series

Buying home furnishings nowadays is one of the toughest jobs a woman faces

You may have all the money for your needs You may know pretty well what you're looking for You may have read home decorating books and consumer reports and talked to your friends and gotten advice from your mother-in law

It's still tough

Three Reasons

It's tough because you're buying high-ticket items Things that cost a lot And if it's furniture or carpeting or drapes or linens or mattresses —it's going to have to do you for five to ten or fifteen years—so you had better be right when you make that purchase Thus you start off intimidated by the fear of making a mistake

It's tough because few of us have that much self-confidence we're sure we're right when we pick a color or a fabric or a style

The third reason is that the stores make it so difficult for us to make purchases Salespeople are too often uninformed about the merchandise they're supposed to be selling and if they do know the answers, they're rarely willing to spend the amount of time necessary to answer the many questions that are justified by an expensive purchase

Some Solutions

So—what can be done to minimize the number of wrong purchases we will make? To make it less painful to shop? To cut down the frustrations—and the returns?

One way is to hire an interior decorator tell him your budget and go off to Europe or Florida until the whole job is done But what he does in your home will not be you It will be him Or her

I'm not saying you shouldn't use a decorator if you feel so inclined you can afford one But most of us don't use decorators—especially for doing a single room or purchasing one or two items So let's zero in on what we can do on our own

Use Tape Measure

First, if you're going to make a long range purchase do your homework

Before you ever step foot into a store get out a pad of paper, and a tape measure Measure everything in the room or area you're going to furnish

Measure even the parts of the room not being re-done—it will help you when you get to the store Sometimes a piece of furniture in the store may seem smaller than it is until you compare its measurements with those of a piece of furniture you already own

Look For Facts

Doing your homework is also digging Go through all your old stacked up home furnishing magazines Read not only the articles that apply to what you're about to buy—but also the ads

Then talk to friends learn from their experience

The third part of doing your homework consists of learning to open your eyes and really start to see what's there We learn not only what we like and don't like—but why we like or dislike This part of the homework should be a continuous part of every homemaker's life

Shopper's Rights

The second thing you should remember if you are to get what you want in home furnishings is insist on your retail rights Your right to ask questions and have them answered Your right to know all the facts about what you're buying

If you can't get the information you want from salespersons, ask to see the buyer

Finally once you've made your purchases be sure that you get what you paid for

Complaints

If the curtains that were touted as guaranteed washable come out of the wash looking like your husband's T-shirt send them back

If you buy a desk or a dresser and the drawers stick and the store tells you they will ease up—and they don't—write the manufacturer Here, of course is the great advantage of buying home furnishing from a known manufacturer—one who is willing to advertise his name and his product If you don't get what you paid for you know whom to write to On unbranded merchandise you're in trouble

And let me give you a tip When you write don't just write to the company Write to a person in the company If it's an advertised product you can get the names of the people who run the company by looking in a book your neighborhood library has—it's called "The Standard Directory of Advertisers

Office Christmas Party, Boss' Night Not the Same, Ann Says

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have read your stand against Christmas office parties and I agree with you 100 per cent. And now will you say something about the annual "Boss' Night" party which is another thinly disguished attempt by the secretaries to get chummy with the executives?

The "girls" are mostly widows, divorcees and spinsters who plan cocktails, dinner, dancing and the whole bit. My husband's secretary is old enough to be his mother, so please don't think I feel threatened. Frankly, I resent it when he leaves me and the children to spend an evening this way. He has told me he doesn't enjoy these parties but he hates to hurt his secretary's feelings.

Landers

Am I all wet or am I right in thinking that the secretaries see our husbands more hours out of the day than we do and that the annual Boss' Night ought to be discontinued?—Indignant

Dear Dig: Of all the two-bit, penny ante complaints, yours takes the cake.

There is as much similarity between the office Christmas Party and Boss' Night as between the moor and green cheese.

In answer to your question Yes. You are all wet.

* * *

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a grandmother who is trying awfully hard to keep my nose out of my married children's business. But when someone you love goes off the track it is difficult to remain silent.

My daughter's son is three and a half years old. He has picked up some profane and obscene words from his wise elders." When he uses these words his mother spanks him, washes his mouth out with soap and makes such a fuss that the whole family is in an uproar. I have come to believe that the youngster now uses these words to get attention. All children repeat profane and nasty words when they are growing up. They don't know what the words mean. I've tried to get this idea across to my daughter but without success. Please print my letter and your views. — Distressed Nanna

Dear Nanna: You are right. It is best to ignore profane and nasty words from preschool children. Older ones, however should be told, "We don't use that kind of language in our house," and then the matter should be dropped.

* * *

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You had lousy advice for the woman who was sick of her husband's ex-wife. A person who doesn't have to put up with such guff can't know what it's like.

Your statement, "When you marry a divorced man you buy the total package—ex-wife, and the whole kit and kaboodle," is nonsense. I don't recall anything in my marriage vows that said I have to put up with my husband's ex-wife. That tramp can't set her foot inside my house. If she ever tried it I'd part her hair with a baseball bat.

A second wife has a tough enough time without you horning in on the side of the first wife. I wish you'd shut up on this subject.—Mad At You

Dear Reader: Your letter came in the same batch with hundreds of others—from first wives who are also furious with me.

They are hair-pulling mad because I said a recent survey showed that second marriages are working out a shade better these days than first marriages. I can't win.

* * *

To solve some of the frustrations, disappointments and disillusionments of married life, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Stomach Needs Mild Acid for Digestion

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr Molner I was told some years ago that I didn't have hydrochloric acid in my stomach to aid digestion The doctor gave me a bottle of it but did not tell me to continue it.

Recently I read in a book that anyone without hydrochloric acid should take a certain number of drops every day before each meal and wonder if I should do so again Also does this harm the stomach?—M F.

Dr. Molner

First do not—I repeat do not—start taking this without your doctor's instructions

Hydrochloric acid is one of several digestive juices which the stomach needs to break up food into forms which we can absorb

However, this acid is in very dilute form We need very little of it, although we do need that small amount

Ordinary hydrochloric acid is far too strong, and would, being a corrosive acid, cause a painful burn It has to be diluted on the order of one drop of acid to 500 drops of water—pretty weak, in other words And only a small amount of this weakened solution is required each day

A doctor's prescription is necessary to get the proper solution

Second, I removed from your letter the number of drops which your book suggested The amount can be either more or less than that

Third, until your doctor examines you, there is no way of knowing whether you still need any supplemental acid Some ailments are known to cause a shortage of acid in the stomach Other times there is no particular reason for the shortage, except that it is more likely to occur as we grow older and our body chemistry slows down

The fact that you needed a few drops of dilute acid several years ago may or may not mean that you need it now

If you are having any trouble digesting your food, by all means go to a doctor, and tell him that in the past you needed this additional acid Let him decide whether you need it now, and how much

Actually, a few drops a day of this very weak acid can do wonders for people who need it—but can be irritating to those who already have enough

The need is not uncommon among older folks and sometimes among younger ones, too

Dear Dr Molner I was told that one should not rub a leg cramp because it is a blood clot True or false? Also please send me your booklet on "You Can Stop Sinus Trouble" I enclose the required self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20c in coin —Mrs. D F

If every leg cramp meant a blood clot, just about all of us would be limping What you were told is false The vast majority of leg cramps, whether in children or adults, are due to becoming overtired or overtense The muscles go into spasm Gentle rubbing is a good method of first-aid as it helps relax the muscles (In older folks, deficient circulation and hardening of the arteries may be part of the cause And even then, gentle massage may help, and certainly won't harm)

The sinus booklet is on its way to you

Dear Dr Molner My son would like to have a tattoo on his arm removed Could it be tattooed over with natural colors or must skin be grafted over it?

Mrs F E

Either method is possible and in common use? But neither can be expected to give perfect results, which is why people should think twice before having a tattoo, unless they intend it to be permanent.

Move to Draft Jackie for Senate Hit by Hughes

TRENTON, N J (AP) A grass-roots movement in New Jersey to nominate Mrs John F. Kennedy for the U S Senate has been stopped by Gov Richard J Hughes, who called it "outrageous and discourteous"

Ocean County Democrats had suggested to the state Democratic chairman that Mrs Kennedy be considered as a candidate to run against Republican Sen Clifford P Case

Slightly chastened, the Ocean County Democrats said the suggestion was not meant to be circulated publicly

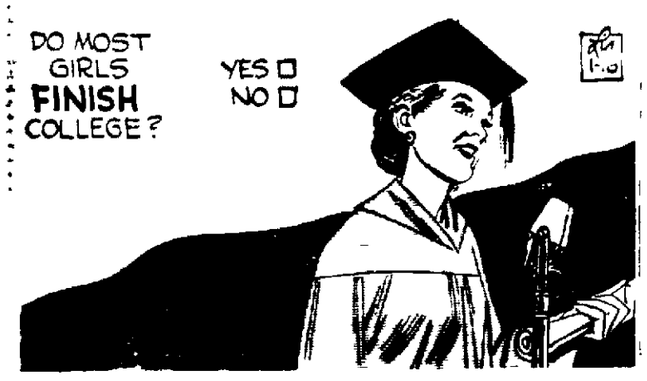

Mrs Kennedy is vacationing in Gstaad, Switzerland, where a spokesman said she would have no comment

Mrs Kennedy is a resident of New York City, but has acquired a summer home in Bedminster Township, Somerset County

Hughes called Sen Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., to apologize, and said he would write Mrs. Kennedy a letter of apology when she returns

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

No. More girls go to college now than formerly, and more stay there until they get their degrees. But the majority quit before their full four years on campus are over In the 1960's some 7 per cent of our girls earned at least one college degree. This is practically double the percentage of college graduates among women in 1940. But it still is a small percentage for a country that values education as we do. One way of upgrading our economy and strengthening our families would be to encourage more able girls to finish their education before getting married.

True — False—

False. Some of the most important things a child learns about life are non-verbal. The way his mother bathes and changes him when he is still a baby instills in even a very young infant his basic attitude toward himself, his body, and his world. The way he feels loved and accepted gives a baby a positive feeling about others and his relationship to them, or just the opposite. By the time a child begins to understand words, he or she is already well started in learning about life Telling is important but it is not enough — for any of us. This is underscored in far greater detail in the booklet, "How to Tell Your Child About Sex." To get your copy, send 25 cents and your name and address (including ZIP Code) to this column, in care of the Post-Crescent, Appleton, Wis., 54911.

U. S. Servicemen Fall To Malaria Mosquito

QUI NHON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A one story, U-shaped wooden building here was intended to be an enlisted men's club. Instead, it is filled with double-decker steel bunks, almost all of them occupied by U.S. servicemen stricken with malaria.

Qui Nhon, on the coast 360 miles northeast of Saigon, is the home of the U.S. Army's 85th Evacuation Hospital, where most of the malaria cases in central Viet Nam are treated.

Many of the patients are members of the 1st Cavalry Airmobile Division. The division surgeon, Lt. Col. James E. McCarthy, has reported more than 700 cases of malaria, six fatal, since Sept. 16.

Study Intensified

The fight against malaria goes on in other places, too. In Bangkok and at Washington's Walter Reed Hospital, work is intensified on the drive to prevent and treat malaria.

For all the hundreds of years of familiarity with malaria, no drug has been developed which succeeds like the vaccine used against smallpox. As antimalaria drugs are developed and tested, a new resistant strain of malaria crops up to offset the effects.

This is the problem now in Viet Nam.

The first case of malaria resisting the once successful drug chloroquine was found in an American civilian working in Colombia, South America, in 1960. The chloroquine-resistant strain also was found in an American sailor stationed in Thailand in 1961.

Resistent Strains

The resistant strain or strains fall under one type of malaria — plasmodium falciparum. Falcip, as it is known, was detected several years ago and cures have been found for its varying strains. Since 1960, however, new drug-resistant strains have been appearing.

Dr. Tony Bourke, a member of a U.S. Army medical research team in Saigon, says. "Malaria is a protozoa. It is one of the few we're not yet able to grow and study in the laboratory."

Bourke's chief, Dr. Robert Joy, adds. "If we had an artificial medium in which to grow malaria, we'd be a lot more successful."

At the hospital here in Quin Nhon, Dr. Richard Reba, Adelphia, Md., heads a three-man team which concentrates on treatment.

Best Method

"The biggest problem we had was to decide which was the best method to treat patients. No one realized the magnitude of the problem," Reba said.

Reba and his team of Drs. Richard Gaitner, Baltimore, and Tom Neff, Lincoln, Neb., divided groups of patients for different treatment.

Use Quinine

"We were able to keep the patients long enough to find chloroquine and quinine a good combination. Quinine is the only thing we have confidence in. It at least makes a guy well enough to travel," Reba said.

Of nearly 1,000 malaria patients treated at the Qui Nhoh hospital, eight have died. Each suffered complications, contracting either renal or cerebral malaria. An equal number of severe cases recovered with few after effects.

One factor in fighting malaria is environmental control and it poses a major problem. How do you spray thousands of square miles of jungle with antimalaria chemicals or dry up thousands of pools of stagnant water to eliminate the mosquito that carries the malaria protozoa?

The Viet Cong control much of the countryside, and medical teams can't enter many villages to treat known cases of malaria.

The 1st Cavalary had its first case of malaria 15 days after its arrival in September. Since then the lines on the charts showing the incidence rate have gone up and down. When they declined at the base camp in An Khe, the lines rose sharply after troops began operations in such places as Ia Drang Valley.

Treatment covers six weeks or more. Due to limited facilities in Viet Nam, most patients are sent to hospitals in Honolulu, Guam, Japan, Okinawa or the Philippines.

Do the Viet Cong suffer from malaria?

Dr. Jeri Svjagintsev, Estonian-born commander of the 15th Medical Battalion at An Khe, reported:

"I talked with a Viet Cong doctor captured by the 1st Cavalary when they discovered a VC field hospital in the jungles northwest of Pleiku. Through an interpreter he said that malaria had been a problem for years and years with the VC. There was intramuscular chloroquine in quite significant quantities at the VC hospital. It was all Chinese-made."

The Viet Cong doctor said almost all the Communist guerrillas have or have had malaria and that they were treated with quinine and chloroquine in jungle hospitals.

Some American civilians working in malaria programs were critical of Vietnamese attitudes toward the problem.

An employe of the U.S. Operations Mission said:

"My Vietnamese counterparts are not taking suppressives. They don't really think about it. To them, their jobs are only a means of employment."

American military personnel and other allied troops are using suppressives: one tablet a week per man, containing a combination of chloroquine and primaquine.

KAC Officers Are Re-elected

KAUKAUNA — All officers of the Kaukauna Athletic Club were re-elected at the annual membership meeting Saturday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Officers include Les Dietzen, president; Richard Borree, vice president; George Hurst, secretary, and Jack Hilgenberg, treasurer. Directors named to 2-year terms were Earl Kersten and Robert LaPlante and to 1-year terms were Donald Lappen, Joseph Ball and William Knapp.

Reports were given by Hilgenberg, treasurer; Robert Gossens, KAC basketball; Carl Bowers, baseball; Jerry Klarer, junior Legion baseball; Dietzen, softball tournament; Lappen, bowling tournament, and Gossens, cribbage tournament.

Appleton School Board Member on Panel

Mrs. Walter Heil, chairman of Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) and a member of the Appleton Board of Education, has been selected to serve on the Cooperative Educational Service Agencies panel Thursday at the 1966 Wisconsin School Board Convention in Milwaukee.

Charles Wileman, secretary, State Cooperative Educational Service Committee, Department of Public Instruction, will serve as chairman of the five-member panel.

• FINER TEXTURE

Sof-twist

IS A BETTER BREAD!

1 Two pieces of enriched dough are shaped into long soft delicate rolls.

Billion Dollars Yearly Paid Out, Much for Styling, Camouflage

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Wish your husband looked less like a bald eagle and more like either of the senators Kennedy? Wish your boyfriend looked more like Tony Curtis? Wish your schoolboy son looked less like a prickly pear and more like Prince Charles?

Madam, you should consult your friendly barber — beg pardon, your friendly hair stylist.

But which ever he is these days, he can probably tell you that the ancient craft of cutting men's hair has developed into a billion-dollar annual hair care industry.

The only recession the barbers see ahead is that of hairlines on the masculine head. Industry spokesmen say they have ways of handling that and that more men than you may suspect are taking to the latter-day techniques of camouflage.

Mostly Barbers

There are still more barbers than men's hair stylists in these United States — some 300,000 of the basic type and some 18,000 of the newer clique. But the latter say their number is growing fast.

And they hope that the nation's youth training programs will produce a new flock of apprentice barbers. From such will be recruited the hair stylists of tomorrow. New schools are springing up to teach latter-day barbering techniques.

Both barbers and stylists will be gathering here next week for the annual national barber show. And there'll be a lot more on display than just shears, clippers and whisk brooms. New products include hair gels, hair setting lotions, sprays and dyes — that's right, for masculine purchasers. And on display for the whiffing will be a host of bottles labeled "true masculine scents."

Status of Figaro

"The young barber of today has a chance to regain the high status of Figaro in Rossini's 'The Barber of Seville'," Hal A. Salzman says.

"Then the barber was a prime consultant on high fashion, business and wordly affairs and even practiced dentistry and minor surgery."

Salzman wears three hats. He is president of Odell, which makes tonics and other preparations for the care of hair and scalp. He is chairman of the Tonsorial Information Council. And he is chairman of the Barber Shop Promotion Committee of Beauty, and Barbers Manufacturing Association.

He was wearing that third hat when he said in an interview that hair styling is spreading so fast across the land, in small as well as big cities, because today's business pace is convincing more and more men that they must look fit and youthful — to their business associates if they want to hold their job or advance — and to their wives and themselves for more personal but just as compelling reasons.

Toupees Increasing

Thus, says Salzman, the making and fitting of toupees and other expensive hairpieces for balding men is growing at mushroom speed in the hair care industry.

Foxes Promised Interesting Team for 1966

Rookie Crop Pleases White Sox' Miller

Glen Miller has promised Fox Cities an interesting club, and "a pennant-contending club, if possible," for 1966.

The White Sox farm director, in town for the Red Smith Awards banquet Tuesday, said that in '65 the parent club signed its best crop of rookies in several years and that some of them would be playing for the Foxes.

The Foxes' roster has not been determined since the Chisox have two other Class A farm teams, Miller noted. Among those signed to a Fox Cities contract, though, is Jim Ackley, a 19-year-old pitcher from Hayward. He is the brother of Fritz Ackley, a veteran of the White Sox organization.

It's possible—but far from definite—that Mickey Vandehey, former Auburndale prep flash, will be playing here this year, Miller said Vandehey finished strong last season in a rookie league after failing to hit well for Clinton in the Midwest League

Clinton, former Chisox affiliate in the ML, had strong teams every year but '65, Miller pointed out. One of the factors that contributed to the off-year was the necessity of Clinton's playing on the road for the first five weeks because of the spring floods, the farm boss said.

Older Players

Lynchburg, Va., one of the Chisox' other "A" clubs, will be carrying more older players since the Carolina League permits up to seven veterans—compared to only two for the ML. The other "A" club for the White Sox is Deerfield, Fla

Miller, a Kaukauna native, praised Stan Wasiak, the Foxes' first manager in their affiliation with the White Sox. Though it's his first year in the organization, "we know all about him," said Miller

The White Sox signed 22 of the 41 players they drafted last June, Miller revealed. The draftees who failed to sign within the specified 6-months period have been "frozen" and will be subject to draft by other teams Jan. 29

Miller says it's a little too early to evaluate the success of the new-type draft "Give it at least a full year," says Glen.

"The rule was supposed to save money, but so far it hasn't saved us any," declared Miller. He added that he's not too concerned because he feels the Chisox got "more for their money" in '65 The new draft rule is also designed to help balance up the majors, according to Miller

On the matter of attendance, Miller says he knows it's necessary to have an interesting ball club as the starting point. From the standpoint of a young player, it desirable to have him play before good-sized crowds rather than empty seats, Miller added.—JOHN L. PAUSTIAN Sr.

Preble Gymnasts Defeat Xavier

The Xavier High School gymnastic team dropped a 64-48 decision to Preble in a meet at Preble Saturday.

The loss gives Xavier a 3-2 record for the season. Its next meet will be against Manitowoc at 1 p.m. Saturday at the St. Mary Grade School gym.

High scorer for Xavier against Preble was John Kugler, with 18 points. Cliff Recker had 10. Busse paced Preble with 20 points.

'Better Chance if It Drops Suit'

Milwaukee Deserves Big League Baseball Franchise, Says Grimm

"If Milwaukee would drop its suit against the Braves right now, it would have a better chance of getting major league baseball back into the city," commented Charlie Grimm in an exclusive interview Tuesday afternoon.

"Of course this is only my own opinion," commented the 67-year old baseball veteran, currently employed as an honorary vice president of the Chicago Cubs.

Grimm, who spent six of his 50 years in baseball as a manager in Milwaukee, and Richard (Red) Smith, a Combined Locks native who eventually gained fame on the gridiron and in diamond circles, both agreed that Milwaukee is definitely a major league city.

Outstanding Record

"Attendance records prove it as one of the best baseball cities in the country," Smith offered "And in considering possible big league franchises, Milwaukee can stand on its outstanding record"

Grimm, who was at the helm when the "Miracle Braves of 1953" arrived on the Milwaukee scene, added, "It's definitely a major league town. The enthusiasm of the fans made our second division club a pennant winner. There is a little showboat in every professional ballplayer and the fans' enthusiasm brought it out.

Now 67 years young, "Jolly Cholly" continued, "If Milwaukee loses its court battle, the only way the city might obtain for a new franchise will be through expansion. This means at least two new clubs in each league"

Grimm confided that the court battle between the Braves' brass and Milwaukee County was definitely giving baseball a bad name.

While Grimm expressed an air of sympathy for Milwaukee fans, he admitted that the possible loss of the Wisconsin franchise would enhance the turnstile figures of the Cubs, Chicago White Sox and Minnesota Twins.

Grimm, who resides near Fort Atkinson, was high on the hiring of Leo Durocher to pilot the Cubs in the 1966 campaign. "Leo's a fantastic guy. His enthusiasm rubs off on the players and he's bound to be an improvement over the Cubs' former system of coaches"

"Leo's a gambler," Charlie continued. "He admits he must get the utmost out of his players. He's not coming in to manage an eighth place club and he'll make his charges believe the same"

Grimm's current position with the Cubs entails good will stints, assisting the club's minor league director and reporting on the development of minor league personnel. He also plans to join the Cubs for spring training. . .as he puts it. . ."simply to hit fungoes and help out wherever I can."

Allen Freed To Take Job With Rams

Halas kept talking. "Your important ruling will uphold the integrity between National Football League clubs and preserve the sanctity of contracts...."

"Objection, objection, objection," repeated Jenner.

Validity Issue

"Validity was the issue here and will prevent the breakdown of organized football and all sports," continued Halas "George Allen was a minor issue Validity was the issue"

Halas then tossed the bomb and scored. He turned to Allen and told his aide he was dropping the suit and Allen was free to take the Rams' head coaching job

Reporters dashed out of the courtroom in the corny tradition of a Hollywood B film

"I was the most surprised guy in the world," said Short "I had no idea of what he was up to

"It was a great victory for us," said Jenner but Halas didn't prove a thing and only saved face"

"Validity of the contract was the main and only issue," said Halas "I am now satisfied with the legality of the matter

Allen Happy

Halas made his point to his own satisfaction Allen was happy because he was free to leave his $19,000 job with the Bears to take the Ram job at a reported $40,000 a year

Dan Reeves, owner of the Rams, said in Los Angeles "Fine Everybody seems to be happy Now let's get to work"

Commissioner Rozelle does not have to hold a hearing between the two involved clubs in which he might have had to rule against one of the two owners

New Chisox Pilot

Pitching Ranks as Key In Determining Success Or Failure, Says Stanky

BY TERRY GALVIN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

"Pitching is 80 to 85 per cent of our ball club," commented Eddie Stanky, who is about to begin his first year as field manager of the Chicago White Sox, perennial bridesmaid in the American League pennant race.

"Our success depends largely on the pitching staff If we can get just seven more victories out of our pitchers over last year's total, I'm confident we can win the pennant," the fiery new Chisox mentor continued

"On clubs where the hitting is better, in fact, on the best hitting club in the majors, pitching is still 60 to 65 per cent of its success or failure," Stanky added

In addition, Stanky listed two other prerequisites if the Sox are to win the 1966 pennant These included slight improvement at the plate and a continuance of successful relief pitching.

Plans to Experiment

Not averse to using relief pitchers, Stanky also plans to experiment with regulars at various positions, including Pete Ward, a member of the 1960 Midwest League-champion Fox Cities Foxes.

"I want to get the club prepared in case of injuries and prolonged batting slumps," commented Stanky "To do this, I plan to try Pete at first base and possibly in the outfield in spring training Ward, however, is not the only player who will be tried elsewhere"

"Versatility is one of the keys to a good ball club and right now, I like the possibilities that exist with the White Sox As for Fisher (Eddie) and Wilhelm (Hoyt), these guys (relief pitchers) mature with age and I look for them both to have good seasons."

Presently, Stanky plans to use Gary Peters, Tommy John, John Buzhardt, Joel Horlen, Juan Pizzaro and possible Bruce Howard as his starting pitchers

Stanky began his managerial career with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1953, at the age of 35. Among his more prominent charges was Stan Musial.

"Stan, simply by his power of example, made it easy for me to manage the Cards," Stanky confessed "His promptness for practice, always-hustling attitude definitely had a great affect on the younger ballplayers"

In looking toward the court fight between Milwaukee County and the Braves, Eddie replied with fervor, "Milwaukee is a great baseball town It certainly deserves a major league franchise I'm hoping something can be worked out if it loses the Braves"

Greatest Season

Stanky, after six years in the minors, enjoyed his greatest season in Milwaukee in 1942 As a member of the Charlie Grimm-managed Brewers of the American Association, the diminutive second baseman led the league in hitting with a .342 average, was named the loop's most valuable player and also earned rookie of the year honors.

At the start of the '42 campaign, Stanky acquired Grimm's permission to leave spring training for a week to marry The results of this move were his greatest season in baseball and now, six children including two potential ballplayers

Stan Wasiak, the new Fox Cities Foxes pilot, was on the same club with Stanky at Macon, Ga in 1941 Later Wasiak worked in the Dodger organization as a minor league manager and Stanky was high in praise of Wasiak's ability to handle young players

"The people of this area will really like Stan," Eddie offered "His enthusiasm is simply great and his ability is unquestionable"

Stanky launched his organized baseball career at the age of 17, and after seven long years in the minors ("the toughest years of my life"), reached the big show in 1943

After 11 seasons as a major league player, Stanky closed his active playing career with a lifetime batting average of 268 During the 1965 season, he served as director of player development for the New York Mets He also served the Cardinals in the same capacity from 1959 through 1964

Comes Out Second Best to Blanda

'Bones' Taylor Fired As Coach of Oilers

By MIKE RATHET

HOUSTON, Tex (AP) — Wally Lemm says he's not interested but he remains the No 1 candidate today for the Houston Oilers' coaching job after Bones Taylor came out second best in a confrontation with Oilers quarterback George Blanda

Despite his denial, The Associated Press learned from a reliable source Tuesday night that Lemm is ready for his second go round as head coach of the American Football League club He led Houston to the AFL title in 1961

Lemm, who resigned as coach of the St Louis Cardinals of the National Football League only nine days ago, would be the Oilers' sixth coach in the last seven years The job is becoming as secure as a javelin catcher at a track meet

Latest Casualty

The latest casualty was Taylor, who took over for Sammy Baugh last season The club finished last in the Eastern Division with a 4-10 mark but Taylor was reportedly set with a new three-year contract until last Friday when his conflict with Blanda became public

Don Klosterman, the Oilers new executive vice president and general manager made the announcement of Taylor's dismissal at a press conference Tuesday night

256 Line Whacked By Joan Kolosso

566 American League Aggregate Tallied; Elaine Krueger Hits 553

Joan Kolosso uncorked a 256 game, third highest of the 1965 66 season in the Fox Cities-area, en route to a 566 threesome to highlight action in the American League at the 41 Bowl Tuesday

Joan opened with two spares before stringing six straight strikes in the 256 game She closed with spares in the ninth and 10th frames and added eight pins on her last ball

Other honor tallies in the American loop were Carole Cowans 190 and Margaret Marx 508

Elaine Krueger fashioned a 553 series, including a 205 game to lead the way in the 5 x 8 League at Hahn's Lanes Eileen Belling's 506 was the only other honor score

Ethel Van Nuland's 231 game and "Toby" DeBruin's 514 series shared honors in the Little Chute Ladies League at Recreation Lanes Ethel finished with 513, while Toby's series included a 191 line Lorraine Van Vreede's 198 and 505 were the only other honor tallies

Marion Helms' 509 and Marie Keyzers' 196 shared laurels in the Tag-A-Long League, while Evelyn Steiner's 500 was the lone honor tally in the National League Anita Kramer and Judy Fischer posted games of 207 and 195, respectively, in the Valley Fair League at Sabre Lanes.

Red Smith Banquet Draws Huge Crowd

100 or more persons at the banquet from Kaukauna (later in the banquet he received a large trophy inscribed "from your Kaukauna friends."

Miller quipped, "I don't know why I got this award, but maybe it's because I've survived seven general managers and four owners in Chicago."

The Fox Cities team will get four sets of new uniforms from the Chisox, said Miller, "and we'll try to fill them with good players."

Frank Howard, Washington Senator star who once played for Green Bay's Bluejays, received the "Nice Guy Award." In acknowledging the citation, Howard said, "The truly nice guys in baseball are seated at the head table — and they should get the award."

Ed Short, White Sox general manager, declared "There was no doubt we were coming here when Baltimore pulled out. He said Ed Stanky would lead the Sox "out of the doldrums of second place" and invited fans to come to Chicago to see the team play.

Names Fred Miller

Between his stories and introductions, master of ceremonies Charlie Grimm tossed in this remark about the Braves' situation: "If Fred Miller were alive today, you'd still have major league baseball in Milwaukee."

Stanky, new Chisox pilot, said he has more than a passing interest in the state because he played in Milwaukee when Grimm was the manager and Red Smith a coach. Stanky said he's been working with the minor leagues for several years and promised he won't "lose sight of the minor leagues." He added "It's a 2-way street . . . the better job they do, the easier it will be for me as a major league manager."

Grimm reminded the audience of what the late Branch Rickey said of Stanky in his playing days: "He can't hit, he can't run and he can't field — all he can do is beat you."

A number of area awards were presented. The Heid Music Co. award went to Gene Clark for his Xavier High School coaching record. The Steinberg Agency award was given to Northeastern golf champion Hans Fischer, of Sheboygan; The late Norm Abitz was cited for his work in assuring Fox Valley Lutheran High School a new athletic field, and the Mid-City Beer and Liquor store award went to his son, Bob Beltrone won the Appleton Neon Sign Co. award for his work in American Legion baseball.

Award Winners

Lawrence University's Bernie Heselton won the McClone Construction and Supply award for his long and meritorious coaching career. The Appleton High School Quarterback Club award went to the late Werner Witte for his 38 years of service to the school and was accepted for Mr. Witte by Ade Dillon.

The McClone Insurance award went to Green Bay Packers "Fuzzy" Thurston and Max McGee. The Green Bay Mainliner Industrial award went to Ron Kostelnik, another Packer.

The Pond Sport Shop award went to "Rocky" Bleier and was accepted by his father, Bob Green Bay East Coach Al Mancheski won the Kellogg Citizen's National Bank award. The Bleier award went to Bob Diener, softball pitching star.

Dave Simon, former St. Norbert College star who has signed with the Houston Oilers, won the Little Chute Kiwanis award. The First National Bank of Appleton awarded John Wissman a trophy for his 25 years as Appleton and Fox Cities clubs treasurer.

Mike Andrews, of Kaukauna High School and Lawrence University won the Thilmany award. The Northside Advancement Association award for meritorious service in Babe Ruth League baseball went to Bob De Nobie and was accepted by his son, Paul.

Pete Ward, former Foxes star, reported he had just signed his 1966 contract and told the assemblage he is always happy to return to the Fox Cities where he has many friends.

"Dizzy" Trout, the principal speaker, was at his story-telling best and also poked fun at his own pitching career and needled the White Sox for their long-standing lack of hitting. "Nineteen of the 20 big league clubs demand hitting, but not the White Sox . . . insurance around the ball parks is down because there's no chance of getting windows broken."

An unscheduled speaker, Mayor Don Bayorgeon, of Kaukauna, nearly stole the show from the old pros on the rostrum. In awarding each of the principal guests a box of Kaukauna cheese, he teed off some appropriately snappy patter. For example in making the gift to Ward, Bayorgeon said, "I saw you play many a time on complimentary tickets."

In commenting on Bayorgeon's performance, Grimm said, "Where have you been all this time? Allyn better move his club to Kaukauna."

Howard Happy With Senators

Ward Hopes to Stage Comeback This Year

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Pete Ward and Frank Howard both look for improved seasons for their respective baseball teams—the Chicago White Sox and the Washington Senators—in the '66 season.

An improvement for the White Sox, American League runnersup for the last three years, would mean the pennant. The ambitions of the Senators are more modest—they hope to rise closer to the first division.

Ward and Howard, the only current major league baseball players in the group of sports notables attending Tuesday's Red Smith Awards banquet, will be starting spring training in little more than a month. Howard was the Al's "comeback player of 1965," while Ward hopes to stage a comeback of his own in '66.

Ward, former Fox Cities Foxes star, says the Chisox have the material to go all the way—"if we all have a good year at the same time."

Impressed with Stanky

Ward says he has known Eddie Stanky, new Chisox manager, only a few weeks but is already impressed with him. "If we'd have nine guys who play the way people say Stanky used to play, nobody could stop us," said Ward in reference to Stanky's famed competitive fire.

"We're not looking for a soft touch under Stanky," Pete added. "We expect to work."

Ward isn't sure where he'll play in '66—saying he expects to work in left field and at first base, in addition to his regular third base spot, during spring training. Pete notes that he prefers to stay at third base, but where he will actually start the season will depend on what other candidates do.

To keep in shape, Ward has been playing golf (in Florida) handball and paddleball. He hopes to rebound from what he termed a bad season in '65. Ward was plagued with a neck condition sustained in an early-season auto accident and was unable to play the full schedule. When Ward was feeling better, he tripped over "Boog" Powell's foot (Powell was his former Fox Cities teammate) in a game and aggravated the condition.

Recalling his days with the '60 Foxes (the last championship team Ward has played on), he said his biggest thrill was in winning the Three-I League's most valuable player award. He said that Foxes team was the best for its classification he has ever played on. He noted that teammates Powell, Dean Chance, Buster Narum and Bob Saverine have also made the big leagues.

Enjoys 3-I League

Howard, who starred in the 3-I league two seasons earlier than Ward (with Green Bay's Bluejays) says he enjoyed playing in that circuit but that no particular home run thrill stands out for him. He did emphasize the difference between major and minor league ball — in particular noting that one faces good pitching seven days a week in the big leagues instead of only once in a while and that many ground balls that went between third and short in the minors are "outs" in the majors.

The huge Howard says his arm feels good after having had off-season surgery for an elbow condition but that he still doesn't know whether it will be as strong as before.

Howard is happy with Washington, which he describes as a "young club, on the way up." He said he fits into a power club, "free-wheeling group" like the Senators more than he did with a running club, like the Dodgers-his former team.

Howard is also happy with the Washington stadium, noting that the ball "carries" better there than at Chavez Ravine.

The big slugger doesn't feel the Yankee decline is permanent. He feels that injuries to the "big 3" (Mantle, Maris and Elston Howard) played a big part in their low 1965 finish.

However, Howard does feel that the American League is moving toward the kind of balance the National League has enjoyed for many years. He looks for an all-out pennant scrap among Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Baltimore and the Yanks.

Interleague Play Forecast By Ed Short

out on a limb because "I'm not so sure the Braves are eliminated from Milwaukee."

The White Sox owner glanced around at the barrage of television cameras and offered "It wouldn't be in good taste to make a pitch for Milwaukee and Wisconsin baseball fans until this thing is settled, but if Wisconsin should be so unfortunate as to lose the Braves you will find us in here with all four feet. We'll be offering at least a partial substitution for a product which the area needs and we would like to renew some of the associations we have enjoyed in the past."

In talking about baseball's new commissioner, William Eckert, Allyn had nothing but praise. He said Eckert had been relatively quiet in his new position so far, but he is learning the problems he will have to cope with.

Boon for Baseball

"Eckert is a man who can make up his mind and one who is not afraid to act," Allyn said. "When the history books are written Eckert will be noted as one of the biggest boons baseball has ever known," the White Sox owner said.

When asked about the possibility that a dome is in the plans for Comiskey Park, Allyn offered: "We have engaged a firm to tell us if it can be done. We expect some results on their findings in about 90 days."

This brought Allyn to another subject in which he said: "We have an obligation to modernize our product, we can't cry to the public for help and we have an obligation to fill to the fans."

When asked about new field manager Eddie Stanky, Allyn said acquiring Stanky was "one of the best strokes of luck we have ever had. I can sum him up in three words, dedication, sincerity and honesty."

Holding Back

General Manager Short said the American League favors inter-league play, but the National League has been holding back on approval.

"Apparently they're afraid they will lose some of their 'superiority' or something," the Chisox general manager said. "When we can pack the field for a game with the Cubs and when the Cardinals can draw 40,000 in an exhibition game at Detroit you know the fans want this kind of thing," Short said.

When asked if the White Sox might ever make an appearance at Goodland Field Short said, "it depends."

"We have an agreement with the players where we have no more than three exhibition games in one season. One of ours is with the Cubs, and the other we have contracted with our Triple A farm club, which happens to be Indianapolis. That leaves us with one open date for an exhibition game and involved in that is timing, travel and many other things, but don't count it out."

Same Ingredients for '66

'Team of Year' Honors Go to the Dodgers

DARRTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Pitching, speed and determination again will be the ingredients of the Los Angeles Dodgers, says Walter Alston, manager of the world champion baseball team.

"The team won't be any different," Alston said, "except maybe for the return of Tommy Davis to give us more hitting power. How much he'll be able to play, I just don't know at this time."

The Dodgers, who won the National League pennant last year with a 13-game winning streak at the end of the season and then went on to whip Minnesota in the World Series, were named the Team of the Year for 1965 Tuesday in the annual Associated Press poll.

"I'm very happy for the award and proud that the boys were chosen," said Alston, who spends the winters with his daughter and grandchildren in Darrtown, 25 miles north of Cincinnati.

The Dodgers beat out Michigan State's football team which went undefeated in 10 regular season games to win the Big Ten title before being upset by UCLA in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

Get 102 Firsts

The 303 sports writers and sportscasters voting in the poll gave the Dodgers 102 first place votes and 499 points. Michigan State collected 55 first-place ballots and 287 points.

Third place went to the UCLA basketball team which won its second straight NCAA crown last spring. The Bruins got 251 points. In fourth place were the Boston Celtics, pro basketball champions, with 221.

Alston said the Dodgers "will have to play the same type of ball this year. I don't think we'll have a home run hitting club. It's nice to have a few homers, but we're not noted for them."

The Dodgers had led the league most of the year but on Sept. 15 found themselves in third place, 4½ games behind first-place San Francisco. They then went on a 13-game winning streak and captured the pennant the day before the season ended.

The Minnesota Twins were named fifth in the Team of the Year balloting. Following them were four football teams, the Arkansas Razorbacks, Southwest Conference leaders, and three National League clubs, the champion Green Bay Packers, Cleveland Browns and Chicago Bears. In 10th place was the Spain Davis Cup tennis team.

Preble Gymnasts Register 71-41 Win Over Terrors

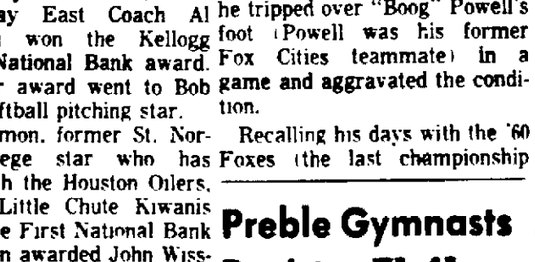

PREBLE — The Appleton High School gymnastics team dropped a 71-41 decision to Preble here Tuesday in the season opener for the Terrors.

The next meet for Coach Dave Black's Terrors is slated for Feb. 5 in the AHS gym, opposite Manitowoc.

The Terrors outscored Preble only in the still ring competition where Steve Zelie, Chuck Niesen and Mark Weber placed first, third and fifth, respectively.

Vikings' Faulkner To Scout for Rams

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams have hired Jack Faulkner, backfield coach of football's Minneapolis Vikings as a college scout.

The Rams said Monday that Faulkner's son, Jon, 3, suffers from an allergy that is aggravated by the cold weather in Minneapolis.

Faulkner has been an assistant coach at Miami University and with the Rams, Vikings and the San Diego Chargers. He was also head coach of the Denver Broncos for two seasons.

Dee Fondy Added to Met Coaching Staff

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets added former major league first baseman Dee Fondy to their scouting staff today.

Fondy, who played with the Chicago Cubs, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati from 1951-58, will cover Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico for the Mets. He fills the vacancy created by the death of Al Lyons on Dec. 20.

Owners Vote to Add 2 New AFL Teams in 1967

Milwaukee Among 9 Cities Still in Mind for Franchise

By MIKE RATHET

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Commissioner Joe Foss was expected to hand down his final image-changing decision for the American Football League today by ruling on the disputed trade involving San Diego's Ernie Ladd and Earl Faison.

Foss has been investigating the case since withholding approval of the five player trade between the Chargers and the Houston Oilers. He has the power to void the deal and-or hand out fines up to $2,000 by himself — up to $25,000 with the approval of the league's owners.

Foss grappled with his decision following a 15-hour session of meetings Tuesday that resulted in these developments:

—The owners voted to expand by two teams instead of the expected one, for the 1967 season while Foss listed the cities still in the running as Portland, Ore., Los Angeles and Anaheim, Calif., Chicago, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., and New Orleans.

Called On Carpet

—Boston linebacker Nick Buoniconti was called on the carpet for making statements detrimental to the league and because, according to Foss, "the popoff system in this league is no longer fashionable."

—The new Miami Dolphins continued to fill out their roster in the expansion draft by selecting eight additional players, including Kansas City receiver Frank Jackson and Oakland guard Ken Rice.

—Coach Bones Taylor was fired by the Oilers and was expected to be replaced by Wally Lemm, a former Houston coach who recently resigned a similar post with St. Louis of the National League.

Then, Tuesday, before announcing the new expansion plans, Foss applied his get-tough policy again by issuing a summons to his office to Buoniconti.

To Play Out Option

Buoniconti, noting the success of Ladd and Faison, had been quoted as saying he plans to play out his option with the Patriots if he isn't given a substantial raise. He also commented on how the Kansas City Chiefs handle financial operations with their players and suggested that bonus money not spent on rookies be distributed among veteran players.

In discussing the Buoniconti case, Foss explained that "I called him because of statements that I consider detrimental to the American Football League.

"As long as I am in the wheel house everyone will keep more silent. The popoff system in this league is no longer fashionable."

Foss' sharp comment was taken to include not only Buoniconti but also Adams and New York owner Sonny Werblin, who has been quoted recently on the subject of shifting existing franchises.

After Foss finished his image-correcting in the Buoniconti case, he announced the league would become an 11-team circuit for the 1967 season, pushing ahead with expansion at a faster clip than expected. He said the owners would likely meet in March to name the two cities to be awarded franchises.

Cornhuskers Upset Kansas In Big 8 Tilt

Take Loop Lead With 83-75 Win; DePaul Triumphs

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

An unknown little guy came off the bench and gave Nebraska a 43-41 victory over Big Wilt Chamberlain and the University of Kansas eight years ago in what is regarded as the No. 1 upset in the history of Big Eight college basketball.

They used virtually the same script at Lincoln, Neb., Tuesday night as the Cornhuskers again upset Kansas 83-75 and took over first place in the Big Eight Conference.

The hero this time was Jim Damm, a 6-foot-2 sophomore from Bellflower, Calif. He came off the bench and scored 11 points, his career high, in helping the Huskers come from behind a nine-point deficit in the first half.

In 1958, it was Jim Kubacki who scored the winning basket in the last second. Kubacki was in street clothes when the game started, but persuaded his coach to let him suit up for the second half.

The defeat snapped an eight-game winning streak for Kansas, sixth-ranked in The Associated Press poll. Nebraska, now 12-2 over-all, is assured its first winning season in 16 years. Not since their 16-7 record in 1950 have the Huskers bettered .500 for a season.

"The full-court press and just plain old desire made the difference," said Joe Cipriano, Nebraska coach. "We had a little tiredness at the end from the great effort."

Cipriano referred to the three occasions in the last 65 seconds that Kansas, led by Walt Wesley's 22 points, pulled within four points before the Huskers wrapped it up with six straight free throws.

A crowd of 8,566 saw Damm and Nate Branch spark a 24-4 Nebraska spurt that erased Kansas' 28-19 lead and the Jayhawks never caught up. Branch's 18 points were high for Nebraska.

Pollution Stand Of Paper Firms Wins Approval

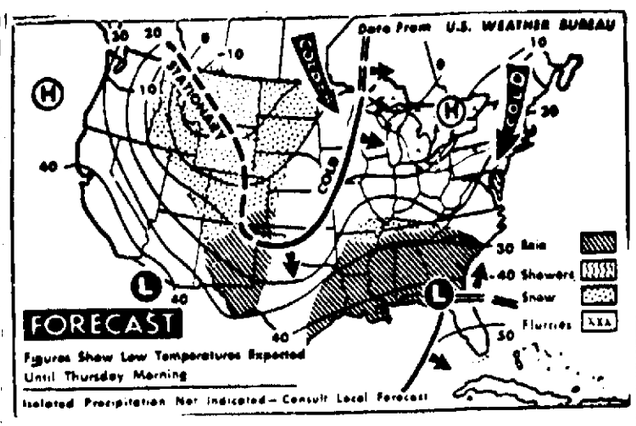

NEENAH — One of the state's leading citizen conservation groups has commended Wisconsin paper companies for their recent "affirmative" statement on water resources.

The Wisconsin Resource Conservation Council, in a letter from its president, Dr. C. R. Rumsey of Milwaukee and West Bend, told the Wisconsin Paper Industry Information Service, Neenah, it was "pleased and heartened" to know the industry "has seen fit to reaffirm its traditional concern and responsibility toward natural resources."

Gov. Warren Knowles also has said he is "very pleased" with the companies' "positive and farsighted" position.

They referred to six recommendations made last week by 27 state paper firms to the Governor's Committee on Water Resources, which is studying ways of preserving and improving state water resources. The recommendations largely had to do with increasing the financing, staffing and authority of the state Committee on Water Pollution.

The Wisconsin Resource Conservation Council is an association of citizen organizations banded together to promote what they consider to be wise conservation legislation. Sen. Gaylor Nelson saw it as a "people's lobby" for conservation when he created it during his last year as governor.

Rain Mixed With Snow is forecast for the Tennessee valley tonight and a band of snow will stretch from the northern Rockies to the central Plains, also in the Lakes area. Rain is expected in most of the Gulf states. Temperatures will moderate in the Lakes area and central Mississippi valley. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Wide Area of Nation Cold, Snow-Clad

More Arctic Air Heads for Montana From Canada's North

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow hobbled traffic in the mountains of New Mexico today and arctic air covered wide areas of the Union.

More snow fell from the Ohio Valley to the Great Lakes as a new cold wave blustered toward Montana from northwestern Canada.

Cloudcroft in southeastern New Mexico, reported 11 inches of snow. Three inches of snow fell during Tuesday night's rush hours and slowed traffic in Albuquerque. Snow measured 8 inches in mountain areas.

Snow covered other sections of New Mexico, with 3 inches at Las Vegas in the north; 5½ inches at Santa Rosa in the east; 1 inch at Carlsbad in the southeast and 3 inches at Belen in the central section.

The snow spanning the Ohio Valley dumped an inch of new snow in Grand Rapids and Muskegon, Mich., Tuesday. Light snow flurried as far west as Illinois.

Montana Warnings

Police in Montana east of the Continental Divide posted cold-wave and hazardous driving warnings as an icy air mass blew down from Canada. Forecasters predicted -20 readings in the northern Rockies and the northern Montana plains.

Temperatures in Wisconsin rose into the teens from -15 early Tuesday in Green Bay, but snow that has blanketed the state for days stayed on the ground. The depth measured 17 inches at Park Falls in the northwest and six inches at Madison in the south.

The Deep South was cloud-covered and rainy with above-freezing temperatures. The drizzle extended into most of Texas, where 55-degree readings were reported in southern areas.

Lutheran Congregation At Greenville Elects Two New Councilmen

GREENVILLE — Marshall Breaker and Russell Miller have been elected new members of the council of the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church.

At the council meeting Monday, Breaker was elected building financial treasurer and Miller, financial secretary. Other officers are Roger Weihing, president; Edward Kringle, vice president; Harland Schroeder, general treasurer and William Ratzburg, secretary.

Retiring members of the council are Harold Kaphingst and Gordon Schroeder. Melvin Doell was elected parish representative on the Fox Valley Lutheran High School board, succeeding Eldred Doell.

Fisheree Set Sunday At Tustin

TUSTIN — A fisheree will be sponsored here Sunday by the volunteer fire department. Proceeds will be used to purchase new and better equipment.

The recently purchased 100 feet of steel track will be used to bridge the crack in the lake ice. The track was purchased jointly by the fire department to be used for rescue work and the Lake Poygan Restoration Association.

The event had been postponed previously because of the lack of ice but last weekend some fishing shanties were moved onto Lake Poygan and cars were driving onto the ice.

Best fishing has been reported in the Norwegian Bay area where anglers reported limits of walleyes and large Northerns.

Oneida Man Sentenced To 60 Days in Jail On Disorderly Count

Milton W. Archiquette, 51, route 1, Oneida, was sentenced to 60 days in jail Tuesday afternoon after changing his plea to guilty of disorderly conduct. He was sentenced under a repeater count.

Archiquette, arrested by Outagamie County authorities after a disturbance at his home Jan. 8, earlier pleaded innocent and had his trial set for June 1. County Judge Gustave J. Keller had appointed an attorney after Archiquette was found indigent.

Father of five children, Archiquette was convicted of disorderly conduct Dec. 9, 1963; non-support June 30, 1964, and selling relief grocery money orders for cash on Feb. 5, 1965. He served jail terms ranging from 14 days to three months on the counts.

Adolescents and Alcohol

A leading psychiatrist has suggested that the public schools should inaugurate courses in the drinking of alcoholic beverages. Children as early as the primary grades would be given something like sherry mixed with water at first and gradually the alcoholic content would be increased. In this way they would learn how to handle and hold their liquor, according to the psychiatrist, and reduce the chances of their becoming alcoholics.

Naturally there has been an uproar and we doubt very much that any school will follow the psychiatrist's suggestions. Nevertheless the problems of the potential alcoholic and those of drinking especially among young people, present questions that cannot be shrugged away or dismissed with prohibition advice.

Despite all the new educational programs, the research, the status given to the teen-ager and what can almost be called the American worship of youth, there seems to be a considerable amount of insecurity among the American adolescent. Alcohol like cigarettes and even sexual experience, has become a symbol of maturity. And while it certainly is not to the credit of the average American adult that this is so, an objective observer can notice it is really the immature youth that resorts to intoxicating beverages as well as tobacco or making out to try to prove his adulthood. This is not true merely among young males although it is probably more widespread. The increase in drinking among girls of high school age and the pre and early twenties is obvious.

Certainly a solution is not easy. Youngsters in France have for generations been following the suggestions of the American psychiatrist, although their introduction to liquor doesn't come in the schools. But the percentage of alcoholics in France is very high and so is the consumption of alcoholic beverages. The other extreme, that of prohibiting the use of alcohol to all minors, has thus far at least proved completely unenforceable. States which have a twenty-one year old limit even for beer have been no more successful than Wisconsin in preventing the use of alcohol or its excess use. College students, for instance, in such states, know perfectly well that alcoholic beverages are available and where and under what conditions.

What has not been clearly established is whether the efforts to ban alcohol from youngsters actually increases its attraction. The I.D. card in Wisconsin has become a status symbol for the 18 year old even when he or she does not care for beer. The apparently widespread forging of such cards for younger boys and girls is another indication of its lure. Indirectly the legislature has said that drinking intoxicating beverages is reserved for adults and therefore it is a sign of maturity.

We can agree with those who rigidly oppose any use of intoxicating beverages on the grounds that things would be much easier without them. But this line of reasoning must also decry the existence of foods that make us fat or build up our vulnerability to heart disease. Alcohol is with us and its moderate use can be a pleasurable part of living without undesirable consequences. The big question is how to keep it moderate.

There has been a considerable amount of research into alcoholism and its causes. Generally there seem to be underlying reasons for a man or woman, or a boy or girl, to turn to alcohol to try to solve problems. But it seems also to be true that individuals can drift into alcoholism in that using it for covering up minor problems gradually leads to the development of major problems which also must be covered by more and more drinking of larger and larger amounts.

What is obvious is that too much drinking is a fact of our society and that includes too much drinking among men and women under twenty-one. Once again the major protection against the excess use of alcoholic beverages by the adolescent and young adult seems to come from home and the development of the sense of belonging and becoming among members of the family.

The Coroner Reports

Coroner Bernard Kemps once again has turned out his annual report on his activities for the year, and once again it makes enlightening reading.

As usual the slaughter on the highways is the most tragic aspect of the report. The 27 deaths in traffic accidents for 1965 matches the all-time record for the county. When Coroner Kemps points out that 212 persons have lost their lives in the county in highway accidents in the last ten years, we cannot help but compare this with the number of Outagamie County residents who have been killed in battle in that space of time and wonder why there is so little public outcry.

The report makes two other important points. "With the increase in improper and sometimes illegal use of barbiturates and amphetamines, laboratory analyses in coroner's cases are becoming more important. The drugs, a real blessing when properly used, have caused deaths in Outagamie County. They have been responsible for serious traffic accidents."

This report coincides with the announcement by the Federal Food and Drug Administration that the federal agency is going to launch a drive against the sale of these drugs to persons for non-medical uses.

The coroner also points out the value of complete postmortem examinations in unusual cases. An Appleton woman died while dining at a supper club. The death was ruled due to natural causes. But an examination at the funeral home revealed food particles in the mouth, and a postmortem proved the woman choked to death when food lodged in her throat. The ruling of accidental death meant survivors were entitled to additional insurance benefits of several thousands of dollars.

The coroner's office in county government is a valuable one when performed in the manner of Mr. Kemps. His excellent annual report serves to alert the public to that value.

The Ku Klux Klan, a Club for Bullies

The revelations about the Ku Klux Klan being made during Congressional hearings on the organization certainly are evidence that the investigations were long overdue. Despite all its noble language about religion, the Klan is being shown as a club for bullies and those who really enjoy violence for its sake alone.

The most damning evidence has come from former Klan members who joined in the mistaken belief that they were going to defend old-fashioned American principles of decency and justice. Instead they found that the Klan's taking the law into its own hands was really pure terrorism. Not only Negroes were threatened, beaten and even murdered, white men who didn't seem to be sticking to the straight and narrow path of the form of righteousness the Klan leadership considered right, were given a taste of the whip to persuade them to mend their ways.

This resort to force is a perversion. It is sadism in which the perpetrators delight in tormenting others. But Klan members went even further in that they concealed the enjoyment of violence under a cloak of righteousness. Naturally the beaten and the otherwise abused were being so treated for their own good.

Perhaps the presence of the Klan in a community and the fear it engendered did prevent some crimes as some law enforcement officials have insisted. But who is to tell who has made a bigger mockery of justice, the would-be rapist or wife beater or the Klan members who decided without judge, jury or statutes, who was to be punished for what alleged infraction?

Worry About Value of U. S. Dollar Not Lessened by Johnson Message

BY HENRY J. TAYLOR

President Johnson's State of the Union Message couldn't have been more inflationary if he had delivered it on a keg of dynamite. Is it conceivable that Mr. Johnson does not understand the immense forces at work? What kind of management is this anyway?

House majority Leader Carl Albert (D., Okla.), in the best tones of a political hack, says "the domestic program will move America forward." Does it move America forward to send the American dollar down the drain?

Taylor

Mr. Johnson sounds as if he's in charge, and apparently he is in charge — of the spending. But he's certainly not in charge of the brains and fears of the world. And right smack in the middle of our gold crisis and the worries of millions about the American dollar he unflexes his basso profundo and offers a beautiful recipe for panic.

GUNS WITH BUTTER

In one breath the President warns that "we cannot know what the future will require" in our ghastly Southeast Asia war, either its length or the vast potential dimensions. Then he says guns and butter at the top of his political voice is if this were not exactly what our declared enemies want to hear in their own program to destroy us.

Nearly everybody would count most of the butter on Mr. Johnson's list as desirable. But desirableness isn't the question. The question is the difference between good and bad management.

The whole political pitch and its pie-crust logic utterly lacked what Lord Fisher called "the outward form and inward meaning of great occasions." When Mr. Johnson stated "we cannot know what the future will require," this was his great chance and he fluffed it completely.

He worse than fluffed it. He buried the opportunity. He committed himself to his own noise about a bottomless barrel that he faces us with this as long as he remains in the White House. He has set us doing a clog dance on a mine field.

The moment had come when with honor and dedication the President could have said that he had offered the great costs and expansions of the Great Society in complete sincerity. He could properly point to his unparalleled legislative achievements to prove this point. But in the order of events a great nation must recognize priorities, and until we have nearly met the unknown demands of a war that may end up as a war for our survival his duty demands postponements.

Abandonment? Not necessarily. Postponements, positively. Can you imagine this hurting the morale of our men in Viet Nam, which should be the only morale that counts right now? Or the morale of any good American citizens here at home, either?

We're overgushed with palaver about wage-price "guidelines" and Mr. Johnson sits like some Indian chief pondering the omens. Then we see what fails to happen when politically powerful unions strike or in other ways break the lines like a matchstick.

IGNORED TRANSIT STRIKE

We see Mr. Johnson, who otherwise seems to get into everything, nobly detach himself from the awful, illegal New York transit strike, too busy in the public interest all over the world to get involved on the side of eight million defenseless sufferers in the nation's largest city. No prize for guessing why.

You can bet that had a company staged this battering illegality, Federal fines (somehow contrived) and chastisements by the Justice Department and Internal Revenue Service would have hit the company — and the headlines — instantly.

"I am quite disturbed that essential services could be paralyzed so long and by the cost of the settlement. . .which violates our price guidelines," was all the public got out of Mr. Johnson.

The state of our Union is a state of double talk. The peril to our Union is that the weapon Russia and Red China want most is a bankrupt or overextended America. Good management cannot rescue everything. But bad management can ruin anything. And if the kind of management we heard January 12 is to rescue the United States, God help us all.

Wisconsin Report

Lieutenant Governor's Office Taking on New Stature in Wisconsin

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Those Democratic whose associations indicate that they may know about such matters report that the two announced candidates for the party's nomination for lieutenant governor may be joined by two others and perhaps more.

Wyngaard

The spectacle of multiple candidacies for the minor place on the party's ticket, after so many years during which the party managers were obliged to recruit in a literal way, may suggest several things. It may merely mean that there are a number of ambitious young men in the party anxious to try their wings in a kind of test of future career possibilities in a way that is not especially expensive and that is not likely to be costly in reputation terms even if they fail to win the primary.

Or it may mean that the party's succession of vote-getting demonstrations in recent years has convinced some of these youngsters that there is a legitimate chance for the party to make a solid sweep next year and that they want to be on the bandwagon when it gets rolling.

Thus far Richard Zaborski, the young Milwaukee senator who has been the signal caller for the Democratic minority in the State Senate, and Abe Swed, a businessman who is mostly known through the prominence of his wife, Mrs. Jeanette Swed, the national committeewoman for the party, have declared themselves. One additional candidate who is sorely tempted is Martin Schreiber, the young Milwaukee state senator and son of the president of the Milwaukee City Council. There may be others.

* * *

WHY HAVE IT?

The lieutenant governorship is at best a modest and unsatisfying office. Its pay is small, its function is minor, and its opportunities for creative accomplishment few. The sideliner contemplating competition for the place is always reminded of the tale told about the vice presidency, which can be adapted plausibly to the No. 2 office in the Wisconsin state executive establishment.

As the story goes, a mother was lamenting the loss of her two sons. One vanished at sea, she related; the other was elected vice president.

Even as in Washington, the chief value of the Wisconsin lieutenant governorship is in its constitutional right of succession to the executive office in the event of the death or incapacitation of the elected governor. Such successions have occurred frequently enough in the history of the state to make it a consideration in the minds of politicians, although it is rarely mentioned aloud. More relevant is the opportunity, demonstrated several times lately, to use the place as a kind of lectern for promotion to higher office.

Chances are that Warren Knowles would not have become governor — if he had not served a few years earlier as lieutenant governor. Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey would not today be regarded in many quarters as the man to beat for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, except for the circumstance that he became No. 2 in the constitutional line in the last election.

* * *

THE FUTURE

Such men as Zaborski and Swed, therefore, will be examined by their thoughtful party associates as they regard themselves — as potential bidders for the top office.

Thus also, and inevitably, there will be a good deal of reflection among the party professionals about the supposed values of ethnic associations in Wisconsin politics. Historically men who have borne Yankee, German, Scandinavian and Irish family names have been most successful in statewide electoral competition. Names of Polish origin have not shown a representative pull out in the state, although they have been spectacularly appealing in some districts, notably in South Milwaukee, where they are virtually prerequisites for the aspiring politician. Relatively few Jewish persons have run for high office in the state. Zaborski's and Swed's progress will be studied in relation to those assumptions and traditions, as well as on their merits and their programs.

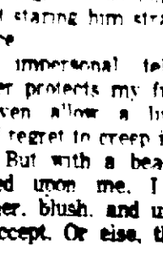

As a tentative assessment, the record of recent elections suggests that such considerations are of lessening importance. Some of the older habits of mind of the professional politicians have already been modified, as in the election of the first Roman Catholic governor of the state in 1962 with only a smattering of comment about its novelty.

Phone by Television Would be Last Insult

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

A brisk little item in a business magazine informs us that the time is not far off when home telephones will come equipped with a television device.

Harris

This appalling invention will permit callers to see each other while they are talking on the telephone — and, in my sour opinion, it marks the end of whatever small privacy still remains to a man within his home.

No longer would you be able to run to the phone straight from the shower, or take a call in bed, or even practice the many mild deceptions that now make social life bearable. It would be tantamount to installing a picture window in your bathroom.

One of the blessings of the nonvisible telephone call is the possibility of turning down invitations with a straight face. I find it comparatively easy to fib to a caller about a previous engagement for next Friday night — so long as I am not staring him straight in the face.

The impersonal telephone receiver protects my fraud. I can even allow a lingering tone of regret to creep into my voice. But with a beady eye fastened upon me, I would stammer, blush, and undoubtedly accept. Or else, the new device would soon turn me into a practiced and professional liar — and I deeply desire to maintain my amateur status.

Under the present happy system, an unwelcome, inopportune, or long-winded caller can be fobbed off with the mumbled response, "I'm in the middle of dinner," or the sleepy drawl, "I was just taking a nap," or the fake breathlessness of "I'm just putting on my hat to go out."

But framed in the old light of a television picture, we become nakedly vulnerable victims of bores, blabbermouths, and the countless conversational parasites who must spend their evenings at home leafing passionately through their telephone directories.

After all, our whole social system is erected on a carefully calculated structure of white lies, polite evasions, and false regrets. We engage in these voluntarily perhaps, both to protect ourselves from undesirable commitments, and to spare the feelings of those who want to see us more than we want to see them.

A television attachment to the phone would collapse the structure into rubble, and would divest modern man of the last drawbridge he can pull up to preserve some measure of privacy. It would turn father against son and husband against wife — to say nothing of destroying the subtle balance of power between debtor and creditor.

Thomas Edison, as we know, grew to hate the incandescent light. Lee De Forest pronounced a curse on the radio tube he invented. What, one wonders, would Alexander Graham Bell say about the peek-a-boo phone?

Democrats Prove 'Pure' Intentions

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Jan. 20, 1866.

Anybody who has dared to differ with the State Suicide Destructives' administration group of officials and political party members has been and always will be classed by such newspapers as the Berlin Courant with the "copperheads."

In this Congressional district Sawyer was elected Congressman before any such issue arose and at the late election a majority of people endorsed the President and condemned the "Destructives."

That the Democratic support of President Johnson has been wholly unselfish that Democrats freely condemn some of the acts of his administration while they endorse his noble views on Restoration of the Union, and manfully sustain his Anti-Protective Tariff recommendations, his advocacy of equal taxation, his hostility to all monopolies, is proof of the purity of their intentions.

That they act wholly disinterestedly is amply proven by the fact that, notwithstanding the fierce and unscrupulous war which has been waged against the President by the restless spirits of Radicalism in Congress and out of it, not one Democrat from Wisconsin has asked the President for an official appointment.

That the President will soon be compelled in self defense to issue tickets of leave to a large number of the office-holders in this and other States and appoint supporters of his administration in their stead is quite obvious.

While Democrats will continue to give him their hearty support, they will not ask office or honor as the price thereof. If the time should come that he needs their services in places of trust, he will undoubtedly so inform them, till which time Congressman Sawyer's Disunion Newspaper organs (Oshkosh Northwestern and Berlin Courant) and appointees may rest in peace.

Johnson Formally Asks Congress for More War Funds

Message Requests Additional $12.761 Billion for Viet Nam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson formally asked Congress today for an extra $12.761 billion to finance the war in Viet Nam, declaring "We hope the aggression will end; we must be prepared if it does not."

Again Johnson was unable to say whether his current effort "to open a road to a peaceful settlement" will be successful or not.

"We will continue to press on every door," he said.

"But until there is a response —and until the aggression ends —we must do all that is necessary," the President said, "to support our allies and our fighting forces in Viet Nam. That is the purpose of the present request."

The request was in the form of a letter to Speaker of the House John W. McCormack.

The second supplemental defense money request this fiscal year will provide, among other things, for adding 113,000 men to the armed forces and for buying their equipment. Civilian personnel will be increased by 94,000.

Most of the new troops will be allotted to the Army and Marine Corps, the services fighting the ground war in Southeast Asia. A few thousand men will be given each to the Air Force and Navy.

If Congress approves, as expected, the U. S. armed forces will go to 3,093,000 men — highest since a year after the Korean war.

Provide Details

Johnson's formal request to Congress was expected to provide details on the proposal for $12.346 billion in military money and $415 million for the economic side of the U. S. effort in Viet Nam.

The in-depth specifics may not emerge until Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara testifies in support of the money request Thursday.

From the skimpy information let out ahead of the presidential communication to Congress, it is known that $4.6 billion of the new supplemental will be spent by June 30, the end of the current fiscal year.

This, together with a $1.7 billion add-on to the defense budget for Viet Nam last summer, will jack up total military spending to $54.2 billion this year. This is about $6 billion higher than expected when the regular defense budget went to Capitol Hill nearly a year ago.

Following closely behind the $12.761-billion request for this year will come the regular defense budget proposal for next fiscal year — a request swollen to an expected $58.3 billion by the Viet Nam war.

4.25 Per Cent Expected to be Bond Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government soon will hike interest rates on U. S. savings bonds to the maximum allowable 4¼ per cent but will not ask congressional approval to go beyond that, sources indicated today.

The government now pays 3¾ per cent interest on the $49 billion outstanding in series "E" and "H" bonds.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler announced Tuesday that President Johnson had ordered the interest boost at "the earliest possible date." Fowler said the higher rates will help maintain the bond sales.

Under law, the government cannot raise the interest rate beyond 4¼ per cent without congressional approval.

Arguments Before Supreme Court Are Concluded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fate of the 1965 Voting Rights Act is now in the hands of the Supreme Court for a decision Chief Justice Earl Warren says "has profound implications in the life of our nation."

An early ruling may be in the offing. Warren concluded two days of argument on the law's constitutionality Tuesday with praise for both sides of having "done what they can to accelerate an early judgment."

Twenty states joined the U. S. government in defending the law as an appropriate and constitutional means of assuring Southern Negroes of the right to vote. Six Southern states united to attack the measure as "arbitrary in nature" and unconstitutional punishment for the states.

The last word went to South Carolina Atty. Gen. Daniel R. McLeod who questioned the "tender solicitude" of states that sided with the Justice Department.

New York Test

"California, Massachusetts and New York come before this court and say illiterates in South Carolina should be permitted to vote," McLeod said, and yet they bar illiterates in their own states with literacy tests.

In a New York literacy test, he went on, questions such as these were posed:

"In what state was Jane Addams born? How old will the U. S. flag be in 1977? Who was president of the Constitutional Convention? What kind of suit was he wearing?"

Laughter swept the courtroom, dispelling the solemnity that had marked the hearing, and Justice Byron R. White asked rhetorically with a smile: "how many people passed that test?"

"Possibly tests of this sort may have weeded out a few well-educated persons in my state," McLeod replied.

The suspension of literacy tests where less than 50 per cent of the voting age population registered or voted in the 1964 presidential election is a key provision of the voting rights law and a prime target of the southern states' attack.

Mrs. Indira Gandhi Is Escorted by India's acting Prime Minister Gulzari Lal Nanda arriving at Central Hall in New Delhi today where Parliament elected her prime minister. Mrs. Gandhi, 48, is the daughter of the late Prime Minister Nehru and the first woman to lead a major nation.

First Woman Leader

Mrs. Indira Gandhi Wins Indian Prime Minister Job

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Mrs. Indira Gandhi, daughter of the late Jawaharlal Nehru, was elected today to be India's next prime minister, the first woman in modern times to head the government of a major nation.

Thus on the shoulders of this 48-year-old widow fell the immense problems of India with which her father had wrestled for 17 years until his death in 1964 and which his successor, Lal Bahadur Shastri, had attacked vigorously until a heart attack killed him Jan. 11.

Mrs. Gandhi went to her victory wearing a red rosebud pinned to her shawl, just as her father wore a red rose daily throughout the tumultuous years after independence in 1947.

Polls 355 Votes

Mrs. Gandhi polled 355 votes to 169 for her only challenger, right-wing leader Morarji Desai.

Cheering erupted in Parliament's central hall when a party official, G.S. Pathak, announced the results of the secret ballot.

As the Nehru family once again took command in India, Mrs. Gandhi moved quickly to heal any damage done to party unity by the hectic political maneuvering that followed Shastri's death.

"I want your blessing," she told Desai as balloting began.

The stern, 69-year-old Desai replied: "Who am I to give you blessing? We need everybody's blessing."

Victory for Mrs. Gandhi, who learned politics at her father's side, not only resumed the Nehru era after Shastri's 19-month interval. It also passed the nation's leadership to the second generation of Indian politicians.

Until today, India has been governed by the early freedom fighters who waged Mohandas K. Gandhi's "peaceful resistance" campaign to win independence from Britain.

Minor Roll

Mrs. Gandhi was part of that movement but played only a minor role. However, the survivors of her father's generation, notably Congress party President Kumaraswami Kamaraj, crushed most opposition to Mrs. Gandhi and thus will continue to have a say — perhaps a strong say — in national affairs.

Mrs. Gandhi is the 20th century's second woman prime minister. The other was Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike of Ceylon, the tiny island nation of 10 million people off the southern tip of India. Elected in 1960, she was defeated in elections early last year.

A new prime minister could hardly face more serious problems than Mrs. Gandhi does.

There is widespread hunger in India and a near famine is expected in the coming months.

The dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir, which has set the two countries at war twice in 17 years, still festers. India's 480

Firecrackers Exploded in Negro Church

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Sheriff Alwayn Cronvich of adjoining Jefferson Parish said today the explosion in a Gretna Negro church Tuesday night was due to a couple of potent firecrackers—not a bomb.

The Jefferson Parish bomb squad, which investigated, identified the explosive as a pair of loud but relatively harmless "silver stars" — a firecracker roughly similar to the juvenile favorite known as the "cherry bomb."

Officers said apparently the firecrackers were pitched into the church vestibule through the front entrance. The loud "bang" startled the choir members practicing at the rear of the church — the Mount Zion Baptist church. The Rev. Henry Allen, pastor, said the choir members left the building through the rear door.

Students Rally In Indonesia

At a huge rally Monday at the University of Indonesia students eagers called for the removal of Cabinet ministers responsible for the deteriorating economic situation.

They also asked for the dissolution of the Indonesian Communist party — PKI. Sukarno earlier told a group of students who came to his palace to wait and see what he would do about the PKI.

Oshkosh, Green Bay Win Federal Status as Ports With 'Regional' Duties

In a sudden and unexpected action, the United States 7th District Court of Appeals in Chicago Tuesday upheld a Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) decision which declares Oshkosh and Green Bay regional airports for North Central Airlines flights.

The court's unanimous decision, delivered about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, means, in effect, that the cities of Appleton and Clintonville will be deprived of North Central service.

As a result, Oshkosh will be designated a regional airport to serve "Oshkosh-Appleton" and Green Bay will be the regional port to serve "Green-Bay Clintonville."

The court's decision took officials of North Central and the communities involved by complete surprise.

Consulting Attorneys

Bernard Sweet, a top officer of North Central, had just heard of the decision when he was contacted late this morning. Sweet said he had no idea how long the airline would continue to fly into the Outagamie County and Clintonville airports. "We are consulting with our attorneys in Washington," he said, "in order to find out just how we should proceed." Some sources feel it will be at least a month before the last North Central Convair sets down at the two airports.

Outagamie County Corporation Counsel A. W. Ponath was stunned by the decision of the three - judge panel. "I'm disappointed," he said, "and I don't think their findings as to flights and business are correct. The findings are based on a premise not justified by the actual facts of the case."

Study Appeal

Ponath said he would confer with County Board Supv. Mark Catlin, an Appleton attorney who is chairman of the airport committee, and Gerald O'Grady, the county's Washington, D. C., legal counsel in the appeal, on whether the county will make an appeal to a higher court (which presumably would be the U.S. Supreme Court). "We'll make a decision shortly," he said.

However, most Appleton and Clintonville observers, who have followed the case closely, doubt that the court's decision will be appealed.

One Appleton spokesman who looked on the court action with mixed emotions was attorney Karl P. Baldwin, president of Air Wisconsin, the new commuter airline which operates between the Outagamie County Airport and Chicago's O'Hare Field.

On Jan. 7 Baldwin received a letter from Frank Buttomer, North Central's vice president in charge of traffic and sales, in response to an inquiry on North

Find Bodies Of Nigerians

50 Army Officers Reportedly Killed After Coup Attempt

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria's political parties are rallying to the new military government but up to 50 officers have been reported executed in a power struggle within the army.

Reliable sources who reported the executions said among the dead was a lieutenant colonel who had tried to assassinate the country's new leader, Maj. Gen. Aguiyi Ironsi.

There were other reports that some officers were shot on the Lagos golf course. A British resident reported stumbling over an officer's body in long grass at the side of a tree.

The country's feuding political parties promised to support Ironsi's military regime. Among them was the Northern People's Congress party which with 12 Cabinet ministers dominated the government of Prime Minister Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa.

Balewa Kidnaped

Tafawa Balewa was kidnaped by military rebels who tried to stage a coup Saturday. The body of Finance Minister Festus Okotie Eboh, who was kidnaped with him, was found with five others in a shallow grave 30 miles outside Lagos, a government source reported. There still was no word on the fate of Tafawa Balewa.

Rusk, Harriman End 2-Day Rests

HONOLULU (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and roving U. S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman end today a brief Hawaiian respite after visits to four Asian capitals where they discussed Viet Nam.

Follows Bloody Attack

Communists Start Truce in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — The clock brought the Viet Cong tonight into their self-proclaimed four-day truce for the lunar new year after they had staged a series of attacks, the bloodiest at a camp for 2,000 Vietnamese refugees.

American armed forces remained on full alert. It was still unclear whether the Communist truce offer—advertised as effective at 11 p.m. (10 a.m. EST)—covered U. S. and other Allied troops.

Thirty-three persons were killed and 54 wounded as the guerrillas swept down before dawn on the sleeping camp on the outskirts of Tam Ky, a provincial capital 350 miles northeast of Saigon. Many of the victims were women and children.

Burn Huts

U.S. advisers said the raiders set fire to the thatch huts executed [illegible] and kidnaped nine men. They left behind leaflets denouncing U.S. operations as a "dirty war of aggression against the people of Viet Nam."

Show Hanoi Power

U. S. Planners Say War Must be Stepped Up

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — High-level U.S. planners in Viet Nam say the United States and South Viet Nam must step up the war, not de-escalate it, if the Communists are to be brought to the conference table and a favorable peace worked out, highly reliable sources reported today.

Top-level thinking is that in the unlikely event Hanoi and the Viet Cong ask for an armistice, allied pressure should be stepped up rather than eased. The bombings against North Viet Nam should be resumed and intensified, it is argued. Fighting should not end before the conclusion of peace talks.

These views, which appear at variance with President Johnson's current peace offensive, have been transmitted to Washington. What response has been made, if any, is not known.

Peace Easily Lost

The messages to Washington stressed that any peace could easily be lost unless the peace agreement contains ironclad guarantees that can and would be enforced. Otherwise, the American planners say, a Communist take over is clearly possible.

Other warnings to Washington include a suggestion that no peace treaty be sought that would force North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh to admit defeat, even by implication.

Recognize Power

The feeling here is that unless Peking, Hanoi and the Viet Cong realize that the United States and its allies not only have the power to win but are willing to use that power come what may, peace will be long delayed.

The U.S. mission also is believed to have warned Washington that peace negotiations now would require the recognition of several unpleasant realities — the extent of Communist control in the countryside, the lack of any pro-government or even anti-Communist political party to match the Viet Cong's smoothly functioning National Liberation Front, and the difficulty of the allies in countering the Communists' mobile warfare tactics which so far has given them most of the initiative on the battlefields.

Defense Claims Dr. Ivy Sought Krebiozen Test

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr An drew C Ivy would beat a path to any place that would lead to a test of Krebiozen " a defense attorney said Tuesday, but no test was made

The government has said it was impeded in obtaining samples of Krebiozen for tests to see whether the drug was effective against cancer

John F Sembower Ivy s attorney told a U S District Court jury in closing arguments that Ivy had suggested to the American Medical Association and the Food and Drug Administration that clinical tests of Krebiozen be made

Ivy, 72 director of medical research at Roosevelt University is one of three men charged with mail fraud and conspiracy in the sale and promotion of Krebiozen The government says Krebiozen is useless in the treatment of cancer

Other defendants are Dr Stevan Durovic 60 developer of Krebiozen his brother Marko 64 a lawyer and Dr William F P Philips 52 a physician who administered the drug

27,000 Added To Wisconsin Church Council

GREEN BAY — More than 27 000 baptised church members were added to the constituency of the Wisconsin Council of Churches when the group accepted the application of the Diocese of Milwaukee of the Episcopal Church during the annual meeting held here Tuesday

Episcopal Diocese will be the 11th denomination to be presented in the ecumenical body

The diocese headed by Bishop Donald H V Hallock had voted in its diocesan council in October 1965 to apply for membership At that time Bishop Hallock urged his council that the time for ecclesiastical and denominational isolationism has long past The note today must be cooperation "

The Bishop also spoke at the ecumenical dinner Tuesday night at Grace Lutheran Church He pointed out that the meeting was being held on the first day of the week of prayer for unity of Christians which has been held for several years but that now for the first time I am hearing from my clergy of many efforts in local communities to bring together all the different denominations for prayer fellowship and I am sure a brand new understanding of one another

Facilities Overcrowded

Clintonville Library Registration At All-Time High, Report Indicates

CLINTONVILLE — Registration records have reached an all-time high at the Finney Public library, according to the annual report for 1965 released today by Mrs. Marian E. Nelson, librarian.

Total registration is 3,223, an increase of 25 borrowers in the adult department and 45 in the juvenile department. The library's policy has no restrictions on out-of-city applicants for borrowers' cards and about 40 per cent of those registered fall in that class.

Book stock has increased and there are now 12,921 adult books and 8,574 juvenile books. The building is overcrowded and the staff constantly works on new arrangements to accommodate the book stock as well as other materials, the report indicated.

Because the heating unit was converted to gas last year, the old coal bin space was available for storage. It was painted, and shelving built in. The area now houses about 4,000 back-issue periodicals.

This, along with space in the regular magazine room to house issues since 1955, gives an opportunity to keep more magazines. These are loaned by the hundreds for reference or pleasure reading. The 1965 record shows 6,286 magazine loans.

Library service to the local hospital continues two afternoons a week. Service to hospital patients totaled 1,466 items in 1965. The hospital auxiliary provides subscriptions to magazines, the city street crews move the books to and from the hospital, and the library hires the book cart attendant.

National Library Week in April and National Book Week in October were observed with posters, bookmarks and special displays. Space does not permit teas, programs or large exhibits, which are the usual observance in libraries this size, Mrs. Nelson reported.

The 16th annual summer reading and story hour program was carried on for eight weeks in June and July. More than 300 children took part. The reading theme was "The Aquanauts."

Group visits by public and parochial school classes continued as in other years for instruction in the use of the library and for personal book selections. Grades one to six of the public schools, grades one to seven from St. Rose, and grades one to eight from St. Martin attend.

Closed 3 Days

The library was closed three days during 1965, two because of severe storms and one to permit staff members to attend the Fox Valley Library association meeting.

The library was open 305 days during 1965 with a total of 61,277 loans made of which 26,212 were adult and 35,065, juvenile.

Fremont Legion To Sponsor Little League

FREMONT — Little League Legion baseball will be sponsored again this year by the Wolf River American Legion Post. New baseball committee members appointed Monday evening were Evan Redemann, chairman, assisted by Junior Smith and Vernon Oehlke. The league has been sponsored jointly by the Fremont post and the Arndt Bruley Post at Weyauwega.

Legion members will be guests of honor at an open house observance Feb. 8 sponsored by the Fremont Boy Scouts at the village hall. The appreciation program cites the legion for sponsoring Cub and Boy Scout activities.

A report on an oratorical contest to be sponsored by the post for two youth age groups was presented by Harold Olson. After further study is made concerning community interest, the contest may be sponsored individually by the Fremont group rather than jointly with a neighboring post.

Crane Snaps Power Line at Marshfield

The crane, working at a factory construction site, struck the overhead 13,200 volt line which burned apart. Workmen were able to splice the line together.

Student Nurse Talks at Waupaca Auxiliary Parley

WAUPACA — Miss Mary Jome, a nursing scholarship recipient two years ago, spoke at the quarterly meeting of Waupaca Riverside Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at First Methodist Church.

Mrs. L. J. Stadler said her committee served coffee and cookies to the staff and patients at the hospital during Christmas week. The committee included Mrs. A. E. Tank, Mrs. Harold Faulks and Mrs. Ted Palmer.

F. D. Fowler, hospital administrator, announced that the wheel chair donated by the auxiliary has been delivered and is being used at the hospital.

Arrangements were completed for the auxiliary to make the last payment on the $10,000 pledge for the hospital addition.

either individually or together, or for the districts to contract with one or more districts to handle the classes.

Gordon presented the recommendations of CESA coordinator, Norman Larson, after he had studied the Calumet County program.

Larson said he felt the county could provide the stability needed to hold the school districts together. He pointed out that it would be impossible for some smaller districts, especially Hilbert and Stockbridge, to provide individual programs because of the few children needing special education in the districts.

Also noted was the necessity for a municipality with taxing powers to operate the program.

County Involved

Another factor was that even if it no longer retained sponsorship, the county would still be involved. If one school took over operation of the program, the children from other districts would be charged tuition and this would be billed back to the county.

F. J. Schmieder, district attorney, told supervisors that the county would have to pay for the program regardless of who handled it, and unless it retained sponsorship it would have no control over the expenditures.

There are now four classes in the county-two trainable and two for educables. It is believed that at least two additional classes may be needed for the next year.

Supt. Unbehaun reported that the class at Forest Junction School may be split next year so that the first four grades would remain at Forest Junction and a room would be provided in the Brillion Public School for grades five through eight.

It had been previously recommended by a state representative that placing the classes in a regular school would give the children beneficial contacts with children of normal ability.

Set Back 5 Years

In floor discussion, Supv. George Hostettler, Stockbridge Village, said it was his belief that to throw the program back to the school districts would set it back five years.

Tax apportionment for the program will be based on the equalized valuation for the entire county excluding municipalities which have their own approved program. This includes Kaukauna and perhaps parts of the Town of Harrison in the Appleton, Kaukauna and Kimberly school districts.

[illegible] school district may withdraw without the approval of the State Bureau of Handicapped certifying their program to be of equal or better value than the county program.

New London Tables Action of Changes To Sprinkling Law

Council to Study Plan Setting Rates for Sweeping, Flushing

NEW LONDON — A solution to the controversy over assessments on street sprinkling hardly got off the ground at Tuesday's city council meeting and was tabled for further study

The council received a new proposal for assessments, but some aldermen and city residents opposed it

New rates would be 15-cents a running foot for street sweeping and flushing five times a week, six cents per foot for twice a week and three cents for once a week

Only the main shopping area in downtown New London would be assessed for five days a week Main highways and arterial streets would be assessed for twice a week and all other curb and gutter streets once a week

A number of residents, who were assessed for five times a week this year protested at the Jan 4 meeting They were home owners living on main highways

Absorbed in Budget

Clarence Roloff, 316 E Beacon Ave said he did not think it fair for him or other property owners along heavily traveled streets to be assessed for cleaning He suggested it be absorbed in the city budget

George Wochinski, 321 N Shawano St, said a local firm engaged in hauling gravel, lime and sand caused much of the dirt along city streets He thought the firm should clean up the mess

Mayor Wilmer Schlafer said the police had been asked to contact the firm about helping solve the problem He said only residents along curb and gutter streets get the sprinkling and cleaning service It would be unfair to the property owner who does not receive any service to pay for sprinkling through an assessment

Local Taxes

Ray Pelishek, public works director said street sprinkling cost $7 950 in 1964 Under the present setup, $1.955 would have to be raised through local taxes

Pelishek said the tax rate would increase 66 cents per $1.000 assessed valuation if the entire street cleaning program was paid by taxes

An offer by New London Savings and Loan Association to sell the city a 75 by 130-foot lot and house at 215 St John's Place for parking was declined by the council

A letter from WLUK-TV in regard to cable antenna television service was read Schlafer said copies would be prepared and sent to all council, planning commission and utility commission members

Cautious Approach

Schlafer said he would appoint a committee later to study the matter He cautioned about becoming too excited in the program because of the legal entanglement involved

Purchase was approved of a three to four-yard capacity dump truck from Freibunger's Inc and a station wagon from Tews Inc

The bartenders license application of Helen Quantance, 615 Broad St, was held over for investigation by the license committee Two other licenses were granted by the council

Request for Tavern Permit Withdrawn

Maniaci Picks Up Building Plans, Says He Will Go Elsewhere

Former Milwaukeean Vincent J. Maniaci today withdrew his application for a tavern (beer and liquor) license to operate a supper club at 512 W. College Ave.

Chief Wolff questioned Maniaci's association in this city with Nicholas J. Gentile, another former Milwaukeean, with a criminal record. He also took note of the applicant's financial background.

Delayed Action

Maniaci and his attorneys claimed Gentile would have nothing to do with the proposed business or its operation. At a meeting last week the committee held in abeyance the license request.

Maniaci, 1718 S. Peabody St., was accompanied to the city hall today by Gentile, who resides at 8 Embry Court. They picked up the building plans from the director of inspection's office.

City officials said Maniaci indicated that his proposed restaurant-cocktail lounge was not welcome in Appleton and he planned to go elsewhere.

Maniaci had deposited $175 for the liquor license, $100 for the beer license and $7.50 for publication fees. He will not get a refund on the latter.

He conferred briefly with the city clerk and his letter was filed. It will go to the council at its regular meeting Wednesday night and under normal procedure goes to the welfare-ordinance committee which authorizes the refund.

May Vote on Refund

There was indication today the license refund may be brought up on the council floor and voted on then rather than wait two weeks.

Two weeks ago thirteen aldermen signed a resolution in which they requested the welfare-ordinance committee to deny Maniaci's license request when it came before it.

Some petition signers had indicated Monday they intended to force a vote on the license request Wednesday night instead of holding it in abeyance.

Longtime Friend

Maniaci, through his Appleton and Milwaukee attorneys, insisted last week at a committee meeting that Gentile had nothing to do with the proposed business venture and was a longtime friend of the family.

Chief Wolff said in his report that on at least three occasions Gentile had accompanied Maniaci to the city hall to discuss his restaurant plans with city officials and inquired as to the delay in granting his license.

The day after the committee meeting, city officials learned Mrs. Gentile had a financial interest in the venture through the proposed purchase of $20,000 in fixtures and furnishings from Modern Fixtures, Inc. of Milwaukee. They had paid $2,000 down.

Navarino Taxes

Approximately 300 members of the Walther League youth organization of more than 15 Missouri Synod Congregations in the area conducted a city-wide house-to-house survey to determine the religious affiliations of community residents Saturday. Receiving Their materials at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church before starting on their assigned areas, from left, are Gary Klevesahl, Appleton; Christine Mueller and Marlene Hedrich, Potter; Reid Peot, Appleton, and Mrs. Alice Sclipcea, Appleton, who issued materials.

Five Candidates to Vie for District 47 Supervisor Post

Incumbents, Challengers File Papers for County Board Seats

Norman Paul, route 1, Bear Creek, today became the fifth candidate to file nomination papers for Supervisory District 47 which includes the Towns of Maple Creek and Deer Creek and the Village of Bear Creek.

Four other persons, one of them a county board member, also filed papers with County Clerk Mollie E. Pfeffer, while one incumbent and two other challengers took out papers. Filing deadline is Jan. 25.

Charles E. Wussow, 1532 W. Franklin St., filed for District 6, City of Appleton; Henry Van Straten, route 1, Hortonville, former Outagamie County superintendent of schools, filed papers for District 38, Towns of Ellington and Center; Supv. Daniel Williams (Village of Combined Locks) filed for District 29, Combined Locks, and Walden J. Bunker, route 2, West DePere, intends to oppose Supv. Norman Austin (Town of Oneida) for District 42, Town of Oneida.

Taking out papers for county board election were Supv. John N. Corcoran, 117 E. Seventh St., Kaukauna (Kaukauna 4), a board member for 10 years, who will seek election to District 26, City of Kaukauna; A. J. Courchane, 150 N. Main St., Kimberly, a tavern operator, for District 32, Vilage of Kimberly, and Robert H. Weyenberg, a Kimberly-Clark Employe, 307 W. Kimberly Ave., Kimberly for District 33, also Village of Kimberly.

Clayton VanDyke, 328 E. 18th St., Kaukauna, earlier filed papers for election to District 26, while Courchane will be opposed by Sylvester Lenz, 121 S. Birch St. in District 32, and Weyenberg is circulating papers in the same district as is Erwin L. Steinhauer, 325 S. Patrick St.

Wussow, a free lance writer, has lived in the county 24 years. He saw active duty with the Navy in World War II and was on Okinawa on D-Daly. Wussow, who is single, is now a lieutenant in the Naval Reserve.

Willard E. Lyman, 1404 W. Washington St., earlier filed papers for District 6 and Robert Schmieder, 603 N. Summit St., still is circulating papers.

Incumbent

Williams, a member of the Airport Committee of the county board, has lived in the county all his life. He served 18 years on the county board, was off two years, then was re-elected and now is seeking his second consecutive term. He is head fireman at Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co.

Williams, Kimberly village president, who is the one candidate in District 28, served two years as Village of Kimberly trustee, was assessor eight years and constable four years. He and his wife, Ada, have five sons.

Van Straten, one of the first candidates to take out papers last fall, could not be reached this morning, nor could Bunker, a candidate in District 42. Van Straten probably will be opposed by Supv. Emmett W. Root, (Town of Ellington) who has taken out papers but hasn't filed.

Paul, a farmer, is a life-long resident of Outagamie County. He and his wife, Beatrice, have three children. He will be opposed by Supv. Walter Kilian (Town of Maple Creek); David Fletcher, Bear Creek Constable; Lawrence J. Rebman, a former board member, and Henry Breiting, Maple Creek town treasurer.

Winnebago Records 24th '65 Fatality

OSHKOSH — Winnebago County's 1965 highway traffic toll was raised to 24 at 9:35 a.m. Tuesday with the death of a Kimberly woman injured in an auto accident at 4:39 p.m., Dec. 20.

Dead is Mrs. Valeria E. Welhouse, 50, 326 N. Pine St., Kimberly. Art C. Miller, county coroner, said she died from internal injuries. She also suffered cerebral contusions and a broken leg in the crash.

County police said Mrs. Welhouse was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Earl, 52, which collided with a truck driven by Edward Antoniewicz, 71, White Lake, Wis., on U.S. 41 north of its intersection with U.S. 45.

Clark Files Papers For Weyauwega Supervisor Post

Clark, who represented the 1st Ward in Weyauwega before redistricting, will oppose Supv. Leo Richter, who represented the 3rd Ward in Weyauwega.

Waupaca to Boost Utility Assessment

Property Owners to Pay More For Sewer, Water Main Projects

WAUPACA — The city engineer was asked by the city council Tuesday to prepare a resolution increasing the property owner's share of sewer and water main installation costs.

Irver Oerter, city engineer will present the resolution at the next council meeting. The move was taken after the council was told installation costs have increased from $1.50 to $4 per foot since the old resolution was adopted.

The council and Mayor Lloyd Matheson agreed to exercise caution before granting a cable television franchise to any applicant after a letter from V. I. Minahan, president of WLUK-TV Channel 11, Green Bay, was read to the council.

Advised Caution

Minahan's letter, which was sent to all city councils and village boards in the area, warned of the possibility of the city becoming a party in court actions which may result before authority over cable television is established.

Matheson urged the council to wait until all of the problems are resolved before issuing any franchise.

Name Waupaca Sheriff To State Committee

WAUPACA — Sheriff Loran Frazier has been named to the resolutions' committee for the annual convention of the Wisconsin Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs Association Jan. 25 to 27 in Fond du Lac.

Sheriff F. Frazier was appointed by Sheriff Roger Reinel, Jefferson County, president of the association.

No Contests For Chilton City Offices

CHILTON — There are no contests for city posts to date, although candidates have until Tuesday to declare candidacy.

Filing nomination papers for the four existing aldermanic positions are incumbent Arthur Gruber, (4th) and incumbent Henry Koch, (2nd). New candidates are Lyle Kurtz, seeking the 3rd Ward post presently held by Ed Liska; and Floyd Ammerman, 1st Ward post, held by Donald Haltinner.

Seeking re-election are Mayor Harry Thompson and City Assessor Maude Cole.

Mrs. Merlin Schmidlkofer, city treasurer, and Arthur Pohland, city clerk, have obtained papers but have not filed them to date.

Boy Scout Roundtable Slated at Clintonville

CLINTONVILLE — The North District of the Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America roundtable meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. today at the First Methodist Church.

The meeting is for all Boy Scout and Cub Scout leaders. Packs have been asked to bring some article for display for the Blue and Gold banquets planned for February.

Ald. Ed Wanta Says He Will Run

CLINTONVILLE — Ed Wanta, Second Ward alderman, whose term expires this spring, has announced that he will seek re-election.

Wittenberg Assured Power

Cable to Electrical Station For Automatic Switchover

WITTENBERG — The Telephone Co. here has been stringing cable from its office to a point eight miles south of the village where a new substation will be built by the Wisconsin Power and Light Co. and the Wisconsin Public Service Corp.

Cost of the cable and labor totals $6,031.

The telephone connection is required to enable the two cooperating electrical power utilities to automatically switch over to an auxiliary source if one of the main supply lines is put out of commission.

The power companies are now installing footings for three large transformers and the building which will house equipment.

To Walk on Ice to Fond du Lac

AHS Boy Plans 35-Mile Lake Winnebago Hike

It may just start out like a quick stroll on a crisp winter day. But it won't be a walk around the block, rather, more like a 12-hour, 35-mile hike on the ice of Lake Winnebago.

An 18-year-old Appleton High School senior is busy training and equipping himself for a hike that will take him from Jefferson Park in Menasha to Fond du Lac, right down the middle of Lake Winnebago.

"I've wanted to do this for the past three years," Mike Scheid son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Scheid, 843 E. South St. said. And since I can't convince anyone to join me, I guess I'll have to go by myself."

To Start Early Saturday

The lanky six-footer plans to leave Menasha at 4:30 a.m. Saturday and with luck will arrive at the southern tip of the lake about 5 p.m.

In case his luck or the ice doesn't hold out, Scheid will travel prepared. A 30-pound pack on his back will contain an inflatable rubber raft, a life preserver, ice spikes and food for the half-day trip. A plastic suit and insulated military boots will protect him from the cold and a handy transistor radio will help alleviate the loneliness.

An avid ice fisherman and one-time cross-country runner, Scheid said he knows much of Lake Winnebago and also how to pace himself during the trip. He plans to start at a 4 mile per hour clip and later taper off to a slower pace. And if all goes well on the crossing, he said he would save the bus fare and make the return trip to Menasha over the ice on Sunday.

The 70-mile trip is only a conditioning exercise. Scheid stated. This summer he plans to peddle a bicycle out to Montana, a solo round-trip of 4,500 miles.

Calumet County Continues Classes for Handicapped

Board Action Extends Sponsorship

CHILTON — Members of the Calumet County board passed a resolution this morning extending county sponsorship of a program of special classes for the mentally handicapped children.

This action followed an afternoon of discussion and debate Tuesday, when A. W. Gordon, Chilton Superintendent of schools, and Gaylord Unbehaun, Brillion school superintendent, appeared before the board to request this action on behalf of the school administrators of the county.

Today's action rescinds the board's resolution of last April which ended county sponsorship of the program as of July, 1965. At that time the board agreed, however, to carry on until June, 1966.

The consensus was then that to turn the program over to the school districts would be the best alternative.

Program Unity

However, Gordon told supervisors that the county's school administrators feel that county sponsorship was vital to the unity of the program.

The county would again contract with the Cooperative Educational Service Agency (ESA) to administer the program. Miss Hilda Cavanough, Manitowoc, has been hired by the CESA to supervise the classes and carry out a county screening program to determine if more children might be helped by special classes.

Other alternatives presented by Gordon were for the schools to administer the program

New London Election

Four Battle for Council Seat

NEW LONDON — A four-way battle for the Fifth Ward alderman post shapes up a week before the filing deadline for nomination papers. Papers for city offices must be filed with City Clerk Melva Rickaby by Tuesday.

Arnold Kohl, 208 N. Water St., became the fourth candidate for the Fifth Ward position when he took out nomination papers Monday. Kohl is a tavern operator.

Two incumbent aldermen, Matt Burton and Edwin Knapstein, have filed papers for the post, and a third candidate, Andrew Wegner, 1105 Shiocton St., is still circulating his.

Knapstein and Burton are both seeking re-election to third terms. Burton had served a number of years previous to being re-elected to the council.

Zaug Seeks 4th Term

Jerome Zaug is the only candidate to file papers for First Ward alderman. Zaug, 207 E. Beacon Ave., is seeking his fourth term on the council.

Isabel Schoenrock, 503 Wyman St., has filed for the newly created Second Ward seat. Redistricting of city wards combined the old second and fifth wards into a new Fifth Ward and created an opening in the new Second Ward. The Fourth Ward will elect two aldermen, one for a one-year term and the other for a full two-year term.

Herman Gagnow, Appleton St., has filed for his second term as Fourth Ward alderman.

Johnson in Race

Ilo Johnson, 1505 Smith St., is seeking his first term as Fourth Ward alderman. Johnson, an alderman in the Second Ward for a number of years, has not been active in city politics recently. He will seek the one-year term.

Ronald Heise, 121 E. Washington St., has taken out papers for the First Ward alderman position, but has not filed.

Hilbert Group Re-Elects Directors

Hernke Elected President, Zachek Is Vice President

HILBERT — Joseph Zachek, Sterling McBrayer and Armin Hernke were re-elected directors of the Hilbert Area Development Corporation, at its annual stockholders meeting last week. All terms are for three years.

Holdover Directors are Robert Lutz, Samuel Huebner, H. D. McWilliams, Leander Roehrig, Gordon Hauser and George Rossmeier.

The corporation is formed for the purpose of financing a professional building which was completed in 1960 and now houses a doctor, dentist and attorney's office. Hernke, presiding at the meeting, said the community was fortunate in having such adequate professional services.

2 Men Injured In Waupaca Auto Accidents

WAUPACA — Two men were injured in separate accidents in the county early this week. Homer F. Hilton, 57, 414 W. Fulton St., suffered a back injury about 6:15 p.m. Tuesday when the car he was driving struck a deer and went into the ditch on State 54, three miles south of Manawa.

County police said Hilton was going west when the deer darted into the path of the car.

Albert A. Swinton, 45, 217 Lincoln St., New London, suffered chest injuries and was taken to New London Community Hospital as the result of a traffic accident about 4:10 p.m. Monday at the junction of Ferry Street and State 54 in Northport.

Swinton was driving west on State 54 and Maurice G. Hanson, 44, Wisconsin Rapids, was driving east. County police said Swinton was attempting to turn off the highway onto Ferry Street when the cars collided. Swinton's 1958 model car was listed as a total loss and Hanson's car had damages estimated at $600.

FWD Corp. Lists $38 Million Sales

Highest Total in Peace Time, President L. A. DePolis Reports

CLINTONVILLE — The 1965 consolidated sales of $38,761,946 reported by the FWD Corp. were the highest in any peacetime year, L. A. DePolis, president, said at the annual stockholders meeting Tuesday in the Veterans Memorial Building.

Fiscal 1965 profit before income taxes was $1,588,329 and the net profit was $890,329.

DePolis said that while the net profit of $890,329 was a record for FWD, it was not a good profit on $38 million worth of sales as it represents 4.1 per cent of the sales dollar before taxes, and after taxes, 2.3 per cent — "only half-way to our goal."

He said that the national average of profit is 10 per cent on the sales dollar before taxes, and roughly, 5 per cent after taxes "so this is our goal."

For 1964, sales were $30,368,758 and the fiscal 1964 profit before taxes was $1,318,678.

Net earnings in 1965 equal $2.62 per share of common stock compared with $1.97 for fiscal 1964.

Richard N. Stone, Stamford, Conn., vice chairman of the board, spoke briefly to the 35 persons present for the meeting. He announced no new policies or changes in management personnel.

Walter A. Olen, who will be 91 years old on Jan. 31 and who was the founder of the FWD Corp. (formerly The Four Wheel Drive Auto Co.), was asked by DePolis to speak to the stockholders. Olen was FWD president from July 14, 1910 to July 10, 1952, then chairman of the board from July 10, 1952 to Aug. 10, 1954. He continued as a director through 1957 and retired in 1958. He has continued as president of The Four Wheel Drive Foundation and curator of the Foundation's historic museum.

Olen said that in the last nine years since he left the company, there have been four different boards of directors. He paid high tribute to DePolis, and said that at the end of 1965, the company reached its greatest year and greatest profit.

Meetings Scheduled By Lutheran Parishes

NAVARINO — Annual congregational meetings will follow Sunday services at Ascension Lutheran Church here and St. John Lutheran Church, rural Clintonville.

Worship will be at 8 a.m. at Jerusalem Lutheran Church, Lunds; 9:30 a.m. at St. John Church, 11 a.m. at Ascension Lutheran Church.

Rev. Ned Westphal is pastor of the three congregations.

Manawa Man Jailed On Contempt Count

WAUPACA — Thomas A. Olson, 26, Manawa, was sentenced to the county jail Monday when he appeared before County Judge Wendell McHenry on a contempt charge.

Olson failed to pay support money as ordered in September, 1965.

Four Seek Supervisory Position at Brillion

3 Calumet Board Incumbents Face Former City, County Official for New Post

BRILLION — A four-way race developed here this week for a berth on the Calumet County Board when Arthur Neymeyer announced that he is seeking the position in the city which has been reclassified as supervisory District 12.

Present Supvs. Louis Huibregste, Clarence Pagel and Alfred Burich have also filed papers for the post. The new district was created through reapportionment.

A March primary will eliminate two from the race, according to City Clerk Lynn Williams. Neumeyer, a retired photographer, has also filed nomination papers for the second ward aldermanic post as has incumbent Delos Reynolds.

Neumeyer served 23 years on the Calumet County Park Commission, 16 years on the county zoning commission, was a member of the Brillion Utility Commission for 13 years, county board for six years and was city alderman for one term.

No papers have been filed for the 1st Ward aldermanic post, now held by Eugene Buboltz, or for justice of the peace, both of which expire in 1966.

Hilbert Girls Adopt Shut-Ins as Project

A $10 donation was made by the group to the USO. In charge of arrangements for the Feb. 15 meeting will be Mrs. Roland Welker, Mrs. Joseph Bauer and Mrs. Erhard Albers.

New Leader of India Lady of Contradiction

Mrs. Gandhi Insists She Dislikes Politics, Can Handle Nation

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — "My mother taught me to keep my feet firmly planted on the earth and my father never tired of insisting I should hitch my wagon to a star," the slender, graying woman said

The statement illustrates the contradictions in the life of India's new prime minister, Mrs Indira Gandhi

"I do not like politics," she said not long ago "I do not like being in the public eye"

But she served a year as president of India's ruling Congress party and 19 months as minister of information and broadcasting in the Cabinet of the late Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri

Recently she told an interviewer she would like to devote her time to research and anthropology As prime minister, the frail, 48-year-old woman will be grappling with India's food shortage and regional rivalries, a shaky truce with Pakistan and Red China's belligerence, among many other problems

Refused Job

Mrs Gandhi probably could have had the job of prime minister when her father, Prime Minister Jawarharlal Nehru, died in May 1964

Shastri offered to support her but she told him "I am not modest enough to say that I cannot handle the job, but I am not conceited enough to say that others cannot handle it"

Unlike her dynamic, ambitious aunt, Mrs Vijayalakshmi Pandit, Mrs Gandhi did not throw herself into politics, but she was a close confidant of her father while he struggled as prime minister for 17 years under the enormous burdens of India's hungry hundreds of millions Nehru often found relaxation romping with Mrs Gandhi's two young sons and their animals

Woman in Ceylon

Now the problems that beset Nehru—and after him the diminutive Shastri — rest on the shoulders of Nehru's 5-foot-5 daughter, the first woman to serve as chief of government of a major nation The only previous woman prime minister is Mrs Sirimavo Bandaranaike, who served in Ceylon, India's small island neighbor, 1960-65

Mrs Gandhi was born Nov 19, 1917 in Allahabad, the only child of the Nehrus, whose campaign for Indian independence had its effect on her life Her childhood was lonely because often both parents were in jail before she was deemed old enough by the British to go to jail herself

There is a story that a caller stopped by the home one day in 1922 and asked why it was so deserted "What else could it be," said 5-year-old Indira, when all the inmates except me are in prison"

At 12 she formed a 'monkey brigade' of school children who carried messages for Indian leaders in defiance of the British.

Jailed After Honeymoon

Mrs Gandhi was married to Feroz Gandhi, a lawyer and newspaper executive, and both were jailed in 1942 as they returned from their Kashmir honeymoon Her husband — no relation to Mohandas K Gandhi — died of a heart attack in 1960

She had served 13 months in prison for political activity in 1938, shortly after she joined the Congress party

When Mrs Gandhi became president of the Congress party in 1959, she told a reporter party leaders had bullied her into taking the post Later she said she found it an exhilarating and exasperating experience Nehru said he was concerned about her health — she has undergone treatment for a back ailment and other illnesses

As information-broadcasting minister Mrs Gandhi lived in a sparsely furnished government house with her household staff and three dogs

Wears No Jewels

When it became apparent she would be elected prime minister so many government figures politicians and friends arrived at her house that a tent was erected on the front lawn to shelter them

She donated her bracelets and rings to India's national defense fund during the 1962 border war with China

Her day often begins about 6 a m with eggs toast and coffee and doesn't end until near midnight She is not a vegetarian, unlike many Hindus Recently she stopped eating cereals because of India's campaign to conserve wheat and rice

Too Many VIPs Still Clutter Up Viet Nam War

Pentagon Approves, Gen. Westmoreland Protests Junkets

BY ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — Gen William Westmoreland, commander of U S forces in Viet Nam, has quietly and unofficially dispatched a complaint to Washington Too many VIPs are still coming to Viet Nam

What makes this complaint ironic is that a good many of the junkets are actually promoted by the Pentagon, which encourages such trips (both Congressional and non-Congressional) to build up public support for the Vietnamese war

Westmoreland has grumbled that both he and his senior officers are distracted from the hard job of fighting a war In recent weeks, they were handcuffed by the care and feeding of more than 60 visiting members of Congress, along with scores of other public and private figures — including a much-publicized tour by Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles Yorty, who is thinking of challenging Gov Pat Brown for the Democratic nomination for governor, got reams of publicity from his Viet Nam visit

Still, the Pentagon encourages blue ribbon visits to the battlefield Congressional offices still receive telephone calls from the Pentagon suggesting they ask local editors, civil leaders, and opinion makers generally to visit Viet Nam.

The Toll of Polls

The surprising decision of two widely separated politicians — Democratic Rep Edith Green in Oregon and Republican Gov Henry Bellmon in Oklahoma — not to run for the Senate, had a common cause Bad polls

A private poll showed Mrs Green running far behind Republican Gov. Mark Hatfield for the Senate seat being vacated this year by retiring Democratic Sen. Maureen Neuberger Similarly, a secret poll taken by Bellmon showed him far behind Democratic Sen. Fred Harris (elected for a two-year term in 1964). With Mrs. Green and Bellmon out of the picture, Hatfield and Harris are just about sure winners.

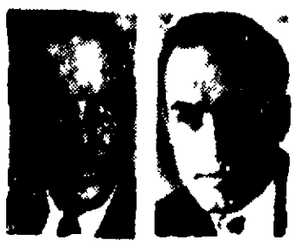

Actually, even before she saw the polls, Mrs. Green was hesitant to oppose Hatfield because of her old foe in Oregon politics: Sen. Wayne Morse, the Democratic maverick who used to be a Republican Morse has an undisguised hostility toward Mrs. Green. Even worse for her, he does not conceal his admiration for Hatfield.

A footnote: One 1966 political challenger who recently received good news from his pollster was Illinois Republican Charles Percy. A preliminary survey gives him over 40 per cent of the vote against three-term Democratic Sen. Paul Douglas, an excellent starting point. The poll was surprising to National Republican leaders, who figured Percy would have to overcome a much bigger Douglas lead.

Kuchel's Loss

One delayed side-effect of liberal Republican Sen Thomas Kuchel's decision not to seek the nomination for governor is the loss of Steve Horn, his bright young assistant and political adviser.

Behind the scenes, Horn — a staunch liberal — was a major factor in Kuchel's strong battle against the John Birch Society and right wing extremism Horn encouraged Kuchel to support

Evans Novak

Gov Nelson Rockefeller against Barry Goldwater for the Presidential nomination in 1964 Horn himself played an intimate role on Rockefeller's staff in the California primary

But the Kuchel-Horn relationship began to sour last year when Horn pleaded with Kuchel to challenge Goldwaterite Ronald Reagan in the 1966 primary for governor in order to save the California Republican party Horn burned his bridges when he predicted, publicly as well as privately, that Kuchel would run for governor because "it's the right thing to do"

When Kuchel bowed out of the governor's race, in September, Horn's position became untenable He resigned quietly last week to take a job with the Brookings Institution — leaving a massive hole on Kuchel's staff

Republican Georgia

The 1966 election may produce a Republican governor in Georgia, once the most monolithic Democratic state in the Union Rep Howard H (Bo) Callaway, a 38-year-old freshman Republican Congressman from south Georgia, may run on a conservative anti-LBJ platform Lavishly financed, the attractive, articulate Callaway would have a fighting chance against ex-Gov Ernest Vandiver, the probable Democratic nominee.

Building Hits $814,000 For Kimberly

KIMBERLY — Building construction costs in the village during 1965 amounted to $814,800, according to Cletus Gaffney, assistant building inspector. Of this amount, $225,000 won't appear on the tax roll as it is work being done on a village owned pumping station.

The report shows 15 new homes built at a cost of $206,500 during the year, two 2-story, 4-apartment buildings at a cost of $48,000, 25 garages at a cost of $22,200 and 35 remodeling and addition projects costing $41,100.

A permit also was issued for a building to contain three offices and three apartments, cost set at $26,000. A grocery warehouse was built at a cost of $6,000, and a manufacturing warehouse was built for Kimberly-Clark at a cost of $240,000 to round out the construction work. Total fees collected for building permits amounts to $423.50.

During the year there were 93 gas units installed and 77 permits issued with total gas permit fees amounting to $178. This includes 31 new furnaces, one gas wall heater, 12 gas furnace conversions, 30 hot water heaters, seven ranges, eight dryers, one fireplace and three gas engines.

Better Driving Class Scheduled At KVS Feb. 10

KAUKAUNA — A driver improvement course, for experienced, licensed drivers, will be offered at the Vocational and Adult School beginning Feb. 10, according to Dominic Bordini, director.

Sessions will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. on Thursdays for four consecutive weeks, cost of the class being $1. The course, designed by the National Safety Council, uses films, charts and other teaching aids to help present visually the principles and techniques of safe driving. Time is allowed for questions and discussion, but no examination is involved in the course.

Instructor will be a licensed, experienced teacher who has taken special courses designed to aid him in teaching techniques of defensive driving. Registration can be made by calling the school office.

Meets in Appleton

The monthly meeting of the Fox Valley Section, American Welding Society, will be held at 7:30 p.m., today, at the Appleton Elks Club.

Msgr. Emil J. Schmit Returns to His Home After Green Bay Crash

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Emil J. Schmit, 79, pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, was brought home Monday afternoon from St. Vincent Hospital, Green Bay where he was taken following a car accident in that city Jan. 6.

Mrs. Catherine Fuehrer, 70, his housekeeper, died Wednesday evening as a result of injuries she received in the same accident. She was a passenger in his car.

Your Wisconsin Income Tax

Transitional Adjustments Provides Savings of Deductible Depreciation

By NORMAN E. SCHLEY

Ninth of a Series

Transitional Adjustments

The 1965 law that effectively "simplified" the preparation of most Wisconsin income tax returns involves an historic change. While many states have adopted similar simplified procedures by accepting federal rules and regulations, the effect in this state was more involved.

Prior Internal Revenue Codes

provided for the use of accelerated methods of depreciation on certain depreciable assets. These methods included the sum of the year's digits, double declining balance as well as the additional first year's depreciation allowance. The State of Wisconsin did not provide for such methods until 1963. As a result, if owners of such property were to accept the present simplified law without the opportunity of making "transitional adjustments", a certain amount of valuable, deductible depreciation might be lost, and millions of dollars worth of "basis" would have been confiscated.

Not Depreciated

Constant basis assets

"Constant basis" assets are those (other than inventories) which are not subject to depreciation, depletion or amortization and which will affect your taxable income only when you dispose of them. A share of stock or a tract of undeveloped land are good examples. The preparation of schedule T (transitional adjustments) will be required if you sold or otherwise disposed of constant basis assets during the year on which gain or loss was recognized and on which you had a different tax basis for federal and state income tax purposes. The small percentage of taxpayers who will be affected by this problem will do well to study the excellent example printed in the instruction sheet.

"Changing basis" assets include property subject to depreciation, capitalized intangible expenses and accruals, reserves and deferrals of other income or expense. All taxpayers who had changing basis assets on hand on the first day of the 1965 taxable year, which had a basis for federal income tax purposes that differs from the state, are required to complete Part II of Schedule T "Transitional Adjustments". This schedule is drawn in a convenient manner so that a report of the differences between the state and federal figures may be enumerated and distinguished as to ownership between husband and wife. In certain unusual cases the federal adjusted basis will exceed the Wisconsin and the taxpayers will determine the number of months over which the net differences are to be amortized. The number of months chosen not more than 60 should be entered on Line 4, Part II. A case in point might include those farmers who, under special state milkhouse amortization laws, were allowed to "charge off" the cost of such a facility over a shorter period of time than was allowed under federal rules or procedure. Such an adjustment is considered as a reduction in deductions and not additional income. Much accounting may be required of those taxpayers who have substantial facilities. In most cases, the Wisconsin adjusted basis will exceed the total of adjusted federal basis, in which case the number of months chosen for amortization (not less than 60) should be reported on Line 7, Part II of Schedule T.

Schley

Variable Deduction

Q. The state allows me a different amount of depreciation each year on my automobile used as a salesman. Would I complete Schedule T?

A. Yes.

Q. The state auditors asked me to depreciate some repairs to my apartment building. How do I show this difference?

A. By completing Schedule T as well as Form M.

Q. Do I spread a net difference in "changing basis" assets of $4,500 over five years?

A. Not necessarily. When the difference is less than $5,000 you may include if you so desire, the entire amount in the first year. Or, you may amortize the amount.

Vote Schumacher New Commodore Of Yacht Club

Roy J. Schumacher has been elected commodore of the Appleton Yacht Club.

The club has its clubhouse located along the Fox River at Lutz Park.

Members, at their annual meeting, elected other officers, including Milton Daanen, vice commodore; Henry V. Rammer, secretary-treasurer; William T. Riordan Jr., fleet captain; Gilbert E. Weiss, lieutenant fleet captain; Harold E. Ruth, measurer; and Hilton J. Christensen, sergeant at arms.

Raymond LeVee and James F. Miller were elected to three-year terms on the board of directors.

The club is awaiting completion of the city's comprehensive park development plan before deciding whether to improve clubhouse and harbor facilities.

Kimberly Youth Gets Chef Scholarship At Milwaukee Institute

MILWAUKEE — Dennis Mader, a 1964 graduate of Kimberly High School, received a $300 scholarship from the Les Amis d'Escoffier Society Foundation of New York to enable him to continue his chef training program at the Milwaukee Institute of Technology.

Mader received the award on the basis of an excellent academic record during the first year of the two-year restaurant and hotel cookery program at the Institute.

Legislators Resent 'Trained Geese Treatment'

State Institutions May Begin to Receive Unannounced Inspections

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The probability of unannounced inspection tours of state institutions appeared Tuesday, as the Joint Legislative Committee to Visit State Institutions met for organizational purposes.

Elected chairman was Cletus Vanderperren, rural Brown County assemblyman and a Democrat.

Included in the visitation schedule may be institutions run by state agencies other than the Department of Public Welfare, traditional target of the committee's inspections in the past.

"We are not interested in the bricks and mortar of the institutions," said committee member Assemblyman Harvey Gee of Wood County. "We want to look at their operations."

Not Successful

Past visits by legislative groups, including the visitation committee, have not proved entirely successful, Gee said.

"We were awaited at the gates when we arrived and hauled around like a bunch of trained geese. We saw only what the directors wanted us to see."

The presence of representatives of the Department of Public Welfare inhibited free discussion with institution officials, Gee charged. At times the state department representatives conducted the discussions themselves, he added.

Sen. Frank Christopherson of Superior, who also is a member of the State Building Commission which bears the responsibility of funding state construction projects, requested the committee add to its schedule visits to institutions other than those operated by the welfare department.

Welfare Projects

In the past, it was pointed out, the scope of the committee's attention was limited to the state public welfare projects, but under the existing statutes all state institutions may be visited by the committee, the group decided.

Under a long-standing precedent, the committee frequently tours the state schools for the deaf and blind, run by the Department of Public Instruction, and the veterans' home at King, managed by the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Major Sites

The Building Commission often has to vote on structural matters and associated policy questions of facilities that they never see, Christopherson said, and the legislators serving on both groups could benefit from inspecting all state institutions.

Sen. Ernest Keppler of Sheboygan added that many county projects aided by state funds properly fell within the scope of the committee, and that these should be considered for inspections. Assmblyman Daniel Hanna of Milwaukee pointed out a Milwaukee County mental institution that receives over $1 millions in state aid annually, but which, he said, is a re cloak and dagger operation. It is impossible to get inside the place."

Keppler also asked that conservation department institutions be added to the visitation list, for even as a member of the interim conservation committee during the last session of the Legislature he said, he got to see only the major sites.

"As far as seeing the many little, out of the way institutions, that committee was a waste of time, except as a junket."

Gee suggested that the committee consider submitting bills to the Legislature at the end of their inspections, rather than file a report as has been done in the past. The committee should push for passage of the bills entered as a result of its work, he said.

Such responsibilities were implied when the Legislature voted to increase committee membership from seven to 11, he said.

Vanderperren suggested that committee members consider visiting institutions in announced tours, but without the company of welfare department representatives. In that way the presence of facility staff officials will be assured, it was pointed out. Unannounced visits by individual committee members might also be considered, he said.

Unannounced

But if necessary, the committee will resort to unannounced visits, it was decided.

At the committee's next two day meeting in Madison Feb. 3 and 4, two or three state institutions will be inspected, and a tentative schedule of visits adopted from a list of all state-aided institutions.

Also elected officers were Assemblyman Ben A. Riehle, Marathon County Democrat, vice chairman and Sen. Keppler, a Republican.

Scientist Hurts 3 Associates, Then Kills Self

UPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Behind the high fence shielding Brookhaven National Laboratory a young scientist stripped to the waist, daubed his chest and forehead with fingernail polish, picked up a shotgun and rushed into the engineering department.

He wounded three friends with shotgun blasts. He fired at a fourth, but missed. Then, police said, he ran outside to his car, where he put the muzzle in his mouth and pulled the trigger.

Maresca fell dead a few feet from his station wagon. The motor was still running and a child's pull toy was on the rear seat.
